Faith Formation

Gospel Reflection

The time is here.

The holy time when we are called to enter into the desert. When we are called to pray, to fast, and to give alms. What kind of Lent will it be for us this year? Events around the world and in our country could shape our response.

The time is here to pray.

To pray in solidarity with those who are grieving over the bodies of loved ones; loved ones lost to earthquakes, war, floods, hunger, disease, gun violence, police brutality, gang warfare, suicide. Let us pray daily, in the quiet of our room, in the comfort of the church, or during our daily tasks. In silence for once, allowing God to speak, cutting through the babble of our world.

The time is here to fast.

To fast in solidarity with those who know the daily pangs of hunger, who are forced to fast because there is no food. Let us also consider fasting from selfish pursuits, from judgmental words and actions, from hours spent on meaningless social media. May our fasting help transform ourselves and our own small corner of the world.

The time is here for giving alms.

To share what we have with those who have not, remembering that giving alms doesn't always have to be about money. Our almsgiving can also be the gift of our time. Perhaps now is the time to search out all the outreach programs in our city and in our parish and ask ourselves: where are we most needed now, offering our gift of time?

Like Jesus in today's gospel, who was tempted to abandon the ministry that lay before him, let us resist the voices that will whisper in our ears:

"You are too busy."

"You are not comfortable with visiting sick people."

"You don't need to pray every morning."

"You shouldn't get involved in social justice issues, like gun violence or racial disparities."

With Jesus, let us say to the voices - "Begone, Satan."

The time is here. May it find us ready.

Social Action

THANK YOU FROM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Last month we requested soup and paper goods for our monthly food drive. Winter is here and our soup shelf was empty. You responded and filled the shelf and also provided much needed paper products.

In addition, the school was having a Super Bowl contest with soup cans being the entry into the contest. They responded with 916 cans of soup for our pantry, enough for a full year's supply for clients. Many thanks to Judi Buzzi and her classroom students.

The continued support of our parishioners enables our members to assist the most needed in the Akron area.

WOMEN OF SERVICE EASTER BASKET PROJECT

Again this Easter, the Women of Service will be assembling Easter Baskets for the children being served by Catholic Worker and Project Rise, and are seeking donations from the parish community.

If you are unable to bring your donation to the church, please contact Mary Margaret Jakosh at 330-807-0953 to arrange to have your donation picked up. The last day donations will be accepted is Tuesday, March 21. Thank you for helping to enrich these children's lives!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL Food Collection—March 4 & 5

We would like to thank all the parishioners who donated food last month. We had asked for paper goods and soup and the outpouring of support was tremendous! Thank you all for your extreme generosity. May God bless you. We will be accepting donations at the masses on March 4 and 5. Look for the bins at the church entrances. This month the items we are most in need of are pasta sauce, cereal and canned tuna. Due to the generous gifts last month we DO NOT need soup or paper products. You have stocked us well on those items.

PETER MAURIN DONATION NEEDS

Once again, your generosity is so greatly appreciated by those who are receiving help each day from the Peter Maurin Center. Here is a listing of a few items that they are currently running low on: DEODORANT, RAZORS, AND WASHCLOTHS, HAND WARMERS. In addition, these are the items that always needed at the Center: toilet paper, bar soap, body wash, shampoo, toothbrushes, and toothpaste. THANK YOU again for your kindness and generosity. If you have any questions, please contact Denise Fresh (ddfresh1@msn.com).
