TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It's easy to become discouraged by the events of the world around us, but God's word encourages us to move forward hopefully, toward a fulfillment of God's vision for us.

April 2018 was the fiftieth anniversary of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King's assassination. We heard his "I Have a Dream" speech quoted as part of the memorials honoring this anniversary. They noted how far we've come in decreasing racism. They also noted that many of us thought we'd be further along in living that dream. Some note that it seems as though we've gone backwards.

Dr. King based part of this speech on God's vision in Isaiah about life on God's holy mountain, where all people are welcome. As in Habakkuk's day, we see ruin and misery. The Lord answers Habakkuk: "Write down the vision clearly...For the vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint" (verses 2-3). Fulfillment only happens if we cooperate. We must live in ways that stir into flame God's vision shared through baptism. How? Through prayer, reflection, dialogue with others, and honestly assessing what needs to change in order to realize God's all-inclusive vision for our world.

Jesus makes clear that we have what we need, for faith the size of a mustard seed is all we need to live our obligation to seek and live God's will, God's dream, as servants of God and members of the Body of Christ. God's will is to grow in holiness, "shown especially in justice towards those who are most vulnerable: 'Seek justice, correct oppression; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow' (Isaiah 1:17)" (Evangelii Gaudium, 79). The next time someone asks, "How are you?" and you answer, "Living the dream," let it be "Living God's dream." Then act to bring God's dream to fulfillment.

The Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts have been a part of our parish history for many years. The programs help to guide boys in a positive direction. The cubs have helped with yard clean up here at OLMC and also have an annual project to beautify neglected graves in our cemetery-with special emphasis on the veterans' graves. The Cub pack is currently looking for caring and responsible adults who will give a few hours to be part of the advisory and leadership teams. A committee chairperson is needed as well as a treasurer and committee members. These roles do not require attendance at weekly pack meetings, but are more behind the scenes. We are also in need of den leaders or assistant den leaders. These positions would help lead and plan den activities and require attendance at our weekly meetings (Thursday nights) . For job descriptions or additional information please contact Shari Mullen at cubscoutpack252bsa@gmail.com. Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend is Respect Life Sunday. It is a time to renew ourselves to protect all human life, from conception until natural death. Unfortunately, we see many in society who have forgotten this basic and human right that all people have the right to life. Abortion is a grave evil and a rejection of God's greatest gift of life, and we must do all in our power to protect all unborn children. Those who face either mental, emotional or physical challenges are many times treated poorly or have been robbed of their dignity by others. The elderly are often in need of our support, prayers and visitation. Some are in nursing homes, hospitals or at home with no one to visit them when they are lonely or afraid. This Respect Life Sunday is a reminder to us all that we need to care for all of God's children, both young and old.

There will be a Life Chain in our area on Sunday, October 6th from 2:00-3:00 p.m. in the Dunkirk area. Everyone is invited to join in this prayerful gathering to hold signs defending life, and it is a time for prayerful time to remember all human life that has been taken by sinful actions.

Our Vicariate has a St. Gianna Pregnancy Outreach Center. The Pregnancy Outreach Center is a blessing to women who need help during their pregnancy; it offers counseling to those who are having difficulty in their lives, and it reassures all women that help is there for all, even after a women gives birth. If you know someone who would benefit from the St. Gianna Center, don't hesitate to call.

Our new year of Religious Education and formation has begun. I am thankful to Pam Mullen and our entire team of volunteers who help our children and teens grow in their faith and love of Jesus. I encourage all parents to help us in this task. Firstly, come to Mass! Attending Mass as a family is the best way to teach our children. It is disappointing when parents drop their children and teens for Religious Education and do not attend Mass. Get involved in what your children are learning. This helps us greatly to offer lessons and have them reinforced by parents. Pray as a family. If you haven't been, just start. Prayer is our communication with God; Jesus prayed to his Father continually, so let us do the same! Blessings, Fr. Dan.

Thank you for your support of your Parish.
