Stewardship Corner

“What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?” - Matthew 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi once said, “Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else.” We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world’s riches. We need to set our priorities based on God’s values and not the values of the material world.

Fr. Ulishney’s Updates!

PARISH OFFICE STAFFING: with the retirement of our secretary Patty Zaccagnini, the search for a new secretary has begun in earnest. I ask your prayers in the discernment process as interviews are moving forward. In the meantime I am grateful for the volunteers who are assisting in the office; please be patient with them and be sure to thank them, should you call! In the interim period, notes for the bulletin can be sent or directed to Beth Coughenour. (Thanks, Beth!)

The staff had a farewell gathering for Patty; hopefully when the pandemic is over we can have a parish wide celebration.

A VERY IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT CLEARANCES:
A few months ago, parish staff made calls to partner parish ministers and volunteers about updating state-mandated clearances which expire after 5 years and which are required to be able to minister in our parishes. While many have followed-up, many still have to complete the renewal process. You may have received another phone call or email already, or may soon. Because we value the protection of ministers and of children in Church, and following state law and diocesan norms, those who wish to continue in ministry and are in need of clearance updates, must update them. Please do so as soon as possible. If you need assistance, contact the parish office.

BISHOP MALESIC FAREWELL MASS:
This Sunday afternoon at 3 PM, Bishop Malesic will celebrate his farewell Mass for the Diocese of Greensburg. We have been blessed with a wise and kind shepherd these last five years. I have always found the bishop to be reasonable and a good listener. He has been a shepherd with a pastor’s heart in some difficult circumstances, and his leadership will be missed. I invite you to watch his final Mass (at which a representative member from each of our partner parishes will be present). Please keep the bishop in your prayers, and also implore the Lord to send down the wisdom of the Holy Spirit upon those responsible for choosing our next Shepherd.

MOVIE NIGHT: On Friday we will have our outdoor/social-distance parish movie night. Like the ‘liturgy on the lawn,’ you can bring your own chair (and snack!) We hope you will join us in this event which is not just for the kids, but for all. We will also be previewing some of the great content available on FORMED. Don’t miss it!

PICNIC: Finally, today is the day! Please be sure to set aside some time today to make contact with another fellow parishioner. This is because we cannot gather as we usually do for our parish picnic. It’s important, especially during this challenging time, to stay connected! Perhaps you can talk to them about how you’ve managed the interesting circumstances of the last months.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Readings:

1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

Responsorial Psalm 63: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

2nd Reading: Romans 12:1-2

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man,” all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
