4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[He said to them], "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" - Lk 4:21-22

Fourth Sunday in Ordinal Time

The fulfilled in your hearing statement of Jesus today is also the conclusion of last week's Gospel, with the words of Isaiah about the breadth of God's mercy and justice at its heart. The response of the crowd in the synagogue is united: all are amazed, but all likewise ask if he's not merely the son of Joseph the humble carpenter. Jesus calls them out for seeming to think that he ought to be doing his ministry only locally, and—selfishly—only for them. (After all, they know where he comes from!) When Jesus essentially replies nope through some proverbs and prophetic stories, all the crowd gets angry at his implication that the fulfillment in Jesus is for everyone, not just for them. When our take care of your own reflex kicks in, we would do well to recall that this isn't the attitude of Jesus, nor is it the attitude of his mission that we continue to this day. Synod on Synodality

The global synod:

Pope Francis invites you to participate

Pope Francis is calling all Catholics to participate in a Synod on Synodality to discern how the Church should continue the mission that Jesus gave to the People of God. Synodal sessions will be held throughout the Diocese of Pittsburgh in early 2022. Synod means journeying together. Rather than debate policy, we will listen to the Holy Spirit, share what is on our hearts and most importantly, listen to each other.

For more information text Synod2021 to 84576 and go to www.diopitt.org/journeying-together to download your Participant Guide.

In OUR PARISH, a synodal session will be held on Tuesday, March 29, 2022 at 7:00 pm in Archangel Hall - Saint Michael Church, Elizabeth.

Everyday Stewardship -

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

Love is patient, love is kind ... As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that's an opportunity to strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Faith, hope, and love remain, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.
1 Corinthians 13:13

When Jesus claims his salvific mission is for all people, not just the Jews, he is expelled by the enraged members of the Nazarean synagogue. —Luke 4:21-30

To Be A Prophet

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from Judah's kings and princes and its priests and people (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they will not prevail over you, for I am with you (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them (salvation).

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his gracious words (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away (4:30).

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fourth Sunday in Ordinal Time

Grant us, Lord our God, that we may honor you with all our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflection question:

What can I do to come closer to loving everyone in truth of heart?

Marriage Moments by Susan Vogt

Love is patient, kind, truthful, hopeful, enduring...
Love is not jealous, pompous, inflated, rued, quick-tempered, brooding (1 Corinthians 13:4-8). Tell your beloved which positive quality you think they are strong in.

Parenting Pointers by Susan Vogt

Perhaps your family has gotten some nice Christmas gifts. During these mostly indoor days of winter, challenge each family member to let go of something they no longer need - a toy, a piece of clothing, a book, old papers...

Saints Joachim and Anne, pray for us.

Read the Bible.
Pray over Sacred Scripture.
You can keep whatever you find...

You've Been Warned

The opening of the reading selected from Jeremiah is surely one of the most comforting in scripture. Imagine! God knew me before my bodily conception; God dedicated me before my birth or any human dedication rites; God appointed me a prophet! Then comes the uh-oh. Jeremiah is warned that his appointment as a prophet will bring opposition, against which God's prophets must stand up. Somehow the appointment as God's prophet seems like it should be a bit happier, with the glamor that we might think will come from having friends in high places. Yet, just as there are many forces in the world arrayed against the divine will and divine goodness, so too are they arrayed against God's prophets. A second round of assurances comes to Jeremiah, a pledge that God will be with Jeremiah to strengthen him. God doesn't promise a turmoil-free life, but does vow to be Jeremiah's strength.

Jesus, Son Of Jeremiah

In the synagogue at Nazareth, a similar turn of events takes place. When Jesus speaks of the Spirit's anointing being upon him, the anointing described in Isaiah, the crowd is amazed, and seems like they even want to take credit, since he's a local boy. Then Jesus speaks some words of tough love, and local boy pivots to who does he think he is? You couldn't blame Jesus, in that moment, if he recalled the words of Jeremiah, his prophetic ancestor. Though the crowd drove Jesus out of town and up a hill to throw him to his death, his time had not yet come. The strength and protection that God promises to prophets came for Jesus that day, as he passed through the mob's midst, unharmed. He passed through their midst to continue the work for which the Spirit had anointed him. For us who follow the prophetic heritage of Jesus this day, we've been warned. But we've also been assured of God's care.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Mary and Joseph must have been proud when their village all spoke well of Jesus and were amazed at his words. But they probably felt shame when the same people drove him out of town. Like Mary and Joseph, the highs and lows of parenting are our path to being a Holy Family.

