A Prayer for Collaboration

O God, You enlighten us with your charity, and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Church,
 You have brought us together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel, and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise to those who love You.
 We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 One God, forever and ever. Amen.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

chanted by Father Sheridan

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.

Let your forbearance be known to all men.

The Lord is at hand.

Do not be anxious over anything;

but in all manner of prayer,

let your requests be made known unto God.

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,
 and ransom captive Israel,
 That mourns in lonely exile here
 Until the Son of God appear. ℣

℟ Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
 Shall come to you, O Israel.

O Come, O Wisdom from on high,
 Who orders all things mightily;
 To us the path of knowledge show,
 And teach us in her ways to go.. ℣

℟ Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
 Shall come to you, O Israel.

O Come, O Dayspring from on high
 And cheer us by your drawing nigh;
 Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
 And death's dark shadow put to flight. ℣

℟ Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
 Shall come to you, O Israel.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 61:1-2, 10-11

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

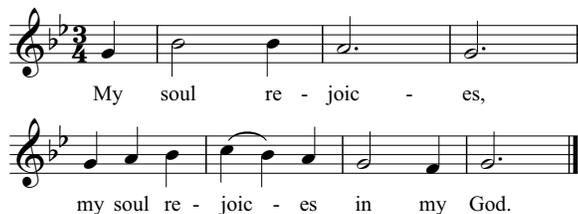

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the LORD and a day of vindication by our God. I rejoice heartily in the LORD, in my God is the joy of my soul; for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem, like a bride bedecked with her jewels. As the earth brings forth its plants, and a garden makes its growth spring up, so will the Lord GOD make justice and praise spring up before all the nations.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Luke 1

My soul re - joic - es, my soul re - joic - es in my God.

*My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he hath looked upon his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed: R̄*

*the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. R̄*

*He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy. R̄*

SECOND READING

II Peter 3:8-14

A Reading from the First of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians.

Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise prophetic utterances. Test everything; retain what is good. Refrain from every kind of evil. May the God of peace make you perfectly holy and may you entirely, spirit, soul, and body, be preserved blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will also accomplish it.

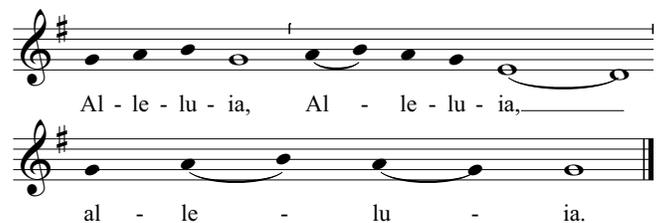

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING

John 1:6-8, 19-28

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light. And this is the testimony of John. When the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to him to ask him, "Who are you?" He admitted and did not deny it, but admitted, "I am not the Christ." So they asked him, "What are you then? Are you Elijah?" And he said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No." So they said to him, "Who are you, so we can give an answer to those who sent us? What do you have to say for yourself?" He said: "I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, 'make straight the way of the Lord,'" as Isaiah the prophet said." Some Pharisees were also sent. They asked him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ or Elijah or the Prophet?"

John answered them, "I baptize with water; but there is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie." This happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow at the following words up to: and became man.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

RECESSIONAL

Toccata on Veni, Veni Emmanuel Adolphus Hailstork

From Father Sheridan

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Rejoice!! Every year as we celebrate this third Sunday of Advent, Gaudete Sunday, as it is called, the vestments and the candle on the wreath are rose (pink), which is the color of joy. My thoughts on this day always go to the way the Lord paints the sky—with beautiful pinks, oranges, reds, yellows, blues, and purples—for the sunrise and sunset. To give a visual of this, I am including pictures that I took in late August of a particularly beautiful sunset at our parishes. These pictures were taken within a minute of each other, but facing in different directions. It always amazes me to see the differences in the same sky at the time of sunset and sunrise. When I see the sky so beautiful, I know that the Lord is near. He is watching over us. He is protecting us. That is what we should think when we see the rose vestments at Mass, as well. The Lord is near! And because he is near, we can rejoice, even though the night is upon us. Even though it is cold and dreary. Even though we have grown weary. Our God is coming! Soon, Emmanuel—God with us—will be here. And so, we rejoice and give thanks today.

Many thanks to those who donated gift cards in place of the giving tree this year. I know your gifts will benefit our families so much during these difficult days of the pandemic.

Congratulations to those who made their First Reconciliation this weekend. May God continue to touch their hearts to convert them more and more to Himself.

Finally, our sympathies and prayers are with the families and friends of Grace Stump and Vincent Balla of the Basilica and Paula Witmer of St. Peter Church, who recently passed away. May God bring them into his Holy Light to reign with Him forever, and may He provide comfort and consolation to those who mourn.

Have a blessed week!

