2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Revelation Of God's Presence

Today's first reading from Isaiah arises out of the ordeal of the people of Jerusalem and Judea as they anticipate the end of seventy years of exile in Babylon. Their sufferings and their oppression will end, and they are promised joy like that of a great wedding upon returning to their homeland. Although this passage is probably set in the early sixth century B.C., it is free of historical particulars. Accordingly, the Church has understood its imagery universally, as it proclaims God's promise of healing, hope, and happiness for all peoples, in this world and in the next. When read against this background, the story of Jesus' turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana becomes a revelation of God's presence in the person of Jesus, making these promises real for us in the here and now, in the transformation of our own lives.

Everyday Stewardship -

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds

If every flower wanted to be a rose, wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, spring would lose its loveliness.

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of varieties of tongues might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, Do whatever he tells you, her words apply to all.

Today, . . .

- are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears?
- Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony?
- Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen

in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit.

Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Second Sunday in Ordinal Time

For Pete's sake will you kids be quiet? This question, no doubt, has passed the lips of numerous parents through the years. It's tempting to speculate as to who, exactly, was instructing Isaiah to be quiet. Neighbors? Fellow prophets? Family? No matter. Isaiah says firmly that for the sake of Jerusalem and Zion he will not be silent. Conversely, in the familiar passage in today's Gospel reading, Mary chides her son to break his silence, to save the wedding soon to run out of wine. Jesus responds with a prophetic action, one that signals the miraculous, bountiful joy flowing at the heavenly wedding feast. Prophetic words, prophetic deeds—both flow from a broken silence.

The Corinthians seem to have been Paul's problem children. His two letters to them are much longer than any of his other letters—two, three, or four times as long as some. It seems that if the early Christians at Corinth could misunderstand or do something wrong, they would. Fortunately for us, the two letters to the Corinthians, though they contain much didactic or instructional material, also provide some of Paul's most well-crafted and grace-filled writing. This is certainly true today, with Paul's litany of gifts that the Spirit bestows on the faithful, even to this day. Paul seeks to calm the squabbling that seems to have been going on, as the Corinthians tried to claim one gift or another as more important. All gifts come from the same Spirit, Paul reminds them; and the various gifts are given for the benefit of the community. When jealousy arises in our midst today, we can still turn to Paul's insights so we might stop being prideful, problem children.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Almighty ever-living God, who govern all things, both in heaven and on earth,
mercifully hear the pleading of your people
and bestow your peace on our times.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What can I do to help to bring about God's peace?

Wondrous Child

In the Gospel scene at Cana, we see Mary turning to her own child, Jesus. Perhaps she recalled the power of the Spirit that had flowed in her womb at his Incarnation, leading her to discern that surely he must have Spirit-given gifts that could help with the impending crisis at the wedding. As at her Annunciation, she may not have been completely certain, at first, exactly how this would come about, but in faith at Cana she turned to Jesus. In faith, her words, do whatever he tells you, echoed her reply to Gabriel: Let it be done to me as you say. In faith, she knows whatever words the Word will speak are bound to bring another inbreaking of the Spirit, another manifestation of God's reign. And she is right. Her wondrous child, John the Evangelist tells us, performed his first wonder there, and signaled the presence of the divine in the everyday.

Marriage Moments by Susan Vogt

Martin Luther King talked a lot about racial equality. What about equality in Marriage? Are both of you equally good at cooking, mechanical things, sewing, small talk? Probably not. Even though your spouse may have a natural talent for a particular task, try trading chores for a day, just for fun.

Parenting Pointers by Susan Vogt

The Covid Pandemic has prompted us to think much more about healthy habits. Ask each family member what health habit is easiest or more difficult for them? For example, brushing teeth, washing hands, coughing into your elbow, wearing a mask . . .

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

At Cana, we get a good insight into Mary's parenting style. She did not plead, argue, demand or manipulate. She merely pointed out the situation and trusted her son would make the best decision.

In this NEW YEAR

...so do something NEW

If your relationship with Jesus is the same as it ever was, do something different to change it...to enhance your relationship and allow it to grow more intimate and life-giving.

Pray differently...serve differently...give of yourself differently...love more, forgive more, share more to allow yourself to be loved more and to grow deeper in love with JESUS and His Holy Church.

—a day at a time

Sunday, January 16; 2nd Sunday in Ordinal Time

Isaiah 62:1-5; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; John 2:1-11

You are gifted, any way you slice it—We're all good at something. But not all of us consider our talents and skills as assets given to the Body of Christ. Say you can sew, make people laugh, fix an engine, bake a great pie, or balance a mean checkbook. Of what use are these things to the church, you might ask. Discernment of gifts is something Saint Paul took very seriously in the early community. In our faith sharing, we might ask each other how "mighty deeds" or knowledge or healing might be translated into modern needs the church has. Don't underestimate the healing value of a great pie! To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

Monday, Jan 17; 1 Samuel 15:16-23; Mark 2:18-22

Help the dream awaken One of the many things Martin Luther King, Jr. taught Americans was that faith could—and should!—be a driving force for positive social change. He also showed that people of all faiths could put aside differences and do this work together. A Baptist minister, King met with Pope John XXIII and many other faith leaders who later together publicly lamented his death. Keep King's spirit of faith-based social action and interfaith cooperation alive—gather with Catholics and other people of God to discuss, learn, pray, plan, and act on a peaceful journey toward healing all forms of inequality. But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day.