Sunday, January 30:*4th Sunday in Ordinal Time

Jer 1:4-19; 1 Cor 12:31— 13:13; Lk 4:21-30

Children should be seen, heard—and guided—It's been a tough two years on everyone, but especially on the kids. Childhood was upended by the pandemic. Schooling has been a heroic effort, and peer interactions have been stifled. This generation of young ones will have a special burden in trying to make up for lost time, missed opportunities, and natural social interactions. They've also learned unexpected lessons about global interconnectedness, the rich advantages of technology, and the bitter realities of social inequity. Today begins Catholic Schools Week, with the theme Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service, to remind us that our schools enable children to put what they learn in the context of gospel values. Support faith-based education! Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you.

Monday, Jan 31; John Bosco, priest & founder

2 Samuel 15:13-14, 30; 16:5-13; Mark 5:1-20

Celebrating a lovely education—Saint John Bosco, a 19th-century Italian priest, was an educator ahead of his time. He understood the power of positive reinforcement long before modern psychology came along—and he applied this theory to teaching poor kids who had rough lives. His method? Quite simply, love. Rather than punish kids, he was kind. During Catholic Schools Week, offer a prayer of thanks for the educators who nurtured you through your formative years. Whether you went to Catholic schools or not, those special teachers were reflecting Christ's love back to you. Remember how their good works shaped the Christian you are today. Go home to your family and announce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you.

Tuesday, Feb 01; 2 Samuel 18:9-30—19:3; Mark 5:21-43

Catholic education for a better world—On this Tuesday of Catholic Schools Week, the focus is on the student. The National Catholic Education Association encourages schools to today recognize students' accomplishments—but also have them embrace the grounding in faith, knowledge, and service a Catholic education provides. In a June 2021 address to Latin American Catholic schools, Pope Francis expands this vision even more. He urges welcoming schools that do not retreat into a selfish elitism, but that learn to live together with everyone . . . knowing that everything is connected. His wish? That schools have conscience and create conscience. Pray for all Catholic students today. The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded.

Wednesday, Feb 02; The Presentation of the Lord

Malachi 3:1-4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40

Comfort food for the soul—Mexican American neighborhoods will be filled with the sweet aroma of warm tamales today, served because of a special connection this day has to January 6, the Epiphany. On Epiphany, La Rosca, a cake in the shape of a crown, is shared by family and friends in honor of the Magi, a.k.a., the three kings. The person who finds a small figure of Jesus hidden in their slice of cake is tasked with throwing a tamale party today, the day the infant Jesus is presented at the Temple. Welcome Jesus to your table today. When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord.

Thursday, Feb 03; 1 Kings 2:1-4, 10-12; Mark 6:7-13

Lift up her voice— Servant of God Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange, O.S.P., died on this day in 1882. Born into a well-educated family of means in the Caribbean, she immigrated to Baltimore in the early 1800s as a free black woman in a slave state. Seeing the need for education among her fellow Caribbean immigrants, she taught out of her home, opened a school in 1828, took first religious vows a year later, and founded the Oblate Sisters of Providence. Mary Elizabeth and her fellow sisters devoted themselves to works of mercy and social reform, working with communities of color facing poverty, racism, and the degradations of slavery. Nearly 200 years later, the order's work continues strong, as does the canonization process for this remarkable woman. Let Mary Elizabeth's example inspire you to respond to injustice with courageous compassion. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Friday, Feb 04; Sirach 47:2-11; Mark 6:14-29

Invest your humanity—On this Friday of Catholic Schools Week, Pope Francis offers supportive words for Catholic educators. To educate is an act of love, it is to give life. And love is demanding, it calls for the best resources, for a reawakening of the passion to begin this path patiently with young people. The educator in Catholic schools must be, first and foremost, competent and qualified but, at the same time, someone who is rich in humanity and able to promote spiritual growth. For this, Francis said in 2014, it is necessary to invest. How can you help support Catholic educators today? He added beauty to the feasts and solemnized the seasons of each year.

