A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Well, the kids are back in school and a new academic year has begun. I am willing to bet that many of us would have thought that the Coronavirus pandemic would have long been over by now, yet here we are experiencing another spike in new cases and continuing admonitions to wear face coverings in confined spaces. As tired as we may be of all of this, it makes sense to err on the side of safety and inconvenience ourselves a bit for the good of all. Whatever the case may be, perhaps the beginning of a new school year can give us some other things to focus on. The continuity of school reminds us that even if we are long past school age, our lives do move along slowly and steadily as life always has. While the extraordinary experience of the past - now two years - has shown us, life does continue to move along and you and I need to tend to the demands of the passing of time. These days, weeks and months that have passed will never come our way again, so we need to realize that planning for the future is something we all need to do at any age. As Catholic Christians we have all the more reason to look forward to the future with hope. If we just focus on the secular side of our existence, things can seem almost hopeless. When we consider everything from the political situation of the world, to the changes of climate, to what seems like an increasing amount of rudeness with which we treat each other, we can easily be left with a very depressing view of the world in which we necessarily need to live our lives.

All of this makes it all the more necessary to find the gift of faith in our lives. Faith makes all the difference. And by faith, I do not mean simply viewing the world around us with rose-colored glasses. This week-end's Scriptures have a lot of examples of the kind of faith I am talking about. The first reading talks about the eyes of the blind being opened and the ears of the deaf being cleared. In the Gospel such things are done by Jesus Himself. In our own day and age, while such miracles certainly happen, they are often brought about by advances in medicine and even technology which can certainly be in wonderfully helpful ways and not just the criminal ways that are often depicted by or reported in the media.

By the grace of God, we live in an era during which the goodness of God has made it possible to discover so many wonderful things. Unfortunately we are sometimes so short-sighted that we fail to see that God invites our participation in some of these modern miracles, and we begin to think that we alone have made such wonderful things, leaving God and His guidance out of the picture. If we could only join human ingenuity with the guidance of God, unlimited possibilities are spread out before us.

Fr. Ralph

The Parish Office will be closed for Labor Day, Monday, September 6.

The deaf man in today's gospel had friends who brought him to Jesus for help. We are often deaf to one another and don't know it. We hurt others when we listen but do not hear. Take a tip from the deaf man and his friends - recognize our deafness and then ask God to heal us.

With smiles on our faces and towels in our hands, we took our Mass celebration out to the pavilion area last Friday. It was our first all-school liturgy and it was a beautiful way to celebrate the beginning of our year. Swaying to the music of Matt Fafarak and inspired by the words of Fr. James who spoke about St. Pope John Paul II, we left energized and ready to embrace our new theme:

CALLING ALL FIRST RESPONDERS You are cordially invited to attend our school liturgy on September 10 at 8:30 a.m. as we celebrate Patriot Day. Please join us, in uniform, and be part of the opening procession of our Blue Mass as we honor those who lead lives of service. Email Mary Ellen Skelin at mskelin@barnabasohio.org of your intention to be part of this most solemn service. May God Bless America!

The RCIA: A Journey of Faith Since Jesus invited His first followers to, "Come, follow me", the image of journey has been used to describe Christian discipleship. For each of us faith is a journey marked with moments of conversion along the way.....we move from unbelief to initial faith, from sin to repentance, from painful isolation to the joyful experience of a loving community, from fear to love.

Faith, conversion, repentance, celebration and community – five basic elements that are present in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The RCIA provides a setting where the journey of faith and moments of conversion can be celebrated within the local Church community. Gatherings begin in September!

50+ COMMUNITY One author speaks about this Sunday's Gospel as a miracle story, naming it: "He Touches Us". We read that Jesus took the man who was deaf away from the crowd and the noise. There He touched his ears and mouth and the man was healed. He had a one to one encounter with his God. It is not only the miracle that happened long ago, but one that continues to touch us today as well. In the Sacrament of Baptism, water and oil are used. In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the sign of the cross is placed on our forehead with oil. In the Anointing of the Sick, we are anointed with holy oil on the forehead and the hands. In the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. We are a sacramental people who believe that God's grace is given to us through these physical signs. Jesus calls us, he invites us to hear the whispering voice of the God who loves us and has a plan for each of us. He calls us to hear the whisper of Christ on the cross, telling us in the darkest moments of our lives that we will get through whatever cross we bear together. He calls us to hear the voice of Mary, reassuring the concerned wine steward at the wedding feast of Cana, and reassuring us, saying, "Do whatever he tells you." He calls us to hear the voice of our conscience within calling us to the new life of the Lord's love, calling us to holiness. And He calls us to hear the Word of God speaking directly to us. Jesus touched the man's ears and mouth and said, "Be opened". And the man left proclaiming the love of God. Jesus touched him and Jesus touches us. He tells us not to be afraid for He is with us always.

