Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the Scriptures

I always enjoyed reading the columns of Irma Bombeck. She was a writer who could find humor in the ordinary events of life. Sometimes her observations were profound. I remember that once she wrote about the challenges of parenting with the phrase, "sacrifices for which love is the only excuse."

Think about it. Think about the long sleepless nights of young parents with a newborn in the house. Think of the interrupted sleep, the hours spent walking, humming, soothing the restless baby. Certainly that is behavior for which love is the only excuse.

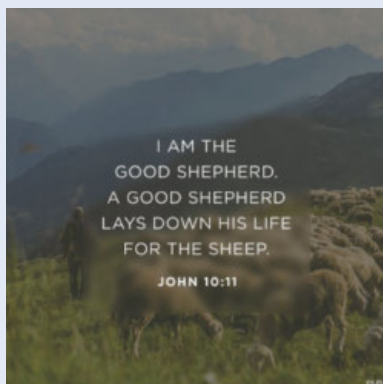

Think of the elderly husband who goes daily to visit his wife in the nursing home even though dementia has clouded her mind and she is only faintly able to recognize him as her husband. Faithfulness for which love is the only excuse.

Today's gospel contrasts the behavior of a good shepherd with a hired hand. The one who is working only for pay leaves the sheep on their own when the wolf comes. But the good shepherd stays at the risk of his own life. Courage for which love is the only excuse.

The good news is that Jesus, like a good shepherd, loves us, his flock, no matter what the cost. He reveals to us how we are loved by God. We are loved, immeasurably, unconditionally. Whether we are good sheep or bad sheep, obedient sheep or the wandering kind, God's love for us knows no bounds.

God offers us faithfulness and forgiveness for which love is the only excuse.

Pat Schnee

Caring & Participating

Volunteers needed for a planting event on Sunday, April 21!

The new St. Ketari Garden is going in at St. Hilary outside the Gathering Area window. The Creation Care ministry is hosting a planting event on April 21. Volunteers are needed to help pull plants and plant new ones for a Saint Kateri Habitat outside the main window of the Gathering Area April 21 from 1:30 PM to about 4 PM.

For more information, please contact Stephen McCarthy (mccarthink@gmail.com). Sign up to volunteer here: <https://shorturl.at/chW37>

Saint Kateri Habitats are living, sacred spaces that embody the harmonious coexistence of faith and ecological stewardship. They offer food, water, cover, and space for all creatures. These habitats are places of prayer and contemplation that rejuvenate faith while preserving the spiritual and material gifts of creation.

Congratulations!

St. Hilary School did an OUTSTANDING job supporting this year's Knights of Columbus Fish Bake Challenge! For the two nights, we had 152 students attend with their families.

This far surpassed last year's record of 95 students. Leading the school with the highest attendance was Kindergarten with 37; Grade 3 with 23; Grade 1 with 22; and Grade 2 with 20. The class with the highest attendance was once again Mrs. Haskin's Kindergarten class with 25 students! Thank you for the Knights of Columbus for everyone's support! God bless!

Attention All St. Hilary Parishioners!

As we begin this Easter season, this would be a great opportunity to become a member of the Safety Team Ministry. Work with like-minded parishioners who are here to protect our congregation, so that they may worship and praise our Lord in a safe and secure environment. If you can make quick decisions and react calmly to different types of emergencies, then WE NEED YOU! Other parishes in the Diocese are beginning to implement our format.

You have seen us in action at Mass; now become one of us. You will be trained and certified in CPR, First Aid & AED. You are already attending Mass, so help serve Our Lord by protecting His sheep. You can contact Mike Andy at mikeandyzips76@gmail.com or 330-554-7175; or call our Parish Secretary Joan Heegan at 330-867-1055 x200 for more information.
