Gospel Reflection

Have you ever been asked to do a job or perform a task that seemed beyond your skill set? Or one that you had not done before, stretching your gifts to the limit? Today's Scriptures are all about people being called, being chosen by God to do something challenging.

For Amos, the Old Testament figure, it meant being summoned from his work as shepherd and gardener to admonish the people of Israel for their unfaithfulness to God's covenant. (Amos had probably been pretty content with herding the sheep!) In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul makes clear that they have been chosen, showered with every spiritual blessing, to do the work of Christ in the world. So no excuses for not getting it done!

And Mark's gospel recounts how the 12 apostles are sent out, two by two, by Jesus to preach a message of repentance to all who would listen. Remarkably they are instructed to travel lightly...taking no food or money or extra clothes. They are to depend on the hospitality of strangers. Their mission? To preach the good news, to heal the sick and to drive out demons of every kind that afflicted many. Remember, there were no credit cards or cell phones to rescue them if they got in trouble!

Being called to do God's work is not for the faint of heart. It can take us into uncomfortable territory. It brings us face-to-face with cultures and challenges that are foreign to us. It sometimes calls us to speak truth to power, difficult as that might be. More importantly, for each of us, discovering the place God wants us to be is the challenge. God probably won't communicate with us as he did with Amos or as Jesus did with those disciples. Sometimes the call comes through a bulletin plea for help at a soup kitchen or nursing home. Sometimes a friend will invite us to help with a tutoring program in the inner city, or an advocacy effort on behalf of the formerly incarcerated, or....the issues are many.

Answering the call can be life-changing. Just ask Amos or Paul or those first disciples...or the every-day disciples who live among us, responding to God's call through the multitude of outreach and justice organizations here at St. Hilary's.

May today's Scriptures inspire each of us to reflect on how well we are discerning and responding to the demands of discipleship, wherever that may lead. If you don't know where to start, just read the bulletin!

Mary Lou Grossmann

Journey Together for Justice

The seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching are often called the best kept secret of our church. It's not that we Catholics don't do lots of things in terms of outreach and advocacy. It's just that we are not as familiar with what the American Bishops have had to say about our what our priorities should be when working for a just world. To that end, a newly re-forming "Journey Together for Justice" committee has sent out a survey based on the above seven principles. Its purpose is two-fold: to discover your understanding and interest in Catholic Social Teaching, and to invite a younger generation of Catholic Christians to get involved in doing God's work of justice in our world. For more information, please email Maureen Capellas at mcapellas@sthilarychurch.org.

To complete the survey, visit our website at:

OPEN M Laundry Detergent Collection July 20 & 21

They have a Free Medical and Dental Clinic. Volunteers with medical and dental backgrounds are needed. Volunteers are also needed for the food pantry and other areas at Open M. Every month on the third weekend (July 20 and 21), laundry detergent (which cannot be bought with food stamps) is collected at St. Hilary for OPEN M. We are the only church that collects this much-needed product for the clients of OPEN M. Please be generous and help out by donating a bottle or pods of laundry detergent.

St. Hilary Safety Team

St. Hilary's Safety Team is currently looking to increase our ranks as we are running out of volunteers to cover all weekend Masses. You do not need to be hands on or even be trained if you choose not to. We simply would like those who are willing to join us to be aware of their surroundings, make a phone call, direct help, or retrieve a First Aid bag. If interested or if you have any questions, please contact Joan Heegan at 330-867-1055, ext. 200 or jheegan@sthilarychurch.org; or Knute Galbraith at 330-472-3577 or kwg270@gmail.com. Items may be placed in the pack and plays in the front entrance and Spiritual Center. This is a service project organized by Katie Mostoller toward her Girl Scout Gold Award. Please call Katie with any questions at 330-634-4456.

Donate your Sports Equipment!

Not sure what to do with outgrown or unwanted sports items? Fully Equipped is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization based in Akron, Ohio. They partner with underfunded local schools to better equip young men and women for success in classrooms, extra curricular activities and life. High School and Elementary student athletes participation is often hindered in many lower income communities due to inadequate resources, lack of funding and disbelief in the value of sports. The current needs include new or clean, gently used athletic gear (shorts, tshirts, cleats, shoes, sock, etc.) and monetary donations for equipment (wrestling mat, weight room equipment, etc.). Please place donations in the bin in the Donation Hallway in the Spiritual Center. Any questions, please contact: Pam—330-323-4865; Mark—330-323-8449
