

SAINT MICHAEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

---

Easter Sunday

Sunday, April 17, 2022

Using the image of unleavened bread,
Paul urges the believers in Corinth to see the resurrection of Jesus as an opportunity to start anew.

What needs renewal in your life?

GATHER WITH OUR FAMILY

FROM THE PASTOR

Christ is Risen, Alleluia!

Welcome to all of you who are visiting or have just been away for a while! Welcome, too, to those who are part of our Family of Parishes: St. John in West Chester and St. Gabriel in Glendale.

My hope for all of us is that, in our Easter joy, we will truly know Christ risen in our lives. The resurrection of Christ is more than just life after death; it is a pledge that human suffering, no matter how large or small, is no longer meaningless. The challenges we all face in life can have an effect in bringing about something greater, something better. Surely, too, it is a sign of great hope that we are once again able to come together as a congregation of these years of distancing.

Easter is also a pledge that new life can come from death. Not only in the life to come, but we can also experience this in all the changes and challenges of this life. Though we will experience change in coming together as a family of parishes, surely, we will experience much more growth and new life if we open ourselves to the working of the Holy Spirit within us.

If you haven't heard much about these changes, the website of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati has a wealth of information (catholicaoc.org), including boundaries of all the families of parishes and the priests assigned to each family.

Let us rejoice in the gift of Christ's Resurrection, and may we strive to know it for ourselves, and share it with all the world.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Ed Burns, Pastor

REGISTERING WITH THE PARISH

The Formality of Joining the Church as Adults

Many people think because they attend a particular church routinely they automatically belong. At times, young adults believe they are still signed up through their parents. However, all adults age 18+ should formally enroll in the parish.

Your registration affects the church in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled. Registration is also necessary for certain benefits to you, such as scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes.

Most importantly, it allows St. Michael Church to count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of the Church.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 17, 2022—Easter Sunday

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live.

Easter Prayer of Thanksgiving

Good and gracious heavenly Father, we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ.

Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love.

Bless also those who have yet to process belief in you.

You are God for all.

We ask all this in Christ's name.

Amen

LIVE THE LITURGY

Alleluia, Christ is risen! What a glorious and holy day. The resurrection of Christ speaks of freedom, new life, restored faith and enduring, unconditional love. The huge stone, separating death and life, has been moved, allowing God's radiant power to usher in eternal life.

When we see the truth of Christ's resurrection through eyes of love, we see the fullness of timeless beauty, truth, and wonder revealed. The emptiness of the tomb is filled with the eternity of love. We have many stones and boulders blocking the path to freedom, love, and joy. They are often too big for us to move, and they cripple us.

We can take a leap of faith today and believe with all our heart, mind, and soul that there is much more than can be seen by the naked eye. There is something very holy, sacred, and eternal stirring within us. We want to live forever! Christ's resurrection brings us joy and allows us to see ourselves as we are meant to be seen, as God's children destined for glory!

RECOGNIZING GOD IN ORDINARY MOMENTS

Leave It in the Tomb

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Today, on the most important day of the liturgical year, the Apostle Paul is calling us out.

"I see you hiding in that tomb," he says. "I see you baking with that old, stale yeast, thinking no one will notice."

He says it a little more elegantly, I'll grant you. But the message is this: If you want to be raised with Christ, you'd better be ready to step out of the shadows. Seek what is above — not what is on earth.

I can feel myself responding almost reflexively, "Great idea, Paul — but I'm pretty comfy here." Because sometimes, it's just easier to stay in the tomb. It's easier to crouch in the shadows and look outward at everyone else, thinking of the changes they could make or the sins they could overcome.

Today we are called to embrace newness. New hearts, new lives, new futures, new chances. If there's anything keeping you from that, you need to leave it in the tomb. It's a little scary, sure — maybe Jesus thought so before he stepped into the light of that first Easter morning. But no loaf of bread worth eating was ever baked using stale yeast that wouldn't rise. No new life worth having was ever lived through the broken sins of yesterday. No Easter morning ever dawned without the tomb sitting empty.

Step into the light. He is waiting for you.
