From Father Terry

Today we hear about Zacchaeus, a chief tax collector. (Lk 19:1-10) One of the things that stands out about Zacchaeus is his pursuit of Jesus. Zacchaeus, living a worldly and sinful lifestyle, wonders if Jesus can offer him something more. With the large crowd in the way, plus being short in stature, Zacchaeus climbs a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus. What a beautiful image of seeking. He climbs a tree to get a glimpse of Jesus! It is said that he was the first one to go out on a limb for Jesus. Are we willing to go out on a limb for Jesus? Are we willing to pursue Jesus with all of our minds and hearts? There is something more in Jesus. Do we believe this? The more we believe this, the more we will seek him out. We need to seek Jesus out in such things as prayer, the sacraments, spiritual reading, charity, exercising our gifts, and taking risks. When Zacchaeus encounters our Lord, he is forgiven and finds a whole new way to live life. He is fulfilled! May we seek Jesus out above all, so that we too can find something more.

In light of All Souls Day (November 2), the month of November is dedicated to praying for our deceased brothers and sisters. Please find in our churches a Book of Remembrance for us to enter our deceased loved ones. May they find eternal rest and intercede for us.

On Mission News

As we prepare to become a new parish, I invite all to join with me in making a consecration to Mary. What a wonderful way to prepare to become a new parish! The booklet, “33 Days to Morning Glory,” can be found at the doors of our churches. This is a do-it-yourself retreat from Nov. 5 – Dec. 8. I will have an overview meeting this Tuesday, November 5 at St. Patrick at 7 p.m. I will also hold a half-way meeting on November 21. The meetings are not necessary to do the consecration, but you are certainly welcome to come. More details about the consecration are in the bulletin. I hope you can join with me in calling upon Our Lady’s love and guidance as we become a new parish. To Jesus through Mary!

Grouping Marian Consecration

All are welcome to take part in our Marian consecration from Nov. 5 – Dec. 8 (Immaculate Conception). Please find at the doors of our churches “33 Days to Morning Glory.” The pamphlet is a “Do-It Yourself Retreat,” which will prepare us to make a consecration to Mary. Each day there is a reflection and prayer that will prepare us for the consecration. The consecration is a relatively short prayer said to Mary. St. Louis De Montfort said that consecrating ourselves to Jesus through Mary is “the surest, easiest, shortest, and most perfect means” to becoming a saint. Wow! We need to do this. As we become a new parish, this is a wonderful time to consecrate ourselves to Mary. Giving ourselves to Mary will carry with it so many blessings for our new parish and for us. Although this is a do-it-yourself retreat, all are invited to the following:

Fr. Terry’s overview meeting at St. Patrick’s, in the church, on Tuesday, November 5 at 7 p.m.

Half-way point gathering with Fr. Terry to see how things are going: Following the 7 p.m. Mass at St. Angela’s on Thursday, November 21 (Approx. 7:30 p.m.)

We will have the official consecration at the end of the weekend Masses on December 7-8. The booklets were given to us for free. I tell you this in case you want to make some type of donation to spreading the consecration in the enclosed envelope in each booklet. I hope you can join with us in making the consecration. To Jesus through Mary!

This week at EDGE we talked about what happens when it seems like God isn’t answering our prayers.

Nathan, one of our small group leaders, gave a witness talk. He shared how inviting Jesus into his suffering and pain after his father passed away transformed his life.

Everyone went around to 3 stations to learn more about Saint Damien, Blessed Chiara, and Blessed Alexandrina. All of these saints suffered greatly from different illnesses, but believed in God’s infinite love and mercy for all and lived to bring others into that love and mercy.

Thank you to Corpus Christi’s Christian Mothers for their generous donation to sponsor Faith Formation’s October Breakfasts!!!

If you or your organization are interested in donating to help provide our Family Program and EDGE Program with breakfast each month, please contact
