

SAINT MICHAEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
Sunday, April 10, 2022

We hear in today's reading how the prophet Isaiah suffered for his commitment to his call and for his fidelity to the Lord.

And yet, Isaiah never lost his faith in God.
When has your faith been put to the test?

ST. MICHAEL

GATHER WITH OUR FAMILY

FROM THE YOUTH MINISTER

The Power of Our Words.

The Gospel this Sunday is definitely the longest gospel but also one of the most important in our yearly cycle of readings. One theme that stuck out to me throughout all the readings and this lengthy Gospel was the gift to be able to speak and confess what the Lord has done for us. It seems to come up a lot that people in times of need are looking for miracles and profound words and actions. I often find myself struggling with what to say and not wanting to say the wrong thing. The ability to speak is a great gift that the Lord blesses us with and invites us to use it and use it well. Perhaps we should look to the giver of this gift as to how to best use it. If properly used this gift can bring many blessings and joy to our lives and the lives of those around us. Let us pray together that we might be granted the words to say in the moment we need them, all the while remembering to use our words to give praise and adoration to the Lord.

Tyler Marsh, Youth Minister

SUCCESSFUL SAINT MICHAEL SERVES DAY

Thank You from the Community Outreach Ministry

Thanks to all for a great St. Michael Serves event on Saturday, March 19. It was amazing to be able to gather again in service to others and fellowship with our St. Michael family. We were blessed with an overabundance of donations for the Fernside blankets, SNdDN baked goods, and St. Vincent de Paul personal care items. The extra personal care items and baked goods went to the food pantry at Operation Give Back. The Easter baskets for Mercy Neighborhood Ministries turned out really cute and we ended up with about 20 pillowcases and a bunch of nice cards for Hospice veterans. We had some great helpers making dog/cat toys and made two huge bags of donations. Thank you to all who donated both goods and time to make this possible.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 10, 2022—Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, “To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues.” Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God’s unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn’t like hearing about love, especially God’s? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God’s love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God’s love.

God’s love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God’s kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God’s love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God’s love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, “Crucify him!” There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough “to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues.”

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

HOLY THURSDAY

Additional Time for Prayer

After the Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday, the Church will remain open for prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Consider spending time in quiet reflection on this holy night as the church enters the three-day Triduum leading to Easter.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Hailed one moment and rejected the next. This seems to be the pattern that repeats itself not only throughout history but in our own lives as well. Jesus wants to be triumphantly welcomed into our hearts with joy! And welcome him we do! Then come the times when we do exactly the opposite and we reject the teachings of the Gospel and turn our backs on God's friendship. The one who at one time is a friend now becomes an enemy. Jesus understands our ambivalence. He lived it on the way to the cross. Understanding the full array of human emotion, God accepts us where we are. There is a great deal of drama on the road to Calvary. Our lives can be dramatic as well. In all of those whirlwind moments it can be difficult to find God's presence and understand his will. We walk with Jesus this week seeking inspiration and hope, the essential keys needed to unlock the door to God's presence in our lives.

RECOGNIZING GOD IN ORDINARY MOMENTS

A God Who Knows How It Feels
by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Christ could have spoken anything from the cross, so why did he choose to recite Psalm 22? And why is it so important that we recite that same Psalm at today's Mass?

"My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?"

We've never known the Jesus of the Gospels to doubt the will of God. We've never known him to be a defeatist or to give into feelings of despair. He's the hero who walks on water, the Savior who is welcomed to Jerusalem with a pathway of palms. And he knows how this story ends; he knows full well that his Father has absolutely not abandoned him.

So why does he say this? Jesus doesn't make offhanded comments, especially in his last hour. Today, when we repeat the words that he calls out in his darkest moment, we must remember that he wants us, very particularly, to consider them.

With his crucifixion, Jesus reminds us of his humanity. He is a man of flesh that can be torn and blood that can be shed. Somehow, in tandem with his divinity, he still possesses a heart that knows fear and pain and longing. And with this seemingly hopeless cry, he reminds us of that.

Let us never doubt that Jesus can relate to us in our brokenness. This is the week, friends. This is the week that reminds us that our God is a God who knows every pang, every trembling, and every uncertainty of human life. Our God knows what abandonment feels like. He knows what rejection feels like. He knows what it is to keep going when the strength and the will has disappeared.

HOLY WEEK AT ST MICHAEL

PARISH OFFICE & SCHOOL CLOSINGS

In Celebration of Easter and the Season of Spring

The Parish Office will be closed on Good Friday, April 15 and Easter Monday, April 18. Saint Michael School will be closed for Spring Break beginning on Good Friday, April 15. School will resume on Monday, April 25.

EASTER SUNDAY PARKING

Anticipating Larger Crowds

As we prepare for Easter, we are reminded that attendance increases during this holy time. Parking will again be available at Sharonville Elementary School, and as always, you are welcome to park in the grassy area beyond the east parking lot. Please be vigilant of the home at the corner of Creek and Maple; this is a privately-owned, residential property and should never be considered for Saint Michael Church parking.

RECEPTION INTO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Welcoming New Catholics Through RCIA

Dioceses across the world will be welcoming thousands of people into the Catholic Church at Easter Vigil Masses on the evening of April 16. Saint Michael Church asks you to pray for the following individual as he enters the final stage to be received into full communion with the Catholic Church:

Sylvanus Pittman, Jr., Catechumen

RETIREMENT OF TOM GIORDANO

Thank You and Continued Blessings

Tom Giordano is retiring and stepping away from his role as our Pastoral Associate, effective Monday, April 18th.

"I want to thank Fr. Tom DiFolco and Fr. Ed Burns for the opportunity to be a part of a great parish staff, working with so many wonderful parishioners who are so generous in giving their gifts and talents for the ministry of the Church. Thanks to each of you for all you have shared with me. I have been truly blessed in my time here, and I will keep the Saint Michael community in prayer."

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

Pope Francis has asked all parishes to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs for the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

IS RCIA FOR YOU?

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is more than a course of instruction, it is a process of conversion, designed to meet the unique and individual needs of its participants. If you, or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith, we invite you to contact the Parish Office. No firm commitment will be asked until the beginning of Lent 2023.
