

33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." - Mk 13:30-32

Community Pregnancy Center Giving Tree

November 6th—28th
Infant, Toddler & Children Items

Again this year, St. Vincent de Paul Society will be collecting items for the Community Pregnancy Center. The tree will be in the vestibule November 6th-28th.

The tree will be decorated with ornaments that contain gift suggestions needed by underprivileged pregnant and new mothers in our community, their babies and young children. Cash donations are also accepted. Prince of Peace has always been VERY generous in helping those in need in our community, and we are hoping this year will be just as successful. Thank you for all your help. God Bless.

All unwrapped gifts are to be returned no later than November 28th. If you have any questions contact; Chris Deock at 330-807-8624.

Campaign for Human Development:

Next weekend Nov. 20th & 21st, we will take up the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). CCHD was founded over 40 years ago by the bishops of the United States when they realized that the lives of those in need would not improve until the systems and policies that keep people in poverty were changed. For 40 years, CCHD has funded community groups that seek justice and create lasting change. Fight poverty in America. Defend human dignity. Give to the CCHD Collection.

Please donate prayerfully and generously to help those in poverty help themselves.

On Thanksgiving there will be a 9:00 am Mass. Please bring some food items for the poor, served through BACM. Families will be invited to bring their gift of food to the altar at the offertory. Let us give thanks to the Lord for all our blessings by prayer and feeding our neighbors who are in need.

A Container of cushions is located in the restroom hallway for those who find sitting to be painful. Please return the cushions to the container after Mass.
Thank you

Readings found on Page 73 Today's Missal

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky." - Mk 13:26-27

Family Perspective

November 14, 2021

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's gospel speaks about the end of time. Our lives are filled with endings and they usually come before we are ready for them. All of these small endings are preparing us for the final ending our life on earth. Let's be thankful for the present moment and embrace it. Yet we must also be ready to let go, for only when we do are we able to embrace the next. And give some thought and prayer to the final ending of our lives so we are ready for the Lord when He comes.

GRATEFUL

2022 Mass Intentions

The 2022 Mass Intention Book is open.

It is substantially the same as last year, three intentions per parish family.

With "1" Weekend Mass (Sat. or Sun.) and 2 Week-Day Masses.

So everyone has an opportunity to schedule important dates for their loved ones, after January 1st we'll honor weekends that are still available.

Contact Jenny Roth at the rectory, 330-825-9543 or email her at: ppeacechurch@princeofpeaceparish.org

It is common for a family to receive many Mass Cards after a funeral but Prince of Peace will only be able to retain ten intentions at the Parish. Families can distribute Mass Intentions to other parishes or Prince of Peace can distribute them to missionary priests via the Diocesan Propagation of the Faith.

Our parish is participating in the Acme Community Cash Back Program again this year.

For more information see:

http://www.acmestores.com/community - cash- back/.

Please help by saving your Acme cash register receipts through December 25th.

Look for the red box located in the main vestibule this year.

We are grateful for your participation.

2022 Handbooks are ready for pick-up.

If you have any questions email Jenny at:

ppeacechurch@princeofpeaceparish.org or call me at the church office 330-825-9543. Thank you!

Dear Parishioners...

Has your address, email or phone number changed? Or have you eliminated your land line? If so, please call the parish office at 330-825-9543 or send an email to:

so we can update our records.

Thank you!

Remembering Our Deceased Loved Ones

November is the month when we remember, at Mass and in our prayers, those who have died. There are binders at each church entrance in which you are invited to write the names of your deceased family members and friends.

On November 1st, the names will be collected and placed in a memorial book under the altar so they will be remembered in our parish's prayers throughout the month.

Thanks & God Bless,

+Fr. Bob

LOOPED— Is a system that enables people with compatible hearing aids to ACCESS our sound system directly to their hearing aide.

We are looking at installing this, but would like to know how many would find this useful.

