FROM THE DESK OF DEACON ALEX CLARK

After being blessed to spend the past year at Communion of Saints for my Diaconate Pastoral year, it is crazy to believe that is coming to an end. This is the last weekend I will be with you all as a Deacon. I will be away on retreat in preparation for the next two weeks. My classmates and I will be Ordained to the Priesthood on May 15th. It would be impossible for me to thank each and every person who has made this past year such a graced time! Rather than attempting the impossible task of trying to list everyone who deserves so much of my gratitude, I want to share one of the things I am most thankful for.

Seminarians spend so many years in formation at the seminary and are blessed to be able to study so many different aspects of the faith and ministry. But there is a certain type of knowledge that no book or classroom can ever communicate. Having knowledge about priestly ministry and having a priestly heart are two different things. I think of my brother and sister-in-law, who had their first child a few years ago. Before their child was born, they read a lot of different books and articles to try and prepare to become parents. The house was set up and made "baby ready" and they consulted with friends and family for advice. Before their son was born, they knew a lot about parenting. And then little Kieran was born...

My brother and sister-in-law quickly became more than people who know about parenting, and became parents. And I think any parent would agree that no matter how much you try to prepare or research ahead of time, you will never be fully prepared for your first child. You don't become a parent by reading, you become a parent by actually raising a child. No amount of factual knowledge can ever take the place of actually loving and caring for a person. The child is who turns a person into a parent. And, analogously, the same can be said of a priest.

A man does not become a priest by study alone. Much like the heart of a biological parent, a priestly heart is born through spending time with, ministering with, loving and being loved by the people of God. You, the amazing women and men of Communion of Saints, have formed my heart and given me a gift which is valuable beyond measure. You, the people of the parish, have shaped my heart and mind by your love and example. YOU have been teaching me how to be a priest. While I know I still have much to learn and many opportunities for improvement, your love and example have graced me with some of the most profound and important parts of my seminary formation. You have formed my heart. of my heart and identity as a priest of Jesus Christ has been shaped by you.

I cannot thank you enough. Much like my nephew Kieran formed my brother into a father, you have formed my heart to also become a father, in the priesthood. And I cannot fail to thank Fr. John specifically. He has done so very much for me over this past year. Thank you, Fr. John. Thank you for your constant support and prayers, all of the time and wisdom you have shared, and your example of dedication and care.

Know that I will continue to hold you in prayer. I ask for your prayers for me and my fellow seminarians. Please pray that we continue to allow our hearts to be formed by God, through His people, to become priests after His own sacrificial and half-emptying Sacred Heart.

God Bless,

Deacon Alex

Mom & Baby Shower

The Pro-Life Group is planning a Mom/Baby Shower for Zelig's Home in Garfield Heights from the weekend of May 1/2 to May 15/16. We will collect items in baskets at the parking lot doors of both churches.

Zelig's Home is named after St. Zelig, wife of St. Louis Martin and mother of St. Therese of Lisieux and eight other children. She had a great love for her children and is a model for the moms, babies, staff and volunteers at Zelig's Home. St. Zelig once said, "The good Lord does not do things by halves; He always gives what we need. Let us carry on bravely." In this spirit, Zelig's Home offers shelter, food and clothing to pregnant women in need during their pregnancy and for six or more months after their babies are born. Zelig's Home provides physical, emotional, spiritual, and professional supports to help the new mothers begin parenting and prepare for their future.

To support the mission of Zelig's Home, the Pro-life Group would like to collect the following items:

For Babies: Newborn diapers, baby wipes, new infant books, teething rings, baby monitors

For Moms: body lotion, shampoo/conditioner, body wash, hand soap, laundry and dish detergent, toilet tissue and Kleenex, paper towels, kitchen trash bags, and AAA batteries.

If you would prefer to make a monetary donation please visit the parish website, www.comunionofsaintsparish.org.

Thank you for your generosity.

PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father,
 from the beginning you have chosen to entrust
 the human person to mothers in a special way.
 We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers;
 for their tenderness, care, and compassion,
 for their intuition and encouragement,
 for commitment and sacrifice.
 Bless all mothers this day.
 Keep, strengthen, and refresh them
 in your loving care.
 May they be blessed by our open-hearted
 love and gratitude.
 Amen.

PARISH ACTIVITIES & MINISTRIES

THE ADULT FAITH FORMATION GROUP at St. Philomena Church takes place after the 10:00 Mass. We meet in the back of the church to review the readings of the day and reflect on how they relate to world, national and local current events. All are welcome. Masks and social distancing will be observed. For further information, contact Ann Marie Boyle at 216-382-3612

AVERAGE JOE'S MEN'S GROUP We are called to more than just a personal relationship with God, but a communal one. Join a group of other Catholic men as we meet to build a relationship with God and with each other through informal prayer, fellowship, and service. We meet twice per month over a cup of coffee (or a pint of beer) to share a meal, faith-filled conversation, and to fulfill that calling of our earthly mission with faith-based service in our parish and community. Our meetings start at either St. Ann's or St. Philomena's. From there we go forth: for food, fellowship, service...or all three. All men of the parish are welcomed and encouraged to bring a friend. Those who remain unable or unwilling to meet in person: we understand and respect that decision to refrain, whatever reasons you may have. We welcome you to participate with us remotely until you feel comfortable or otherwise in a position to join us in person. No RSVP for these events is typically necessary, but please sign up to receive e-mail notifications. We use e-mail to provide session specific information regarding time, date and materials. You can receive updates by contacting Sam Marcum: s.a.marcum@gmail.com. Saturday, 5/15, 9:00 a.m. (Note the slight time adjustment) Meet at St. Philomena. We'll begin with prayer. (Normally we would go to breakfast, but for May 2021, I'm going to try to bring coffee and bagels to stay on site. Then, immediately following we'll have (2) volunteer opportunities at St. Philomena's: 1) Planting Day 2) Ozanam Center volunteering/orientation

Joining the Knights can now be done by attending an on-line ceremony at your convenience. If you would like to learn more, please contact Rob Fischer at fischer@case.edu or 216/534-4393.
