Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the scriptures

Apparently, even in Jesus' day there were people who were very concerned about their image ... folks who performed good works just to be seen, hogged places of honor and insisted on titles and honorifics. Today those people would hire image consultants!

The image consultant works with the politician or celebrity to create in the public eye an image of their client, a picture of how that client wants to be seen by others. Positive publicity translates into votes for the politician or media contracts for the entertainment celebrity. There is money to be made in the creation of an Image that is attractive to others.

How frightening it must be if one's public face differs significantly from the private reality! How worrisome to have to keep a true self hidden. But for some people the acclaim, adoration and approbation of others is necessary in order to feel loved, to feel worthy.

The antidote today's gospel offers to this soul-sickness is humility. Humility is our honest acceptance of ourselves as blessed but broken, lovely but limited. How much better to believe deeply that we are created and loved by God who knows the truth of us, who knows our imperfections and loves us anyway than to believe that we must be perfect to earn God's love.

There is such a thing as greatness, Jesus tells us in the gospel. But it is not greatness created by public acclaim, power, influence and connections. "The greatest among you must be your servant," he says. This is how we become truly great, by serving the needs of others, the needs of a suffering world.

As we embark upon choosing leaders for our country in the coming year let us bear this gospel in mind...and value service over image.

St. Hilary Parish Pastoral Council
October 24, 2023

Derek Mankin began his reflection by asking members of Parish Council to complete a survey on the Eucharist. The survey asked "Do you believe the Eucharist is the true Body and Blood of Christ"? The responses included never, often and always. Some council members stated during RCIA they learned of the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Others shared they learned this fact when their children were preparing to receive the sacrament. As cradle Catholics some of us felt like we always knew of Christ's presence in the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Miracles were very affirming for other members. Dereek shared that he is reading This is My Body by Bishop Barron, a wonderful resource on the Eucharist. Derek closed with A Short Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 PM by Scott Smith.

Present at the meeting were: Fr. Steve Brunovsky, Fr. Cameron Popik, Scott Smith, Vice-Chair; Barb Petruccio, Secretary; Don Allen, Trey Baker, Maureen Capellas, Joyce Davis, Paul Heil, Angela Hayek, Debby Kirkpatrick, Derek Mankin, Russell Mounts, Nicole Quester, Corey Treharn, and Michael Zorena.

Financial Report: Trey Baker reported financial information through September 2023. Our offertory is up $13,350 from this point last year which is a 3% increase.

As of September, the parish is operating at a surplus of $278,000. Currently, our expenses are down across the board from this time last year. The main surplus is still due to our tax return, which is being allocated towards our roofing projects.

Our church roof has been completed with the inspection currently in process. The school roof has begun and is currently progressing as well. It should be done and ready for inspection in the next couple of weeks, depending on weather.

Invoices were sent out to families with a due date of October 31st for SRO fee, with a balance owed of $190. We have received around 120 payments out of our 340 families so far, with only a few families asking for assistance with this fee.

Staff Report: Maureen Capellas reported on the following:

- New Member Meal – October 22 2023. Great response from new parishioners. 28 in attendance. Great fellowship!
- Welcome Desk – November 11/12, 2023
- Coffee and Donuts – November 12, 2023
- Ministry Organizational Chart Distributed
- "What Can We Do About It? -Ways to welcome new parishioners; shared reflections from a diocesan conference

Pastor's Report: Father Steve reported on the following:

Implementing the Five-Year Parish Plan:

- Religious Vocations
 - Michael Garvin -proposed ordination on May 18, 2024. Mass at 10:00 AM. Committee members include Karen Sears, Joyce Davis and Derek Mankin. Possible bus transportation for parishioners to the Cathedral. There will be an article about Michael in the parish newsletter. Also planning a reception after the 11:00 AM Mass on May 19, 2023.
 - James Parisi – proposed Diaconate on April 13, 2023. Mass at the cathedral at 10:00 AM.

- Marriage Vocations - Marriage enrichment – Part 2 – with Nicole Melchi scheduled for February 24, 2024
- Parish Mission - possibly Fall 2024; Possible speaker, "Trapper Jack" well-known radio host and inspirational speaker

Old Business:

- Classic Sabers – the kickoff event for this new ministry was a resounding success; almost 70 parishioners danced to the music of Larry Alltop and enjoyed dinner provided by two generous donors. Joyce Davis was this event's organizer flanked by a volunteer crew of Melanie and Tim Baker, Christa Alaburda, Denise Sefcik, Lori Pagani, Stephanie Moman, Angela Hayek, Susie Straits, Mary Margaret Jakosh, Sue Spaeth and Kathryn Herbert. Russ Sharnsky, Mayor of Fairlawn, made a proclamation that October 14, 2023 would be called St. Hilary Classic Sabers Day. Special thanks go to Angela Dubliikar, Joan Heegan and of course, Fr. Steve!

New Business:

- EdChoice Expansion – St. Hilary has chosen a hybrid approach to this program. All school families are encouraged to apply for the 2024 – 2025 school year. Scholarship amounts are linked to income, with even at the highest level results in a $650.00 scholarship. Applying also would free up additional scholarship money for middle income families since lower income families could have 100% of tuition paid.
- Parents Rock – first meeting of the year on Oct. 27; Maggie Craig speaking on "Living out your Faith as a Young Person".
- Blessings in a Backpack- Don Drumm ornament sales after Masses on December 2/3. 2023.

Announcements:

- Executive Committee meeting - Tuesday, November 14, 2023 at 8:30 am, via Zoom Meeting
- Parish Pastoral Council meeting - Tuesday, November 28, 2023 from 7:00 – 9:00pm, Spiritual Center Meeting Rooms #1, #2, #3
 - Nicole Quester to lead opening prayer

Parishioners are welcome to attend scheduled meetings by notifying the Council Chair or Fr. Steve two weeks prior to the meeting when the agenda is set. Parishioners may also submit questions, concerns, and/or suggestions to a commission representative or to the Parish Office, marked to the attention of Chair, Parish Pastoral Council.
