GILR
FROM THE DESK OF FR. JOHN MCNULTY

On Monday of this past week Mr. Zak Jester informed me that he is resigning as Youth Minister for Communion of Saints Parish effective October 7, 2019. Zak has an opportunity to minister at a parish closer to his home. With the birth of his first child, Zak and Sarah will have more time to be with each other. I am sorry that Zak has made this decision, but, I certainly understand.

Zak has been very faithful in ministering to those preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation and to the YOCOS. I appreciate his time with us.

Youth Ministry is an important aspect of our parish mission and I want to see the good work begun to continue to engage young people in the Church as Disciples of Christ. This is so important to the Church and the evangelization of our parish and young people in the Church as Disciples of Christ. THE SAINT GIANNA PRO-LIFE COMMITTEE

The Saint Gianna Pro-Life Committee hopes that you will join us to pray a daily Rosary for Life from Wednesday, September 25 through Sunday, November 3 in the chapel after the Monday-Friday 8:00 am Mass, the 4:00 p.m. Saturday Mass and the 11:00 am Sunday Mass to support the international 40 Days for Life Fall Campaign in its mission: Knowing that “with God, all things are possible,” people of faith and conscience unite in 40 days of prayer and fasting.

We also will be praying in front of Preterm, 12000 Shaker Blvd. on Saturdays during the campaign from 11 am to noon. Preterm is the largest abortion facility in Ohio. Please join us; if you need to carpool, contact Kathleen McKeever at kmckeever48@gmail.com.

OCTOBER 6TH IS NATIONAL “LIFE CHAIN” SUNDAY

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated October as Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday, October 6th, as Respect Life Sunday. All across the country, thousands of people will be standing together to give silent witness to our Christian belief in the sacredness of life and that the taking of life, particularly through abortion, is not acceptable.

All are invited to gather at the Coventry entrance of St. Ann church at 12:30 pm. We will pray together, then stand silently at the corner of Cedar and Coventry Roads, holding signs that proclaim truth for one hour, 1:00 to 2:00 pm, rain or shine. This is a powerful way to give testimony, as many other parishes in our diocese have demonstrated.

Please join us as our parish uses this time to reflect on the goodness of God as the creator of all life. History will ask what we, as believers, have done to right the wrongs done in the denial of the fullness of life to any person, especially the least of our brothers and sisters – the most vulnerable, the most defenseless, the utterly voiceless.

For more information, please contact Tim or Gretta Ryan (216) 291-3611 or email kantspel@roadrunner.com.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Women’s Faith Group - On Sept. 19th, we began reading and discussing Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis by Bishop Robert Barron. Copies are available for free, and available at Rectory.

We plan to meet the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month at 7 p.m. in the Parish Meeting Room and welcome any interested women in the parish to join us.

If you have any questions, please contact Karen Murgiano at 216-258-1193 or kmurgiano@ameritech.net or Eleanor Ryan at 216-905-1581 or eryan@famryry@sbcglobal.net

Page Turners - Join us at 7:00 p.m. in the Faculty Room of the School. Contact Jane Harris for info at jamma932@sbcglobal.net or 216-932-5006. Oct. 15 Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens. The story is set in the 1950s and revolves around a young woman named Kya Clark, who is from extremely rural North Carolina. Known by others as the Marsh Girl, she lives alone in nature—but the draw of other people, and specifically love, brings her into contact with the greater world. This novel has a mystery at its core, but it can be read on a variety of levels. There is great nature writing; there is coming of age; and there is literature. Crawdads is a story lovingly told—one that takes its time in developing its characters and setting, and in developing the story. You’ll want to relax and take your time as well, and when you’re done you will want to talk about it with another reader.

Nov. 19: The Bookshop on the Shore by Jenny Colgan
Dec. 17: The Stupidest Angel: A Heartwarming Tale of Christmas Terror by Christopher Moore

Theology on Tap | Heights

Every FIRST Wednesday of the month, young adults in their 20’s and 30’s are invited to gather at Nighttown in Cleveland Heights (12387 Cedar Road, Cleveland 44106) at 7PM to hear an engaging speaker reflect on some aspect of the faith while enjoying a pint and some tasty food! Each night kicks off with a social, which includes complementary appetizers and a cash bar, followed by a speaker. Admission is only $5. Our next speaker on Wednesday, October 2nd is Mrs. Monica Richards, co-founder of Catholic Youth Summer Camp (CYSC) and Damascus Mission Campus in Centerburg, OH. In addition, she’s the mother of four little saints-in-the-making. When she’s not with them, Monica is mentoring nearly three dozen full-time college-aged missionaries who serve thousands of middle school and high school youth year-round in evangelization, retreats, and youth ministry. St. John Paul II said that the “mystery hidden in God before all ages” has been revealed in and through the body. The body speaks, it reveals something about who God is and who we are. If that’s true, then pregnancy has something unique and particular to reveal. Come hear Monica’s talk: “The Theology of the Pregnant Body – Mary, Pentecost, and the Womb of the Heart.” You will not want to miss this amazing presentation! Theology on Tap is a great way for young adults, college students, and newly married couples to go deeper in their faith and connect with other young Catholics in the area. For more information, please contact Fr. Patrick Schultz.

Meetings are held at COS in the Parish Meeting Room at St. Ann Church on the 4th Monday of every month. For more information visit www.leafministry.org or contact the parish office. Thank you for helping us get the word out to those who are in need of this ministry.

[Letter to a Suffering Church] by Bishop Robert Barron.

“Lord, teach us to Pray...” - Luke 11

Perhaps there is no dearer question then the above Lord, how are we to pray? Because, what is prayer? Can we mere mortals have a conversation with the almighty, omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent creator of the Universe? It seems a task too great, to impossible for us. And yet, we are commanded to call God, simply, dad. That’s crazy. Insight Night | Hello, is It Me? This Sunday at 7... see you then!

On September 29th there’s a parent info session at 7pm in Walsh Hall for YeCoS | Break Through. It is mandatory for parents of those seeking Confirmation, and highly encouraged for any other parents with young teens in the program.

On October 1st, the Jr. High will break open the life of one of the Churches most notorious saints-Augustine—and discuss our own hang-ups with the Church and where we feel God pulling us in our lives. Break Through | Restless October 1st. *“Our hearts are restless, O Lord, and they are restless until they rest in Thee."

My dear Friends,

Alas, five years is far too short a time to live among such excellent and admirable hobbits. I don’t know half of you half as well as I should like, and I like less than half of you half as well as you deserve. I regret to announce—this is the end. I am going now. I bid you all a very fond farewell. Goodbye.

I have been incredibly fortunate to be the Youth Minister at CoS for the past 5 years—I have many abiding memories from the teens I have been pleased to serve and much thanks for those who have served with me. God has most certainly blessed my life with yours!

In order to be closer and to better proved for my budding family, I have taken a job at St. Raphael in Bay Village. Still, as I move on from CoS, please keep me in your prayers and be assured of mine—you will certainly have a place in my heart and, as they say, we shall always be together in the Eucharist.

Peace,
Zak