Please email, call or drop a note to the parish office with your comments

Thank you

Hospitals

If any parishioner is admitted to the hospital, please have a family member contact the parish office at 330-825-9543 with the details as soon as possible. Father Jackson makes regular visits to area hospitals and wants to make sure he doesn't miss anyone. He will also have their names put on our parish prayer line.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dn 12:1-3 | Heb 10:11-14, 18 | Mk 13:24-32

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

My husband reads the obituaries regularly, as did my elderly Aunt Loretta. Me, I avoid them. I don't like to think about death, and the same can be said for some references to the end times, particularly those like we hear in the Book of Daniel: "Some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace." Give me a comforting psalm any day! However, in today's Gospel, Jesus assures us that we who believe need not fear the Second Coming, for at that time the Son of Man shall "gather his elect." Yes, "heaven and earth will pass away," but the words of Jesus never shall. It is true, we don't know the time or the hour of his return and so we prepare for it by remaining focused on Jesus' words and turning our lives over to him in and through the sacramental life of the Church. Strive to live well on earth, following the path to eternal life that our loving and merciful Savior has paved for us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It's easy to become complacent in that striving. I notice that tendency in everyday life – taking my spouse for granted, not being mindful of how what I say and do serves as an example (either good or bad!) for another. It's like moving through the day with blinders on. In today's Gospel, Jesus is teaching his disciples about his return in glory, and how those who follow him will be able to sense its approach. "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near." In other words, "pay attention; be observant" – the opposite of complacency. To counter this within ourselves, we can ask God to open our eyes to the signs of his love all around us – our spouses and dear friends, our families, and all the gifts we have been given. Just as importantly, we can accompany one another as we seek to grow in holiness and prepare for the day we meet Jesus, living as an example in word and deed. As the Book of Daniel so eloquently tells us, "The wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."

PRAY Read the obituaries! Many of them contain inspiring examples of lives well lived. Take a moment in this month of November to pray for all who have died. Make a conscious effort to be a specific example to another of Christ's love in the world that they, too, might be better prepared for Christ's return.

The Knights would like to thank those who participated in Trunk-or-Treat. Although the numbers were down a little from previous years, there were many costumed-characters who had a great time eating cookies served by Parish Council, drinking cider served by the Knights and then enjoying the treats that fellow parishioners gave out. Hopefully we can continue to do this fun family event for years to come.

Also, thanks to those who joined the Knights at our 1st Tailgate Party. This event allowed families to socialize, enjoy some food, and watch a little football history. Additionally, it was an opportunity to see what the Knights are all about. As a result, we did interest and add a new member to our council.

Rosary Group

"Could you not spend one hour with me?"

If you have an hour on Friday afternoons at 3:00pm, the rosary group invites you to join them to pray the rosary, the chaplet of Divine Mercy, and the chaplet of the Holy Spirit.

Let our voices ring out to Heaven from here at Prince of Peace. Please you the back entrance to the church.

ARDMORE PROJECT

Again this year, we will continue with the Ardmore project. However, instead of donating items, Ardmore would like the items to come from one source again this year due to COVID. Hopefully, next year, we can go back to the actual donations

Again this year, Prince of Peace Parish will participate in the Ardmore Project. We will be collecting monetary donations this year so all the items will come from one source. There will be collection bins at each entrance beginning the weekend of November 13th and continuing through December 5th. (Please place your donation in an envelope marked "Ardmore Project." Each year, we have been able to provide wonderful gifts of socks, hats, gloves, soaps, crafts, etc. to adults with disabilities. Most of these people have no families, so they gift they receive from Prince of Peace is their only gift. We will have the high school students package the gifts on Saturday, December 11th at the home of The Noes. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the church office or call Mike and Terri Noe at 330-335-5304. More details will be sent out to these students. Thank you for all you do to help these adults with disabilities.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." Take a moment to ponder these words from today's Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It's hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the "when" of death, the "what" of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord's coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God's eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.