Reminder: We will meet for our 50+ meeting on Friday, September 10, at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. Itineraries and luggage tags will be available for our Lancaster Trip. Masks are suggested. State and community rules are changing daily. Let us pray for one another that we will all be safe as we come together after a long hiatus.

Notes from the Blue Army: We continue with the spiritual advice from Fr. Edward Broom for overcoming a state of desolation in our lives. Fr. recommends we cultivate a constant, keen and growing awareness of our Best Friends, Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph and he provides practical ways in which we can do this. Last week we reflected on beginning each day with the Morning Offering and placing a picture or statue of the Holy Family in our room. Fr. Broom recommends:

3. Have images of Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph in your car. Possibly over the front mirror or visor, a small image of the Holy Family can serve as a powerful reminder that even when traveling you are in the best of company. Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph traveled together in their family life, and they want to travel with you on the Highway to Heaven.

4. Make a sincere and concerted effort to go deeper into the contemplation of the Joyful Mysteries of the most Holy Rosary. Contemplate these Mysteries not from afar, but strive to be truly present in these Mysteries. Become a member of the Holy Family. If you like, be truly present in the Cave at Bethlehem. Be there with St. Joseph helping him gather sticks of wood to start a fire and warm the cold, damp and musty refuge of animals where the Son of God will truly be born. After His birth, accept the baby Jesus from Mary and hold Him in your arms, sing Him a simple lullaby if you like. Contemplate the baby Jesus. Let your heart overflow with awe, reverence and love for Him. Then talk to Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph in your own words about what is going on in your life, what causes you joy, what causes you sorrow, and what might be bothering you right now. They always will be the best of listeners. Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph are your Best Friends! In fact, the more you are able to penetrate the depths of the contemplation of the Joyful Mysteries, the deeper will be your friendship with Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph. Consequently, the devil and that crushing sense of loneliness will be conquered and put to flight! While praying and contemplating these Joyful Mysteries, you might even try to purchase or find on-line some attractive pictures or portraits of each Joyful Mystery so as to focus your attention more firmly on each event as it is happening. Incidentally, they have as a title, "The Joyful Mysteries". Therefore, the fruit of these Mysteries should be filling us with the Joy of the Spirit. Saint Paul reminds us: "Rejoice in the Lord; I say it again: Rejoice in the Lord." (Phil. 4:4)

SVDP NEWS

∞ ST. VINCENT DE PAUL AND YOU ∞
DONATIONS OF TIME, TALENT, and TREASURE

BUNDLE SUNDAY IS COMING! Bundle Sunday is coming the weekend of September 11/12. Start cleaning out those closets! Decluttering your home of unused and unwanted stuff can make you happier. Maybe it's time to start "TIDYING UP." Now is the time to donate those gently worn clothing and household items that you haven't used in ages. A Cleveland Furniture Bank truck will be in the church parking lot that weekend. Your donations will be given to their Thrift Shop that serves over 45,000 customers annually who may not have the financial means to shop in regular retail outlets. Please, no large furniture at this time. Volunteers will be on hand to accept your donations of clothing, household goods, small appliances and furniture. We cannot accept baby cribs or car seats due to liability issues. Before donating, take the condition of the item into consideration. Only donate items that are new, unused, or "gently used," which means items that are in good condition, clean, and presentable. Do not donate items in disrepair that don't work properly, are missing parts, or are ripped, torn, or stained. If you can't use the item in its current state, neither can the Cleveland Furniture Bank. See the insert in today's bulletin for details.