Tuesday, Jan 18; 1 Samuel 16:1-13; Mark 2:23-28

Shop with a conscience—Today we note Mary Kenney O'Sullivan, who died on this day in 1943. A Catholic mother of three, she poured her considerable talents into organizing working-class women to demand the right to vote and expect justice in their workplaces. She fought for social justice even as the concept of Catholic social teaching was still being refined and formed into what it is today. O'Sullivan understood and lived out social teaching concepts of solidarity, the dignity of the human person, and the dignity of work. Can your shopping choices, voting patterns, and prayers help uplift workers who are currently mistreated? The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath. That is why the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.

Wednesday, Jan 19; 1 Samuel 17:32-33, 37, 40-51; Mark 3:1-6

God loves an underdog—We all tend to cheer for the underdog. We find it inspiring when the person or team least expected to win triumphs. David's victory over Goliath appeals to us for this reason. But there's more to the story. When we have an unsurmountable task before us, it is wise to let God take control. After all, God is all powerful. History is full of saints who did the unexpected because they trusted that God would supplement their weaknesses. As Saint Catherine of Siena advises: Start being brave about everything . . . Don't look at your weakness, but realize that in Christ crucified you can do everything. Today pray for God's will to be revealed to you and trust that he will give you the strength you need. Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath rather than to do evil, to save life rather than to destroy it?

Thursday, Jan 20; Sebastian, 1 Sam 18:6-9; 19:1-7; Mk 3:7-12

Listen to the peoples' laments—The anguish of physical pain can be a fact of life. In medieval times many artists were fascinated by the martyrdom of Sebastian and created gruesome images of it. For practicing Christianity in the third century, Sebastian was ordered to be executed by arrows. He survived this ordeal, only to later be beaten to death for his faith. Father Robin Ryan, C.P., a Passionist priest, says when he encounters people suffering in any form, he avoids explanations as so much about God and suffering is a mystery. He tries to allow those in pain to lament and share their emotion with God, often using the psalms as a starting point as they help us to recognize that we belong to a tradition and a community of faith; we are not alone in this experience. Draw solace from the lament tradition the next time you find yourself or others in pain. He had cured many and, as a result, those who had diseases were pressing upon him to touch him.

Friday, Jan 21; Agnes, martyr - 1 Sam 24:3-21; Mark 3:13-19

I stand with Agnes—The stories of martyrs can make us feel a bit uneasy. They edify us, but they also can—and should—horrify us. Why? Because in every story, we encounter human violence, perhaps even a reflection of the violence we ourselves have suffered, committed, or ignored. While we laud fourth-century martyr Agnes of Rome for her sacred commitment to chastity, we must not overlook the fact that she was martyred for resisting a forced, unwanted relationship and inhumane treatment as mere property. Agnes' story is particularly relevant today because women continue to face the very real threat of personal as well as systemic violence. Will you stand with Agnes against gender violence in all its forms? You have treated me generously, while I have done you harm.

Saturday, Jan 22; Prayer for the Protection of the Unborn

2 Samuel 1:1-4, 11-12, 19, 23-27; Mark 3:20-21

Cradle-to-grave Catholics To embrace a consistent ethic of life is to not only oppose abortion but also to support and defend the dignity and right to life in all conditions and under all circumstances. The term the Seamless Garment was coined by the Catholic activist Eileen Egan to characterize this position, later popularized by the late Cardinal Joseph Bernardin. He said: Those who defend the right to life of the weakest among us must be equally visible in support of the quality of life of the powerless among us: the old and the young, the hungry and the homeless, the undocumented immigrant and the unemployed worker. Learn more about the Seamless Garment ethic and take a stand today for life in all its forms! Let us see your face, Lord, and we shall be saved.

HEALTH CONCERNS at Mass Moving Forward Together

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
As you know, the celebration of the Holy Mass, where we gather to worship God and receive Holy Communion, is the heart of our Catholic faith. Given the recent record-breaking surge in positive COVID-19 cases in Allegheny County and surrounding counties, Bishop David Zubik is reminding everyone of the current diocesan safety protocols. He is doing so in order to safely continue in-person Masses throughout the Diocese of Pittsburgh. This is also being done as an urgent request for everyone to do their part to remain vigilant and mitigate the spread of the virus.

