THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16

A well-choreographed dance can be truly inspirational. Each movement and step are interconnected, each contributing a piece of the unfolding artistic story. The beholder is caught up in the rhythms, music, and gestures, realizing that none are dispensable and all are necessary. The same is true of the Divine Dance of the Trinity. Each Person plays a part, using unique gestures and movements that are connected to the other Divine Partners. They tell a story of love. Every movement and step is born of love and flows on into eternity. The Divine Dance never ends.

God the Creator powerfully, yet with gentle love, leads. Creating and recreating, birthing and sustaining, He dances with the compassionate incarnate Son, guided by the breath of the Holy Spirit. They are three distinct Persons but move as One. On one hand, the cascading flow of their Presence appears motionless, yet on the other, flows and moves with effortless attention. They share one heart, one goal, and one purpose and invite all of creation to join in their dance, their joy.

The energy of the Trinity flows through all created things. It is a dance of the heart, not of the mind. It has to be experienced, not dissected, and contemplated, not understood. We stand in awe of the Divine Dance and find ourselves watching in amazement all that God creates and sustains. The dance continues in the majesty of a mountain, the power and wonder of an ocean, and the vastness of the universe. It moves in the cry of a newborn infant and in the soul of one who has been forgiven. It flows in the cry for justice and in the wounds of the oppressed. It circles through the changing of seasons, the cycles of birth and death, and the wisdom that one acquires when they love God.

The Dance never ends. Its movements and rhythms go on forever. The Trinitarian Dance sustains all things, endures all things, and brings hope. You are invited to dance.

Don't just watch as if you were simply a spectator. Join in the dance and move as they move.

June Rosary Intention

That all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

Announcement for Sacred Orders

With gratitude to Our Lord, we are pleased to make the following announcement.

Jeffrey P. Formica of Saint Michael Parish in our grouping has been called by his Bishop, the Most Reverend David A. Zubik, D.D., to the Order of Diaconate to be conferred at an ordination ceremony to be held on Saturday, June 13, 2020, in Saint Paul Cathedral, Pittsburgh.

Grace and Eternal Life

Moses is a man after our own hearts, for haven’t we all dealt with more than our share of stiff-necked people? Indeed, haven’t we all gotten a little stiff-necked ourselves at times? Complaining . . . impatient . . . quick to anger. How lucky for Moses—how lucky for all of us—that God is exactly the opposite! And we don’t even have to guess about it. The Lord tells us so directly. Accordingly, Moses does what we all need to do. Even with the tablets in hand, he bows down and asks for God’s forgiveness and grace.

Encouraging us to live together in peace—and in God’s favor—the Apostle Paul knows all about this grace, joyfully invoking Christ’s grace on us along with God’s love and the Holy Spirit’s. Rejoice, he says. And when it comes to rejoicing, John offers us the gladdest words of all: the assurance of eternal life through Jesus.

God Is Merciful and Gracious

At moments in our lives we may wonder how we know who God is or what God is like. Today’s readings help us to feel secure in placing our faith in God and being assured of God’s unfailing love.

When Moses went up the mountain as the Lord had commanded him, God powerfully described himself, The Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity. Jesus shows us the depths of this life of God. He came not to condemn the world but to save it. As people in relationship with God, we often fail. We walk away from God’s ways, fall into sinfulness, and then, with the Lord’s grace, come to our senses and return. God’s words to Moses and the very life of Jesus show us that when we do so, we can still rely on God’s mercy and kindness, because love is God’s very nature.
The Most Holy Trinity

Throughout the liturgical cycle of Sundays and seasons, there are certain days that invite us to focus on particular aspects of our faith. Today is such a day, when we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. On this Sunday after Pentecost, we reflect on the mystery of our Triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. From the moment of creation, through the encounter of Moses with God on the mountain, through Christ’s life, death, and resurrection, with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, our understanding and appreciation of God’s very life has unfolded and deepened. Jesus came into the world to make God’s life and love known, the love of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the love of God that brings us peace.

We are called to become more like him. When others look at us, they should be able to say that we are called to be a Christian. Our daily decisions, words, and actions are to reflect the merciful graciousness of God. We are able to do this through the indwelling power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

In what ways are you becoming more Christ-like? May the grace of the Lord, love of God, and fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you as you renew your commitment to show and share God’s kindness to others!

Called To Be Like God

We might consider this testimony to the life and love of God and think to ourselves, so what?

Knowing that God loves us is reassuring, and may help us place our faith and trust in the Lord, but something more naturally follows—as followers of Jesus, we are called to become more like him. When others look at us, they should be able to say that we are merciful and gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity. This gets at the heart of what it means to be a Christian. Our daily decisions, words, and actions are to reflect the merciful graciousness of God. We are able to do this through the indwelling power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

In what ways are you becoming more Christ-like? May the grace of the Lord, love of God, and fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you as you renew your commitment to show and share God’s kindness to others!

Marriage Moments by Susan Vogt

A week of Trinity. It has become popular to quote various Rules of 3.

So what’s this got to do with marriage? There’s You, Me, and Us. The Us is different than each of us individually. Perhaps you might call it the Spirit of our union. Identify 3 ways you are stronger together this week.

