

SAINT MICHAEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

Ascension of the Lord

Sunday, May 29, 2022

In his final prayer during the farewell discourse,
Jesus speaks about his disciples as the Father's gift to him.
What gifts have God given you?

GATHER WITH OUR FAMILY

FROM THE YOUTH MINISTER

In the Gospel today we see Our Lord explain why the disciples should be happy for Him that He will be reunited with The Father. It is all about properly aligning our desires with that of the Lord, because He wants what is best for us. Life seems to be filled with these moments of possible sadness with the potential for Joy if we allow ourselves to see with the eyes of the Lord. Perhaps a season of our life is coming to an end and we can be sad or scared even as to what is next. My prayer for us this week is that we find our joy and peace in knowing that the Lord has us well taken care of and for us to desire and strive towards whatever that may be.

Tyler Marsh, Youth Minister

FESTIVAL HELP WANTED

It takes many people to make our festival a success. There are many ways to help out, including:

1. Be a part of a booth chair team
2. Sign up to work in a booth
3. Help with festival setup and tear down

It takes months to plan, but we only have three days to set it up and one day to tear it all down. It's a big job, and many hands make for light work. If you are physically capable of lifting and carrying items then we can put you to work on our crew. This is a great opportunity for students who need service hours to get some credits!

Folks with electrical experience are always in need.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 19, 2022—7th Sunday of Easter

Unity and diversity can exist together. Our western minds have a grave difficulty seeing unity without conformity. We tend to believe that unless everyone believes the same thing, assents to the same body of truths, styles, and opinions, unity is not possible. Jesus, in today's Gospel, expresses a tenderness and an intimacy that the disciples actually can witness. This same tenderness and love are also reflected in his desire for unity and oneness. Jesus passionately wants all to be one. It is very clear that the success of Jesus' mission and the advance of the Gospel rises or falls with whether this unity is achieved. And it is a unity that is achieved around a person and not particulars.

Our church is extremely divided. These divisions all center on various theologies, philosophies, structures, and styles. We allow these particular concerns and interpretations, valid as many can be, to drive wedges between us and put us at odds with each other. They enrage us and cause us to lash out at other members of the Body of Christ. Differences are bound to exist in any group. We are unique and diverse people. Staunchly clinging to particular agendas and ideologies while waving the "we're right, you're wrong" banner as we forge ahead in battle does little to advance the real mission of Christ. We are perceived as weak, fractioned, self-focused and serving, and lacking empathy and love. How can the work of salvation be accomplished like this? We sacrifice our credibility. For what?

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." These words describe exactly who the glorified Christ really is. Jesus wants us to see this glory! Believe this! This is the unifying principle that draws the Body of Christ together as one, not our particular preferences of worship! We give too much power to our preferences, and all too easily forget that the real mission of Christ is much more than that! If we can work at truly loving each other as members of Christ's Body despite the differences that can so quickly divide us, then maybe we'll be a bit more convincing to those who do not believe. The Risen Christ comes to us through the Eucharist. It doesn't matter where or how. Gather wherever you can and receive. We cannot substitute Jesus' passion with our own. We are one.

BRINGING THE FAITH HOME

School is Out for the Summer

With children out of school and religious education classes on break, parents may feel cut off or overwhelmed with how to teach and share the beauty and joy of the Catholic faith.

To help with this, the staff of the Catholic Telegraph has identified 7 fun resources to help parents and children learn and live their faith at home.

Find these at <https://bit.ly/CTFaithHome>

"The family is the place where parents become their children's first teachers in the faith." - Pope Francis

LIVE THE LITURGY

We all have our ideas of who God is. We have to remember, however, that our ideas of God often do not capture who God really is. God is a wonderful mystery whose identity is inexhaustible. This makes life an exciting journey in search of belief, love, glory, and unity. Displaying all of the tenderness of a real love story, we hear from Jesus that God wants nothing more than for the world to believe. The same depth of affection given to Jesus, God the Father desires to share with us. Receiving this love gives the believer an even greater understanding of what gives us purpose and meaning. With God's unconditional love as our anchor, we can endure the greatest of hardships knowing that we carry the hope of glory within us. Sharing in the same incredible eternal destiny and glory that God gave His Son, we can all be one just as Jesus and the Father are one. Why is understanding all of this important? Because given the myriad choices of what can possibly define us, we now have the primordial truth of who we are given to us by God. We know, beyond doubt, where to look for true happiness and where our lives will end.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Gods Game of Telephone by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

You've probably played the game of "pass it on" before, maybe years ago on the playground. It's a simple concept: one person whispers something in another person's ear, and it gets repeated person by person throughout the group, until finally the last one to hear the message has to say it out loud. Whatever ends up being said at the end of the game is usually a far cry from the original statement, and everyone has a good laugh.

