3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, and to let the oppressed go free.

LUKE 4:18

With this weekend, we dive deeper into ‘Ordinary Time’ until the beginning of Lent with Ash Wednesday on March 2. (Easter is April 17 this year, FYI). With Ordinary Time, we start the cycle of readings from the Gospel of Luke, and will follow along via his narrative of the life and ministry of Jesus throughout much of the rest of the year. As such, I wanted to take this space to give a few thoughts about Luke’s Gospel and what he highlights as he tells the story of Jesus.

To begin, each of the four Gospels is represented by an image or icon: St. Matthew by an angel; St. Mark by a lion; St. John by an eagle; and St. Luke by an ox. These icons come from the revelations in the Book of Daniel and each represent a key characteristic of the Gospel, a particular aspect of the ministry of Jesus that is highlighted in this particular Gospel.

For St. Luke, the image of the ox represents the Temple and the importance of the Temple in Jerusalem, specifically the importance of sacrifice in the Temple. Throughout the Gospel, Jesus is looking towards Jerusalem and to what awaits Him when He gets there. He knows the altar of the Cross awaits, yet He does not shy away from His impending sacrifice. Rather, He embraces it and chooses to move forward for our freedom.

Additionally, St. Luke’s account of the Gospel highlights the role women play in the life of Jesus. It is in Luke’s narrative that we see a number of women accompanying Jesus as He travels through Galilee and towards Jerusalem. They provide for Him from their means and just walk with Him as He walks with them.

The Holy Spirit also plays a central role throughout the Gospel, too. He is prompting Jesus to move from one place to another and Jesus is frequently stepping aside to go into prayer to stay connected with the Spirit as well.

But perhaps best of all, we can surmise that Luke was a non-Palestinian writing for a non-Palestinian audience, which includes us. He isn’t so much concerned with the geography of the place, rather than the ‘why?’ of the place and the story. Luke’s perspective gives us a very approachable entrance into the story of Jesus, allowing us to be there, in a way, so that we can be there with Him.

As we enter into this story, anew, this weekend, may the Spirit of the Lord be upon us throughout this journey.

God Bless,
Fr. Kyle Schnippel
Pastor

LIVE the LITURGY

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that He is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

FAMILY FAITH MOMENTS

On January 28, the Church celebrates the Feast Day of St. Thomas Aquinas. Thomas was from a wealthy family; but he chose to join the Dominicans, an order whose friars took a vow of poverty. Thomas studied, taught, and wrote. He was considered a brilliant man, and had extraordinary powers of concentration. He reportedly never forgot anything he read. But Thomas was very humble and acknowledged that all his gifts came from God. Thomas was an advisor to Kings, a writer of masterpieces, a counselor to Popes, and a teacher of classics; but most of all, Thomas was a servant of God.

St. Thomas was declared Patron Saint of Catholic Schools. Pray to St. Thomas to help you in your studies. St. Thomas treated everyone with patience and kindness. During his life, he was never known to lose his temper or speak sarcastically about another person. Try to be like St. Thomas in patience and kindness. List all the times that you have shown kindness to other people in the last three days. Consider several acts of kindness that you could put into action in the next three days.

VOCATION NIGHT

Single men, aged 18-35, are invited to come to a Vocation Night at Mount St. Mary's Seminary and School of Theology (6616 Beechmont Avenue in Cincinnati) on Wednesday, January 26. The evening begins at 5:00 pm and ends at 8:30 pm; and includes Mass, dinner, talks, a tour, and an opportunity to interact with the seminarians. Register at catholicaoc.org/vocations.

ROSARY RALLY for LIFE

is Saturday, January 22, the anniversary of the Roe v. Wade decision. The rally will be at 12:00 noon in front of the Women's Center located at 1401 East Stroop Road in Kettering.

Rally should last about an hour, and we will have extra rosaries if needed.

Pope Francis has invited the Catholic Church to embark on a journey together through the Synod on Synodality. Simply put, Synodality is discerning how the Spirit is moving through and with the Body of Christ, so that we may continue to fulfill our mission to evangelize in the world. Through listening and discernment rooted in the Holy Spirit, the entire people of God will be called to contribute to a process by which the Church deepens in understanding of Her mission and looks toward the future. Synodality involves being companions with one another as we listen to the Spirit and one another, as we share in the common mission of the Church.

If you missed the SYNOD meeting at St. Peter, the next meetings in our area are at St. Teresa in Springfield on January 29 or at St. Albert in Kettering on February 10. Please be sure to click the link to RSVP at catholicaoc.org/synod.

The casserole and canned food sign-ups for the January meal to be served at the St. Vincent Shelter are this weekend, January 22 and 23, after all Masses in the main foyer of St. Peter Church. Casseroles and canned goods are due on Thursday, January 27, in the parking lot in front of the Family Life Center from 8:45 to 10:00 am. You do not need to park, we will be there to get your food.