Saturday, Feb 05; 1 Kings 3:4-13; Mark 6:30-34

Be careful what you ask for The wisest thing Solomon ever did was to ask for wisdom. Given the chance to ask for anything, he didn't go the route of wealth, fame, immortality, but rather chose the road less traveled. For, as one biblical commentator put it, wisdom is a bountiful crop with a meager harvest. Often personified in biblical testimony as the feminine face of the Divine, Proverbs tells us that she "cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice; at the head of the noisy streets she cries out; at the entrance of the city gates she speaks: 'How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple?'" We are Solomon, and the choice is ours to make. What will you choose? The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request... In addition, I give you what you have not asked for.

CALLING ALL CRAFTERS!!!!

Our craft basket area needs your talent!

What better way to spend a cold, snowy winter day than by creating your special crafts for our Saints Joachim and Anne Community Parish Festival. Floral arrangements, wreaths, wood working, afghans, baby items, etc.

Donations can be dropped off at each church in the Gather Space. If you have any questions, please call Cathy, 412-980-2918.

Thank you for you time, talents and support of our parish festival!!!

Souper Bowl Soup Drive We CAN Impact Our Community...

Would you consider bringing a can or two of soup before or on Super Bowl Sunday, February 13, 2022.

Please bring your donations to Mass and leave them in the Sanctuary in front of the altar.

All donations of soup will be shared with the local Food Banks and Meals on Wheels.

Thank you for your kindness and caring!

Help Wanted

Meals on Wheels of Elizabeth Forward

Meals on Wheels of Elizabeth Forward, based at Central Highlands Community Methodist Church, is looking for volunteers on Monday through Friday Mornings.

Kitchen Help (7-9 am), Drivers & Meal Deliverers (9-11 am)

There is a shortage of volunteers. You do not need to be there everyday of the week—you can volunteer a few hours a week or a month. You can volunteer as a substitute during vacations. Give it a Try!

New Clients

Meals on Wheels is offered on a daily, weekly or on a temporary basis or long term. The Cost is $4 per day which provides a hot, freshly prepared delicious meal and a bagged lunch items, including milk—all delivered right to your doorstep. There is no age or financial requirement for this service.

Just as important as the meals, caring, compassionate volunteers connect with the clients daily with compassionate smiles, friendship, a safety check, and peace of mind for clients and their families.

If you would like more information, or to volunteer or to add a new client for delivery, please call Linda, 412-751-2230.

If no answer, please leave a message.

Protecting Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Adults

Taking reasonable measures to assure that Church personnel comply with all required certifications and background checks for the purpose of providing a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable adults.

Diocesan Database & Regulations for all Ministries

All parish staff and volunteers including: Advisory Councils: Finance and Pastoral; Faith Formation: Catechists & Aides, R.C.I.A. Team, Youth Ministry, Volunteers; Liturgical and Music Ministry: Adult Servers, Cantors, Choir, Eucharistic Ministers, Greeters, Lectors, Ushers; Parish Organizations: Christian Mothers/Women's Guild, Holy Name Society, Knight's of Columbus, Ladies of Charity, Rosary Society; Fund Raising: Festival, Fish Fry, Fund-Raising Volunteers, etc. are required to be cleared in the following ways:

- 1. Be registered on the Virtus ® Online Safe Environment database: (Unsure whether you have an existing account? Call the Diocese Office for Compliance at 412-456-3093. If your record exists, they will provide you with login information)
- 2. Be cleared by the Department of Public Welfare (PA Child Abuse History)
- 3. Be cleared by the FBI (Fingerprint Clearance or Waiver for PA residents past 10+ years)
- 4. Protecting God's Children Online Training
- 5. Mandated Reporter Online Training (applies to certain volunteers – contact Jeannie for more information)

The Protecting God's Children Seminar (an online one-hour seminar) is a requirement for all adults 18 years of age or older who are involved in the public ministry (work) of the church.

If you would like to take the Protecting God's Children Seminar and do not have access to computer, please contact Jeannie. There is a computer set up for Safe Environment in the Parish Office at St. Eugene Rectory.

For more information, questions, or to begin the process of certification, please call Jeannie, 412-751-0663 or email protect@joachimandannediopitt.org, Parish Safe Environment Coordinator.

Thank you for your cooperation and support!

Safe Environment Requirement Q&A's

Safe Environment Requirements have been in place for many years. The message from the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) and the Diocese of Pittsburgh is clear: compliance is mandatory.

I volunteer for just a few hours a year.

Do I really need to go through all this?

Your service is needed. Your service is appreciated.

But no one is to be scheduled or permitted to serve until all clearances are in place and up to date.

Can I help at the fish fry/bingo/festival if my clearances are in progress?

No. Every new volunteer must be 100% in compliance before beginning volunteer service. This means being registered on the Safe Environment Database, with Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearance, and FBI clearance or waiver.

Protecting God's Children training, and Mandated Reporter Training (if required for the volunteer position) must be completed within 90 days. Current volunteers must renew their Pennsylvania Child Abuse History and FBI clearance or waiver every five years. Volunteers are informed when renewal is due. Please respond promptly to ensure your volunteer service can continue uninterrupted. Pennsylvania Child Abuse History clearances can be obtained as quickly as one business day when submitted online.

I have clearances from my employment/another volunteer organization. Can I submit them?"

Copies of Pennsylvania Child Abuse History and FBI clearances obtained for another organization may be submitted if they were issued less than five years ago. You will still have to register on the Safe Environment Database and complete Protecting God's Children training, and Mandated Reporter Training if required for the volunteer position.

I'm not a criminal. Why do I have to prove it?

The welfare of children, youth and vulnerable adults is the focus and the goal of the safe environment program.

Everything we do, we do for them.

This isn't the way it has been done before.

Differences in how these requirements have been enforced from parish to parish and pastor to pastor have led to confusion. Our Safe Environment Coordinator will be working with each organization and event coordinators to identify and assist each volunteer as needed to reach 100% compliance.

I don't have a computer/internet access.

The entire Safe Environment process can be accessed through VIRTUSONLINE.ORG. At this time, the Protecting God's Children and Mandated Reporter Training are both available only online. Those without internet access can register on the database and complete the clearance applications with the assistance of the Safe Environment Coordinator by phone.

Online training sessions can be completed at our office by appointment. For information, questions, or to begin the process contact Jeannie at 412-751-0663. Thank you!

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

will. will. A - men. A - men.

1. We praise you, we bless you, receive our prayer;
we adore you, we glorify you, you are seated at the right hand, we give you thanks for your great glory, the right hand of the Father, Lord God, heav'nly King, have mercy on us.
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, you alone are the Lord, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you alone are the Most High, you take away the sins of the world, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, have mercy on us; in the glory of God the Father.
you take away the sins of the world,
3. For you alone are the Holy One,

Homily: Reflection of the Word

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
All Bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
 and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Liturgy of the Eucharist

God Of Love, Hear Our Prayer.

Prayer for On Mission for the Church Alive!

Father of Mercy, as we journey
 On Mission for the Church Alive! endow us with your gifts of collaboration, courage and compassion.
 Help us to fulfill the mission of Jesus and His Church through vibrant parishes and effective ministries.

Raise up selfless, energetic leaders to serve the Church in fidelity and with care.

May we the Church of Pittsburgh in Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Greene, Lawrence, and Washington counties, be sustained and strengthened, by your grace.

Help us to learn Jesus, to love Jesus and to live Jesus.
 Hear this prayer and grant it through Jesus Christ our Lord, with help of our dear Blessed Mother, under the mantle of her love. Amen.