As individuals, we don't receive news in the same way. Our personalities, our histories, our weaknesses, and our strengths determine how we interact with information we encounter in the world, both good and bad. One person will interpret a compliment positively; someone else will take offense. One person reacts to news of a job promotion with joy, another is disappointed that now they will have less time with their family. The same news can mean completely different things to different people.

But what God gives us is the truth in love, and the truth in love is the same in every place and in every time, for every person of every race. When Christ prayed to the Father that "the love with which you loved me may be in them," he was asking that the magnificent gift that had been imparted to him would also be imparted to us.

Our job is to play a game of pass it on with this gift of love. How do we keep it from becoming warped? Through remaining committed to the word of God, to the sacraments, and to one another.

In this game, we don't change the message. The message changes us. And we have to give it away to keep it.

A SAINT FOR SOLDIERS

ST. JOAN OF ARC

Feast Day: May 30

St. Joan of Arc (1412–1431) has had her story told throughout history through many books, movies and plays. She was born in the village of Domrémy, near the province of Lorraine, to a French peasant family. At a young age, she began to experience visions and voices, which were later identified to be of St. Michael, St. Catherine of Alexandria, and St. Margaret of Antioch. At the age of 13, all three saints told her that she was to drive the English from French territory, and that she must bring the Dauphin to Reims for his coronation. Trusting in God, she did as she was told.

During the Hundred Years War, St. Joan of Arc led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. Captured near Compiègne the following year, she was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft, eventually being found guilty and burned at the stake in Rouen.

St. Joan of Arc was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on May 16, 1920, and is the patron saint of military members. Images depicting Joan of Arc often show her with short hair adorned in armor.

MEMORIAL DAY PRAYER

Dear Lord,

On this day, we remember those who have served us by protecting our freedoms. When we celebrate our long weekend with our friends and family, help us remember, that our freedom to speak of you, and our freedom to worship you, and our freedom to do that which we ought to do, have all been bought at the price and sacrifice of many lives. Your Son died for our eternal life in heaven. So too, your children died protecting us here on earth. Help us be mindful this weekend and always of the sacrifices made by those in uniform for all our freedoms.

Amen.

FIELD CEREMONY

CHILDREN'S CORNER

SHARING THE GOSPEL

If pieces are missing from a jigsaw puzzle, you cannot see the whole picture. If keys are missing from a piano, you cannot hear a whole song. When Christians do not work well together, the world cannot see how great and loving God is. Jesus prayed that all of us would stay close to God and to one another. Do your part. Encourage other Christians.

PRAYER

God, I want the world to see how good you are. Help me to be good and loving to all Christians.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Plan a service project with children from another Christian church in your area. Collect food for a food pantry, or sing songs to the grandmas and grandpas in a nursing home.

DRAW

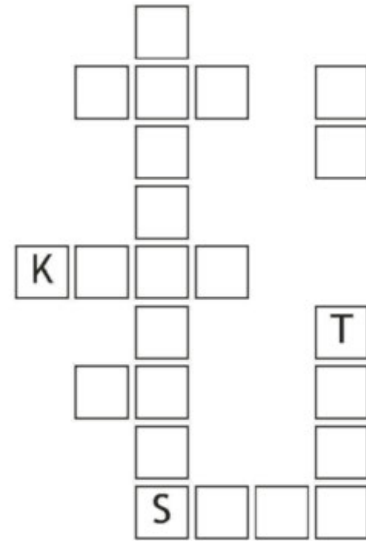

Draw the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit and you inside one heart.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

My followers know that you sent me.

Circle the picture that is facing the wrong way. Then color in all the pictures.

MISSION

I will show love and kindness to my family by taking out the trash.
