Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And the woman’s daughter was healed from that hour. -Matthew 15:28

Online Giving

Did you know that if you would like to not have to remember your envelope every Sunday, you can go to www.stjohnstmary.net and register for online giving at your church. It’s simple and you can have it recurring so you don’t have to remember anything. You can even set up the Holy Days, etc. for an automatic withdrawal from your checking account. A perfect way to remember to contribute without the hassle of always coming up with cash or writing a check and then hunting for those church envelopes.

“Honor the LORD with the fruits of all your crops…”
- Proverbs 3:9

Online Giving
Dear friends,

Today I share with you some bittersweet news. Please join me in wishing our partner parish secretary, Patty Zaccagnini, well in her retirement. I, along with the parishioners are deeply indebted for all of her helpful and cheerful service over these last eight years. We wish her and her husband Joe, the mayor of the fine borough of Export, all the best in their retirement. Her warm smile and listening ear will certainly be missed at our office. I know that in my first year as a pastor, and as pastor here, Patty’s deep knowledge of the community and of the parishes has been a tremendous blessing. I worry that sometimes I won’t know to whom I can turn for what. However, I’m sure that the Good Lord will provide for our needs.

This past week, Patty informed me that she is going to retire from our parish staff and office. As she told me, she recently celebrated a birthday and after some serious thought, prayer, discernment, and discussion with her husband, she has decided that it is time to move on to what is next in life. Patty has been an integral part of the life of our partner parishes for the last eight years. In normal (NON-COVID) times, we’d have had a big celebration to thank her for her service. However, social distancing guidelines preclude such an event at this time. Hopefully we can have such a gathering in the future. If you wish to send her a note of thanks or a well wish, you can simply mail it to the office and we will get it to her.

I will miss her knowledge of things in the parish and the office; there are big shoes to fill. Because Patty will be finishing up this month, it will be a quick turnaround. Therefore in the meantime I ask firstly for your prayers and secondly for your patience as I begin in earnest to look for ways and for the right person to fill a huge void. We may also need some additional volunteers in the office the next few weeks to hold the line please let me know if this is a way that you would like to share your time and talent with us. Please keep Patty, me, and the rest of our office staff in your prayers. And please ask the Lord to send us what we need: a qualified candidate with secretarial experience and a desire to serve God through the work of our partner parishes! Anyone interested in applying should contact me and send a resume.

CONFIRMATIONS:

Congratulations to our rising freshmen who were Confirmed in Christ and Sealed in the Holy Spirit this past week! I want to say a special word of thanks to those who helped to prepare our young people – in particular Beth Couchenour and her team, and also to those who assisted with the liturgy. Those confirmed include:

- Maria Rose Cecere
- Landon Anthony Danovich*
- Chase Michael Henninger
- William Andrew Jefferies
- Andrew Christopher Marcej
- Nicholas Sebastian Matus
- Michael Patrick Rettger
- Matthew John Robinson
- Bill Gregory Scully
- Charlie Charles Shelton
- Hayden Patrick Telford

(Confirmation will be celebrated this week)
Stewardship Corner

“For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.”

-Romans 11:29

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone.

All Generations Welcome

Goodbye Summer
Parish Pastoral Council Update

Fellow Parishioners,

Spring and summer this year have provided our partner parishes with the challenge of staying in touch with our faith and each other. In spite of the pandemic most of us have been able to attend Mass online, receive the Holy Eucharist spiritually and even attend virtual ministry meetings. Many of us still miss physically being able to attend Mass or parish events and the fellowship it brings. Since we are not able to have a parish picnic this year, Father Dan and the Pastoral Council are hosting Phone Call Sunday on August 30th. To help maintain the connections with our fellow parishioners, please put aside some time on August 30th to make a phone call or send a message via social media to five people you would see at Mass or have contact with through a ministry you are part of, but haven’t been able to catch up with lately. A simple phone call or message can help provide the fellowship we miss.

Thank You — Your Parish Pastoral Council

THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man,” all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