WE ARE IN NEED OF VOLUNTEERS TO HELP LOAD THE TRUCKS FOR BUNDLE SUNDAY (September 11/12). If you are an adult or a teen or in good physical condition, we really need your help. Our SVDP members would appreciate the help of younger volunteers. Teen volunteers can receive service hours for this work. If you are interested, we need to know ahead of time to schedule you for a specific time to make sure there is sufficient manpower for each time slot. Volunteer slots are in two-hour increments: Saturday, 4:15 - 6:15, Sunday, 8:15 - 10:15 and 10:15 - 12:15. Go to: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0E4CADAE2CA3FA7-bundle1> to volunteer.

To my St. Barnabas Family,

I pray this finds you all well! Since it is impossible to speak to you all in person, I would like to share this with you via this letter.

PS 143:8 In the morning let me hear of your mercy, for in you I trust. Show me the path I should walk, for I entrust my life to you.

PROV 16:9 The human heart plans the way, but the Lord directs the steps.

After much prayer, reflection and discernment, I have tendered my resignation at St. Barnabas effective October 1. Leaving all of you is going to be difficult, however, as indicated in the scripture above, I put my trust in the Lord. I admire your commitment and loyalty to this parish. The past year and a half, especially, would have been impossible without your support and prayers! I am leaving behind many new friends and colleagues for whom I have a great deal of respect and compassion.

I pray that this transition will be blessed for all. I will work with those who will be moving into this position and anyone working on the programs already in place. Thank you for the many blessings and opportunities, the celebrations and sorrows, and especially the JOY I have experienced over these last three years with you!

I will follow every step the Lord has laid out for me in faith, hope and love and will continue to pray for you as I ask you to pray for me.

Blessings and peace!

PRO-LIFE

SEPTEMBER 5 - St. Theresa of Calcutta: "REFLECTION. Mother Teresa died on this day in 1997. She saw in each person - no matter how sick or depraved – the image of God. She spoke boldly to those in power about the evil of abortion. In her Nobel Peace Prize lecture, she said that the greatest destroyer of peace is abortion. She led women away from abortion clinics and toward alternatives. Let us honor her by imitating her. PRAYER. Mother Teresa, pray for us that we may defend life as you did." ...From Pro-Life Reflections for Every Day by Fr. Frank Pavone

A message from Bishop Malesic on keeping people safe during the pandemic

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The latest information from federal, state and local public health agencies informs us that the Delta variant of the COVID-19 virus is surging in our area, causing increased illness and hospitalizations at levels not seen since the spring. For the safety of all who worship at Catholic parishes throughout the Diocese of Cleveland, I strongly encourage you -- whether vaccinated or not vaccinated -- to wear a face mask while attending Mass indoors. All who want to attend Mass, and who are otherwise vulnerable, should feel safe and welcome inside our sacred spaces. Please use charity and patience with those who do not wish to comply with this strongly stated request. You also might want to consider wearing a face mask for other indoor gatherings, especially for those not yet fully vaccinated. Wearing masks outdoors is not generally required except for activities involving close contact with others who are not fully vaccinated.

Those who are ill, have significant health risk factors or care for someone who is immunocompromised or ill, as well as those who have significant fear or anxiety about contracting the coronavirus in a large group of persons are not obliged to attend Mass.

Pope Francis recently offered a message of hope and unity to the world in an effort to continue increasing confidence in the COVID-19 vaccines, specifically in communities disproportionately affected by the virus. "Thanks to God's grace and to the work of many, we now have vaccines to protect us from COVID-19," the pope said. "Getting the vaccines that are authorized by the respective authorities is an act of love. I pray to God that each one of us can make his or her own small gesture of love; no matter how small, love is always grand."

I am fully vaccinated and recommend the same for my family and friends. In consideration of others, I also am wearing a mask during the distribution of holy Communion and I strongly encourage those distributing holy Communion at Mass to wear a mask while distributing as well.

Remember that the situation seems to be ever changing. This request to wear face masks is temporary and will be changed once this current level of increased coronavirus cases is over. Stay connected to information coming from national, state and local health authorities, and stay home and get tested for COVID when you are not feeling well. Following these recommendations will go a long way in helping to keep you and others around you safe.

We are all tired of this pandemic, but we must not forget that we are called to care for the health of others in times of crisis and must continue to protect our healthcare system and medical workers.

May God bless and watch over us in our time of need.

Bishop Edward C. Malesic
