FORMING INTENTIONAL DISCIPLES

“God is the father who watches and waits for his children, runs out to meet them, embraces them, pleads with them, and begs and urges them to come home. It might sound strange, but God wants to find us as much, if not more, than we want to find God.” -Henry Nouwen. In this year of change for us, St. Malachi Parishioners, the quote from Henry Nouwen sounds refreshing. As parishioners, we may want to take some time to renew and deepen our personal relationship with God together. If so, please join us reading and reflecting on the book Forming Intentional Disciples, The Path to Knowing and Following Jesus by Sherry A. Weddell. To learn more about the series, join us THIS Sunday September 22, 10:15AM in Malachi Center. Besides reading and reflecting, we will be learning new forms of personal prayer during our sessions. If you cannot make it and are interested, please contact Janet Benoit, Jackie Krejcik, Jan Leitch or Therese Mullen. The second session of the series is between Sunday Masses on Oct. 13. Watch the bulletin for details.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS: TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Jesus' parable of the Unjust Steward, we encounter a financial manager who has wasted his master's wealth and faces dismissal from his position. To overcome the crisis confronting him, the steward reduces some very considerable debts owed by poor neighbors to his master in order to help them out. Though the steward has sinned against God and his master by squandering what belongs to someone else, both the prudent way in which he goes about resolving the crisis coupled with relieving people who are in need can be seen as a way to better steward the gifts entrusted to us by God. Although good stewards today acknowledge that they may never use their God-given gifts in a way that completely conforms to the demands of the Gospel, a commitment to using their gifts with prudence and for the purpose of helping their neighbors wins God's favor.

POPE FRANCIS QUOTE