The current diocesan COVID safety protocols are:

- The obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Mass in person was restored effective Sunday, August 15, 2021. That obligation remains in effect.
- Those who are sick, have a health risk, or are a primary caregiver, as well as those who have serious anxiety about being a part of a large group at this time are excused from this obligation.
- The practice of extending the Sign of Peace at Mass is suspended.
- The distribution of the Precious Blood continues to be suspended until further notice.
- Given the high transmissibility rates, mask-wearing is urgently encouraged for all attending Mass regardless of vaccination status.
- Priests, deacons, and all Eucharistic Ministers must continue to wear masks during the distribution of Holy Communion and at all times.
- All greeters and ushers must wear masks while welcoming parishioners, should maintain social-distancing, and should refrain from hand-shaking with fellow parishioners.

As we mark the end of 2021 and look with hope to a New Year filled with God's continued blessings, Bishop Zubik asks each of us to please join with him in praying for an end to the spread of COVID-19, and for health and happiness for all.

We also do Themed Baskets such as auto cleaning, candles, popular children's characters, gardening supplies, kitchen items, puzzle & crossword books, tools, toys, etc.

Please bring your donations to the Gathering Space in each church and remember that our festival will not be successful without your support.

Thank you for your generosity!!!
We couldn't do it without you!

Protecting Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Adults

Taking reasonable measures to assure that Church personnel comply with all required certifications and background checks for the purpose of providing a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable adults.

Diocesan Database & Regulations for all Ministries

All parish staff and volunteers including: Advisory Councils: Finance and Pastoral; Faith Formation: Catechists & Aides, R.C.I.A. Team, Youth Ministry, Volunteers; Liturgical and Music Ministry: Adult Servers, Cantors, Choir, Eucharistic Ministers, Greeters, Lectors, Ushers; Parish Organizations: Christian Mothers/Women's Guild, Holy Name Society, Knight's of Columbus, Ladies of Charity, Rosary Society; Fund Raising: Festival, Fish Fry, Fund-Raising Volunteers, etc. are required to be cleared in the following ways:

- 1. Be registered on the Virtus® Online Safe Environment database: (Unsure whether you have an existing account? Call the Diocese Office for Compliance at 412-456-3093. If your record exists, they will provide you with login information)
- 2. Be cleared by the Department of Public Welfare (PA Child Abuse History)
- 3. Be cleared by the FBI (Fingerprint Clearance or Waiver for PA residents past 10+ years)
- 4. Protecting God's Children Online Training
- 5. Mandated Reporter Online Training (applies to certain volunteers – contact Jeannie for more information)

The Protecting God's Children Seminar (an online one-hour seminar) is a requirement for all adults 18 years of age or older who are involved in the public ministry (work) of the church.

If you would like to take the Protecting God's Children Seminar and do not have access to computer, please contact Jeannie. There is a computer set up for Safe Environment in the Parish Office at St. Eugene Rectory.

For more information, questions, or to begin the process of certification, please call Jeannie, 412-751-0663 or email protect@joachimandannediopitt.org, Parish Safe Environment Coordinator.

Thank you for your cooperation and support!

Safe Environment Requirement Q&A's

Safe Environment Requirements have been in place for many years. The message from the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) and the Diocese of Pittsburgh is clear: compliance is mandatory.

I volunteer for just a few hours a year.

Do I really need to go through all this?

Your service is needed. Your service is appreciated.

But no one is to be scheduled or permitted to serve until all clearances are in place and up to date.

Can I help at the fish fry/bingo/festival if my clearances are in progress?

No. Every new volunteer must be 100% in compliance before beginning volunteer service. This means being registered on the Safe Environment Database, with Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearance, and FBI clearance or waiver.

Protecting God's Children training, and Mandated Reporter Training (if required for the volunteer position) must be completed within 90 days. Current volunteers must renew their Pennsylvania Child Abuse History and FBI clearance or waiver every five years. Volunteers are informed when renewal is due. Please respond promptly to ensure your volunteer service can continue uninterrupted. Pennsylvania Child Abuse History clearances can be obtained as quickly as one business day when submitted online.

I have clearances from my employment/another volunteer organization. Can I submit them?"

Copies of Pennsylvania Child Abuse History and FBI clearances obtained for another organization may be submitted if they were issued less than five years ago. You will still have to register on the Safe Environment Database and complete Protecting God's Children training, and Mandated Reporter Training if required for the volunteer position.

I'm not a criminal. Why do I have to prove it?

The welfare of children, youth and vulnerable adults is the focus and the goal of the safe environment program.

Everything we do, we do for them.

This isn't the way it has been done before.

Differences in how these requirements have been enforced from parish to parish and pastor to pastor have led to confusion. Our Safe Environment Coordinator will be working with each organization and event coordinators to identify and assist each volunteer as needed to reach 100% compliance.

I don't have a computer/internet access.

The entire Safe Environment process can be accessed through VIRTUSONLINE.ORG. At this time, the Protecting God's Children and Mandated Reporter Training are both available only online. Those without internet access can register on the database and complete the clearance applications with the assistance of the Safe Environment Coordinator by phone.

Online training sessions can be completed at our office by appointment. For information, questions, or to begin the process contact Jeannie at 412-751-0663. Thank you!

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Homily: Reflection of the Word

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
All Bow.
 and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
 and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.
 I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen
