

SAINT MICHAEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Sunday, April 3, 2022

The scribes and the Pharisees tested Jesus' fidelity to the Mosaic Law by using a woman caught in the act of adultery. In reply, Jesus exposed the hypocrisy of the religious leaders and showed mercy on the sinful woman. When has someone shown you mercy over judgment?

GATHER WITH OUR FAMILY

FROM THE PASTORAL ASSOCIATE

To the community of St. Michael —
Thank you and continued blessings!

After prayer and discernment, I have decided to retire and step away from my role as Pastoral Associate here at St. Michael, effective Monday, April 18th.

I want to thank Fr. Tom DiFolco and Fr. Ed Burns for the opportunity to be part of a great parish staff, working with so many wonderful parishioners who are so generous in giving of their gifts and talents for the ministry of the Church. Thanks to each of you for all you have shared with me. I have been truly blessed in my time here, and I will keep the St. Michael community in prayer as the parish's future unfolds.

Tom Giordano, Pastoral Associate

Congratulations on your retirement, Tom!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Come Pray the Rosary on Sunday, April 24

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated the first Sunday after Easter. The Divine Mercy chaplet is a special devotion prayer derived from the visions and diary of St. Faustina, who reported God's compassion as part of her encounter with Jesus. It is a prayer for mercy not only for us, but for the whole world. Together we will pray the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 24th in Church. Anyone interested in helping to lead a decade of the rosary or the chaplet may contact Michele at (513) 207-2065.

OUR LADY OF LIGHT MINISTRIES

An Invitation to all Widows and Female Divorcees

All widows and female divorcees are invited to Our Lady of Light's new social and spiritual support group. Gatherings are held every second Thursday of the month at 10:00 a.m. in the Archbishop House at 5418 Moeller Avenue in Norwood. This ministry meets to enjoy friendship, spiritual support and share resources, while having a lot of fun.

Due to Holy Thursday, the next meetings will be held on April 21st and May 12th. Light refreshments are provided. Please contact Betsey at (513) 531-6279 for questions and to sign up.

SCHEDULING CAMPUS SPACES

PRAY WITH US

GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 3, 2022—5th Sunday of Lent

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another?

Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love.

When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy.

There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow.

PALM SUNDAY PROCESSIONAL

The Beginning of Holy Week

All parishioners are invited to gather in the Sharonville Elementary School parking lot beginning at 11:00 a.m. on April 10th for the blessing of the palms. Immediately following, a solemn procession into church for Mass will take place.

The branches that are blessed and brought home should be placed near the crucifix or the family Bible. They remind us that Lent is the slow coming of spring to the earth, the renewal of life. They are like the great "Hosanna" with which we hail the crucified and risen Lord.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

RECOGNIZING GOD IN ORDINARY MOMENTS

Make a Way

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

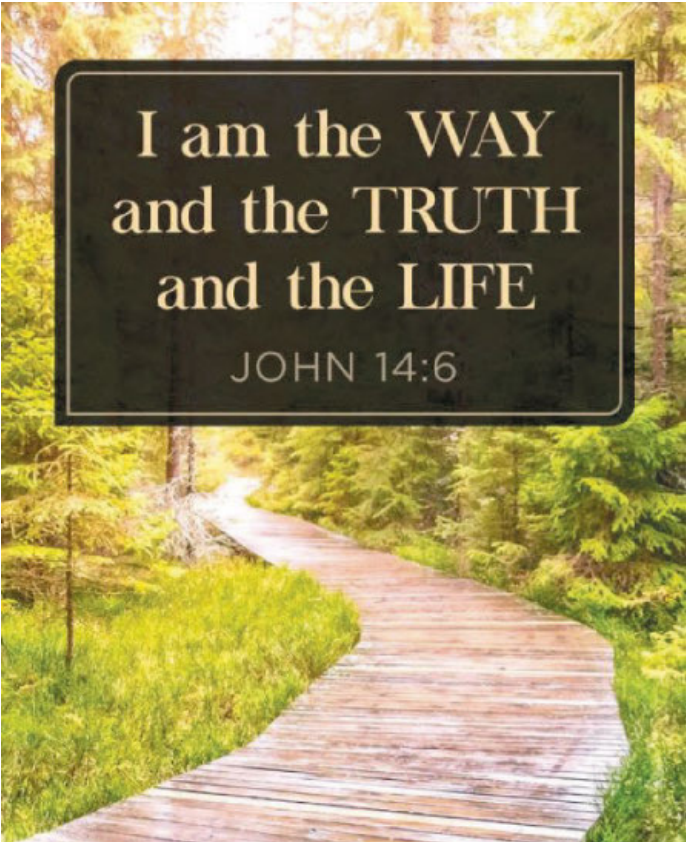

What's your comfort zone: emotionally, professionally, personally? We all have one. But did you realize that you can have one spiritually? Think about what you like and what you don't particularly enjoy when it comes to church, prayer, and liturgy. We all have "those songs" we crinkle our noses at, either because they're too modern or too old-fashioned. We all have "those people" in our parish whose ideas we aren't so sure about, whether that's because they're trying to change too much or because they seem always to be looking toward the past. Also, when was the last time you sat on the OTHER side of the church during Mass?

As much as we may not want to admit it, even (and especially) as people of God, we get deeply attached to our own personal comfort zones — and we tend to view those outside with distrust.

But what if God had a comfort zone? What if He viewed us, in our sin and our misery, as too "far away" from Himself to reach? Thankfully, our God is a God who "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters." Our God is a God who does "something new."

The call to stewardship demands that we look outside of ourselves. Our thoughts, our opinions, our preferences — these things are not important to the steward. Even if there is a vast, dry desert of discord, or a seemingly endless wasteland of opposing views between us and our neighbor, God challenges us to "make a way" out of our comfort zone, that together we may announce His praise.

Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs for the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

HOLY THURSDAY FOOT WASHING

What Is the Significance of Foot Washing on Holy Thursday?

Foot washing is an ancient practice of hospitality. In Israel in Jesus' day, with its deserts and dusty roads, washing of feet was an act of honor on the part of the host. However, the host himself would not do the washing. That was the role of the servant. The Apostles would have been accustomed to this tradition. At the Last Supper, Jesus takes on the role of the servant, washing the feet of his followers and friends. He models the humble, loving service to which the Apostles would soon be called.

Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper. We celebrate many things, including the institution of both the Eucharist and the priesthood – "This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me." (Luke 22:19B). When the priest washes the feet of his parishioners, he is modeling the service of Christ. While foot washing is no longer a common practice in our society, we too are invited to imitate Christ's sacrificial service to others.
