Gospel Reflection

My high school choral teacher, Sr. Paul, often said, "I'd rather wear out than rust out." As a teenager, I did not fully grasp her wisdom. Now that I am older than she was at the time, I think I understand.

The worthy wife in today's first reading must have believed the same thing. What with her spinning and knitting and caring for the poor she was in no danger of rusting out!

Which brings me to today's gospel. A master had three servants. He gave each of them a different amount of his money to take care of while he was away on a journey. In the scripture the word "talent" is used. Scripture scholars tell us that in Jesus' day a talent was equivalent to about one million dollars!

Upon his return from the journey the master questioned his servants about what they had done with what he had given them. Two of the servants put their talents to good use while the third fellow allowed his talent to languish and produce nothing. The response the master makes at accounting time gives us a clear picture of his expectation.

Today we use the word talent to mean skill or expertise or giftedness. Like the servants in the story, we have been given talents by God. And like the servants we don't all get the same amount nor do we all handle what we have been given in the same way. Those talents are supposed to be used and not merely for ourselves but for the kingdom of God. Remember the servants were not building personal wealth but working on behalf of their master.

I think Sr. Paul was right. We are supposed to wear out, not rust out by burying our talents and allowing them to go unused.

It might be helpful to pray about your own talents this week. What are the gifts, the skills and opportunities you have been given for building the kingdom of God? How are you using them?

St. Hilary's Giving Tree Begins this weekend!

The 42nd Annual St. Hilary Christmas Giving Tree are in place in the Gathering Area and in the back of the church. In addition to children, we also help the parents and seniors with gift cards for groceries and personal needs. Thank you for your continued support that assists many families and seniors that are experiencing difficulties this holiday season.

*Important Details: Please wrap your gifts and tape the tags securely on your gift. This is the only way we know where the gift is going! This is extremely important. Please do not tie two boxes together, as they may get separated. You can also write the number on the boxes as well. Please wrap all gift cards in a box, or tape the gift card on top of a box of candy or cookies and wrap it with your pink or purple tag taped on top. Every year, we have gift cards just laying under the trees. Please do not do this as they can get lost. Please write the amount of your gift card on the card so the seniors know how much they can spend. When you take your tags, please look at the school or agency on the right hand corner of the tag and make a note of it or take a picture of it. If you lose your tag, we can help if you have this information.

Please have all gifts in by NOON on DECEMBER 10. The schools begin picking up at 5 p.m. that evening.

If you have any questions or you lose your tags, please call Betty at 330-475-9587. We truly thank you for your support and making this year's Giving Tree a success!
