Gospel Reflection

Last weekend we began listening to Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which will continue until the first Sunday of Lent, February 26. We heard the familiar passage on the Beatitudes. This weekend Jesus continues with some strong words on the Law. He starts with a disclaimer: "...I have not come to abolish the law...but to fulfill." He then encourages his followers to be faithful to the law with such fervor that their "righteousness" would surpass that of the religious leaders. What a challenge! In this part of his sermon, Jesus covers many different aspects of the law: ...giving scandal, murder, divorce, adultery, taking false oaths...

His strong exhortation on fidelity to the law is interesting given his own mixed relationship with some parts of it. Remember how he angered the Pharisees when he healed people on the Sabbath? Or how he and his disciples were criticized because they didn't fast as often as the law prescribed.

Now ponder carefully what Jesus goes on to say about these particular precepts. In each case, Jesus offers a caveat, a "yes, but consider this."

Killing is against the law, but also harmful is being angry with your "brother." Jesus says, do something about that broken relationship before you come to "offer your gift at the altar."

Divorce is allowed as long as a man gives a simple "bill of divorce" to his wife, often leaving her without material support. Jesus takes exception to this law, perhaps because of its unjust treatment of women.

Adultery is wrong, but Jesus says, so is lusting after another in your heart.

Clearly, Jesus is asking his followers to look deeper into each mandate. To reflect on questionable motivations, behaviors, impact on others. Simply obeying the letter of the law is not enough. Conversion of heart must be a motivating force at work in everyone.

What can we 21st century Christians take away from this sermon preached so long ago, in such a different cultural and religious context? We need to hear it while also keeping Jesus' other words and actions in mind, remembering also that his strongest and most consistent message was about loving God and loving your neighbor. How? By caring for the least among us, for that is how we will be judged in the end. Matthew 25 makes it very clear:

"As long as you did it for the least of these, you did it for me..." Matt. 25

THE HOLY FACE OF JESUS NOVENA

Devotion to The Holy Face of Jesus started in 1844 with an apparition of Our Lord to a Carmelite nun. Following an investigation by the Church, Pope Leo XIII approved it in 1885. Since then, several Popes endorsed it.

The Holy Face of Jesus novena (to obtain special graces or make special petitions) is most often prayed during the nine days leading up to the Feast of the Holy Face on Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday. The novena begins this year on Sunday February 12.

Visit www.praymorenovenas.com for the novena. You can also find nine 6-minute videos to pray along with by searching for "Holy Face of Jesus Novena" at <https://www.youtube.com/>.

THANK YOU FOR COOKIE MINISTRY!

A big THANK YOU to St. Hilary's third grade students for helping with Cookie Ministry last Thursday during Catholic Schools Week. All three classes were able to join us and help pack and package almost 3,000 cookies. The students all brought in cookies and baggies and were eager to help. We later delivered all the cookies to St. Bernard's Lunch Program, the Peter Maurin Center, ACCESS and Haven of Rest. Everyone was so very pleased to receive the cookies. Thank you to Jeannie Hohlefeldler for coordinating this special service project and to the third grade teachers for their dedication to our students.

Please keep our Cookie Ministry program in mind, as we are always in need of cookies. Much appreciation to so many of you who bring baked or bought cookies each week to the Cookie Ministry cabinet near the office. A member of the Cookie Ministry picks up the cookies by noon on Sunday, takes them home to bag them and then delivers them to St. Bernard's Lunch Program and the Peter Maurin Center. Thank you all!