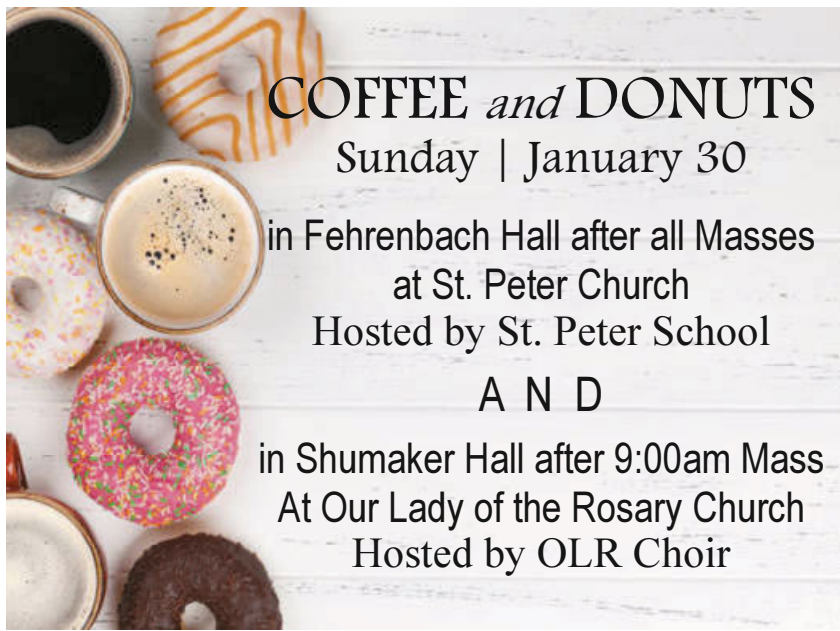

LENTEN SERIES ON PRAYER

We would like to know if you would be interested in a Lenten Series on Prayer. The short survey at the link below only takes a few minutes to answer the four questions, and we would like to know your interest level in such a program. Thank you for your time and your opinions.

“Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

- Matthew 5:16

Your support of the CMA impacts thousands of lives in our communities.

Catholic Charities and Catholic Social Services

These organizations provide emergency relief, counseling, Su Casa Hispanic services, senior services, food for the hungry, and more.

Retired Archdiocesan Priests & Senior Clergy

The CMA assists our retired priests through contributions to the Priest Retirement Plan. For our priests who choose to postpone retirement and continue serving in active ministry beyond age 70, the CMA helps to cover the compensation of these priests.

Seminary and Vocations

Mount St. Mary’s Seminary & School of Theology offers seminarian education, diaconate formation, and lay pastoral ministry programs.

St. Rita School for the Deaf

St. Rita School for the Deaf meets the educational and social needs of children who are deaf or have communication needs. The school educates students in grades pre-K through 12.

New Evangelization

The Center for the New Evangelization provides programming for some of the most important stages in people’s lives. Key areas of ministry include formation and training for Parish Leaders as well as running Archdiocesan evangelization ministries.

Campus Ministry

Catholic Campus Ministry helps keep college students connected to their Catholic faith during this pivotal time in their lives.

Hospital Ministry

Catholic chaplains and lay pastoral ministers at local hospitals offer prayer, the sacraments, companionship during a hospital stay, and a listening presence to those in need.

Prison Ministry

The incarcerated receive support through RCIA classes, the celebration of Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and other faith-based programs.

Examples of Your CMA Donations at Work

Campus Ministry

The CMA supports Campus Ministry at the University of Cincinnati, Miami University, and Wright State University.

Retired Archdiocesan Priests

98 priests are currently receiving retirement benefits.

St. Rita School for the Deaf

more than 200 students enrolled.

Prison Ministry

The CMA supports Prison Ministry at Lebanon Correctional, Warren Correctional, and Dayton Correctional Institutions.

Seminary and Vocations

For the current school year, 59 men are in formation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

New Evangelization

This past year, 722 engaged couples attended a Genesis Pre-Cana Retreat.

Catholic Charities & Social Services

33,000+ families served with food distribution services.

Hospital Ministry

40,000+ visits were made to patients, staff, and family members in 2020.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

PARISH PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank You for gathering us together and calling us to serve as Your disciples. You have charged us through Your Son, Jesus, with the great mission of evangelizing and witnessing Your love to the world. Send Your Holy Spirit to guide us as we discern Your will for the spiritual renewal of our parish. Give us strength, courage, and clear vision as we use our gifts to serve You. We entrust our parish family to the care of Mary, our Mother, and ask for her intercession and guidance as we strive to bear witness to the Gospel and build an amazing parish. Amen.

VOCATION PRAYER

Almighty Father, You have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our Archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy Priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