Peace ~ Fr. Sheridan

Prayer for the Beatification of Rhoda Wise

Heavenly Father, the love of your crucified Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, sustained the Servant of God, Rhoda Wise, in her many sufferings and made her by grace a strong woman of faith. She led others to the Sacred Heart of Your Son, Jesus. She devoutly promoted daily recitation of the Most Holy Rosary. Prayers were answered. Faith was strengthened. May her Beatification come quickly as we ask for her intercession in this need. . . (pause and add your intention). We ask this through the Heart of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel (Latin: Veni, Veni, Emmanuel) is a hymn that we will use all throughout Advent, and is probably the most familiar (and certainly a favorite) of all Advent Hymns. The text was originally in Latin, and is a paraphrase of the O Antiphons.

The O Antiphons are a series of plainchant antiphons attached to the Magnificat at Vespers over the final days before Christmas (December 17 to December 23).

The text and music of Veni Emmanuel were developed separately: Text in 1710 and the tune around the 15th-century in France.

The first version of this hymn included five verses, which corresponded to five of the seven O Antiphons:

Veni, Veni, Emmanuel

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Veni, O Jesse Virgula

O Come, Thou Rod of Jesse

Veni, Veni, O Oriens

O Come, Thou Dayspring, from on High

Veni, Clavis Davidica

O Come, Thou Key of David, Come

Veni, Veni, Adonai

O Come, Adonai, Lord of Might

The text was expanded to include the remaining O Antiphons, and was first published around 1878:

Veni, O Sapientia

O Come, O Wisdom

Veni, Rex Gentium

O Come, King of the Nations

Intentions of Pope Francis

Perpetual Adoration

The Perpetual Adoration Chapel will be closed until after the first of the year due to the pandemic. Christine Burger, the Coordinator of Perpetual Adoration, in consultation with Father Sheridan, will let us know when it is safe to reopen the chapel.

In the meantime, there is still the opportunity to adore the Blessed Sacrament from the Basilica parking lot. The tabernacle has remained in the second floor, rectory window since April. You can remain safely in your car while you pray in front of Our Lord.

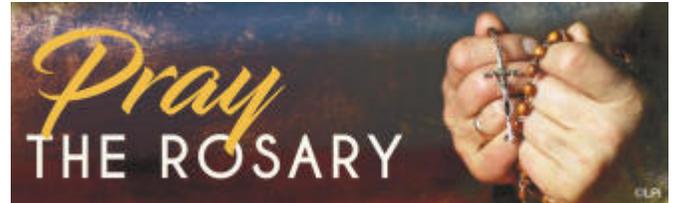

Thanksgiving & Christmas Dinners

Due to the Covid-19 virus, we currently can not accommodate the many requests to volunteer at either of these dinners. All meals will be "take out" only! Cookies, desserts, or fresh fruit would be appreciated. A date will be determined soon. Thank You!

Funeral Mass - Pre-planning

Over the last year, while meeting with families to plan the Funeral Liturgy of their loved ones, we have been asked if "pre-arrangements" can be made because people have specific requests for their own Funeral Mass. Some have indicated that they would like to plan their own funeral to save their family one step during a difficult time. Several people have already started this process. If you are interested in doing so, several documents (Readings and Music List) and a set of instructions (prepared by Father Sheridan) will be e-mailed to you and you may return them at your leisure. After all the readings, hymns/songs are chosen, a document will be prepared containing all of this information in an organized fashion, then signed by the person making the arrangements, the priest and the organist/director of music, then filed away until it is needed. For more information, please e-mail or call, Bobby Sullivan at musicatthebasilica@gmail.com or 330-454-8044 x 201.

Cemetery Hours

Sunday - Friday, 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM
Saturday, 8:00 AM to 12:00 Noon.

WINTER INFORMATION

If there is more than 2 1/2 inches of snow on the ground (this will be at the discretion of the Cemetery Sexton), St. John Cemetery and St. Peter Cemetery will be closed. It is very difficult to maneuver the roads when they are clear, much less covered with snow. Of course, we will accommodate burials during this time as needed. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, and we appreciate your understanding.

Prayer of St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

*Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.*

Communion Antiphons

The Communion Antiphon (or chant) was historically sung by a soloist, the choir, or the congregation during the Communion of the priest and the faithful in the Roman Mass. There is a refrain (Antiphon) repeated after each verse, ending with the Gloria Patri and a final Antiphon. In the Roman liturgy, this chant is called the Communion antiphon or simply the Communion. The practice of chanting a Psalm during the distribution of Communion is common to both Eastern and Western Liturgies.

In the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) it specifically indicates that the preference during the distribution of Holy Communion, is a Communion Antiphon. We will be using Communion Antiphons during the Advent Season.

Religious Education

It is easier for the sun to fail to give its light and its heat than for a Christian to cease to give light and warmth; it would be easier for light to be darkness. Do not say that the thing is impossible; what is impossible is the opposite ... if we order our conduct aright, everything else will follow as a natural consequence. The light of Christians cannot be hidden; a light that shines so brightly cannot be concealed.
