Most merciful Jesus,

I turn to You in my need.
You are worthy of my complete trust.
You are faithful in all things.
When my life is filled with confusion,
give me clarity and faith.
When I am tempted to despair, fill my soul with hope.

Most merciful Jesus,

I trust You in all things.
I trust in Your perfect plan for my life.
I trust You when I cannot comprehend Your divine Will.
I trust You when all feels lost.
Jesus, I trust You more than I trust myself.

Most merciful Jesus,

You are all-knowing.
Nothing is beyond Your sight.
You are all-loving.
Nothing in my life is beyond Your concern.
You are all-powerful.
Nothing is beyond Your grace.

Most merciful Jesus,

I trust in You,
I trust in You,
I trust in You.
May I trust You always and in all things.
May I daily surrender to Your Divine Mercy.
Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy,
Pray for us as we turn to you in our need.

Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the Scriptures

It has been over a week now since we walked with Jesus through his last days on earth. The pain and suffering, the feelings of desertion and abandonment which were so real then have receded in our memory as rejoicing and shouts of "Alleluia!" have taken their place. But today's gospel takes us back a bit, back to "the evening of the first day of the week." To the disciples gathered behind locked doors. And to their first encounter with Jesus since those awful days, those days when their own cowardice caused them to save themselves and run away. "Awkward" doesn't begin to describe what they must have been feeling!

I suggest that when Jesus appears in their midst he brings them three gifts. First, of course, he brings them peace. Twice he says "Peace be with you." Hearing those words of blessing must have felt like forgiveness for their colossal failure!

The second gift he gives them is his scars. No longer open wounds, the marks in his hands and feet and side give testimony to what was real, painfully real, but now healed. There is no cover-up, no pretense. No doubt that it happened just as they remember it. And they will all carry their own scars, less visible but still real, when they remember. For we are all shaped by what we experience, the good and the bad. And sometimes we learn more from our failures.

And then, as if to say, "That was then; this is now. Where do we go from here?," he gives them their mission: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

The reign of God has broken into the world. Sin and death have been overcome. Now it is up to these disciples...and us... to carry on the work he began.

Like those disciples we will not do the work perfectly. Sometimes we may run out of steam. And we will make mistakes. But like them we receive the same gifts: We will be forgiven and given peace. We will be allowed to make those mistakes and grow from them. And we will be given our share of the mission to help build the kingdom of God on earth.

Alleluia!

Pat Schnee

Help ensure the legacy of our Catholic Faith!

We are called to sacrifice. The St. Hilary Parish Foundation offers an easy way to help with this through its commitment to the long-term viability of St. Hilary Church and St. Hilary School. While the weekly offertory funds the basic operating expenses of the parish, the Foundation underwrites capital improvements and unforeseen expenses for the church and school, and supports programs and amenities that enrich the parish community. The greatest calling of the Foundation is that of ensuring the legacy of our Catholic faith. You can support this virtuous calling through your charitable giving to the Foundation in a donation of any amount. Getting started is as easy as 1, 2, 3! 1. Plan for a general donation to an unrestricted fund or a family-named fund, or specify your donation according to your passion among one of the Foundation's many fund areas. Contact St. Hilary Parish Foundation Development Director Diane Sarkis at 330-608-4787 or scan this code. 3. Be fulfilled knowing that you have helped to ensure the legacy of our Catholic faith!