Parenting Pointers by Susan Vogt

How many shoes does your child have? How many do you? How many can you wear at one time? We are in National Barefoot week. Have fun going barefoot for a day or an hour this weekend, but remember that some kids don’t have any shoes. Check out Soles4Souls to see how you can help.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

As the Father sent his son into the world so parents send their children into the world so that the world might be saved. This is the missionary role of the Christian family. Your family is a school where your children develop convictions which enable them to make a difference in the world.

Congratulations!

The Rosary Makers have reached a new milestone. Together, the Rosary Makers have made over 100,000 rosaries which have been shared with the children from our Grouping, R.C.I.A. Candidates, the sick & shut-ins, missions all around the world and anyone needing a Rosary upon entering our churches. Congratulations!

If you are interested in being a Rosary Maker or would like more information, please call the Office, 412-751-0663.

Sunday, June 7; The Most Holy Trinity

Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13; John 3:16-18

The power in three—Faith, hope, love; body, mind, spirit; life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness; executive, judicial, legislative: There’s something satisfying and complete about a list of three. Good things come in threes, too: from bacon, lettuce, and tomato to Peter, Paul, and Mary. Alert to the power of three, scripture uses it as the sum of completion. The prophet Jonah spends three days inside the fish to fully absorb a lesson in obedience. Jesus exits the tomb on the third day. We encounter God three ways: as Creator, Restorer, Sanctifier. O God of many faces—recreate, restore, bless our community! The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Monday, Jun 08; Weekday - Tenth Week in Ordinal Time

1 Kings 17:1-6; Matthew 5:1-12

The cure for what ails us—Pope Francis said that living the Beatitudes means going against the flow of the world. What the world tells us—that wealth brings security, that power gives us strength, that pleasure makes us satisfied—is the opposite of what Jesus says. Francis asks us to let the Beatitudes unsettle us . . . challenge us, and . . . demand a real change in the way we live. We’ve clearly been upended in this sense by the current pandemic, and we have learned firsthand that nothing exempts us from vulnerability. Jesus was, is, and always will be our only hope. Live accordingly. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Tuesday, Jun 09; Ephrem of Syria, deacon

1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16

Rise and shine!—Leave it to Saint Ephrem to derive beauty from pain. As we feel the ripple effects of coronavirus, let’s learn from a man who died in 373 during a plague—from contracting the disease of the people he was ministering to. Ephrem, named a doctor of the church for the poetic nature of his theology, wrote: We give glory to you, Lord, who raised up your cross to span the jaws of death like a bridge by which souls might pass from the region of the dead to the land of the living. Seek and share beauty today. Just so, your light must shine before others.

Wednesday, Jun 10; Weekday

1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19

Most fulfilling of all—As children, many of us were required to memorize the Ten Commandments. It’s likely we can still recite them and have a sense of their importance. However, the catechism teaches that it is the Beatitudes that fulfill, refine, and surpass the old law to its perfection. And how many of us can recite them from memory or even know where to find them in the Bible? (Hint: For all eight, try Matthew 5.3-12.) In these difficult and, for some, tragic days, as we seek God’s presence in our midst, we ask for the grace to comfort those who mourn.

Thursday, Jun 11; Barnabas, apostle

Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:20-26

Make history—What was it like during the times of the apostle Barnabas, whose memorial is today? Thousands of people at a time were becoming Christians with no real formality or infrastructure yet in the church. There was the grace of God and firmness of heart at work, today’s first reading tells us, but persecution and internal conflict too. Every era has its challenges and opportunities. How are you building the Body of Christ during your moment in history? They sent Barnabas to go to Antioch. When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and encouraged them all.

Friday, Jun 12; Weekday

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32

This most amazing day—Tucked within Muir Woods, a national memorial park in California, is a beautiful space called Cathedral Grove. Hikers are asked to maintain quiet as they behold the old-growth coastal redwood trees. Though not a cathedral in the ecclesial sense, the grove reminds us that nature is one of the surest places to experience the power and tenderness of God. Pope Francis writes in Laudato Si’: The entire material universe speaks of God’s love, his boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God. How do you experience this “caress of God,” even in the potted plant in your own home? Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will pass by.

Saturday, Jun 13; Anthony of Padua, priest

1 Kings 19:19-21; Matthew 5:33-37

Treasure the baby and the Bible—The traditional depiction of Saint Anthony (1195-1231) holding the infant Jesus began with a 1580 painting by El Greco showing the Franciscan priest with a large open Bible in which one can see the very tiny baby emerging from the text. Over time in Christian art the image of the baby grew to become a life-size child in the arms of the saint, sometimes standing on a much smaller book and sometimes with the Bible missing all together. In times of quarantine and isolation, when we may not be able to enjoy the consolation of Jesus in Holy Communion, we can experience the Lord’s presence in the Bible, which may have gone missing in our lives. If that is the case, you can invoke Saint Anthony for a return of your lost Bible!

The Father is my trust, the Son is my refuge, the Holy Spirit is my protection.

O holy Trinity, glory to Thee.
