And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

Gospel Reflection

Isaiah 35:4-7a James 2:1-5 Mark 7:31-37

While the biblical prophets are each great advocates for God's will, in their own ways; God must be particularly proud of the ministry of Isaiah, and all who were a part of that work. Not only is the Book of Isaiah frequently featured in our "First Readings" at the Sunday Liturgies, but it is often referenced directly or indirectly in the Gospel Readings for those Sundays. We see that again today.

While the Book of Isaiah is very concerned with justice for the poor and the oppressed, it is also, in specific places, a harbinger of hope. Today's reading, from Isaiah 35:4-7a, is such a passage. It is written at a time when the Hebrew people are ruled with an iron hand by the Assyrian empire; then the most powerful nation in the world and the ruler over many other nations.

This theme of hope is carried forth in today's gospel passage from Mark. It is, of course, no accident that both readings focus on giving sight to the blind and hearing to the deaf. These references are meant, not only for their literal significance, but for their symbolic meaning as well. Symbolically, we all have our blind spots, don't we? We sometimes have a tendency to pay no attention to a message that is meant for our hearing.

I suggest that there is a great paradox in the readings for today. First, there is a message of hope: No matter what may happen in our world, we can feel safe, knowing that God's message will prevail. However, there is also a message to challenge us: To what extent are we the cause of our own blindness and/or deafness? In other words: are we refusing to see what God would have us do with our lives? Are we refusing to hear the call of the poor, the oppressed, the ones who are fleeing from persecution or other dangers?

I believe that God loves us, ALL OF US, so much that God expects us to love all of creation. That presents me with challenges to my own behavior that I cannot ignore. On one hand, I am hopeful, even when some are trying to fill me with fear and hatred and loathing. On the other hand, I know I have a lot of growing to do, in order to make this world a better place.

For each one of us: with great giftedness comes great hope for the future AND great responsibility to offer hope to those who's hope is endangered or failing.

Men's Group Meeting Saturday, Sept. 14

Many of us experience resentment of some kind in life. Many times a resentment is from a grievance caused by a personal slight, a misunderstanding, or unfulfilled expectations. Society as a whole also incurs injuries that we must deal with. How difficult is it for us to forgive the terror attacks on Sept 11th? What about other offenses such as racism? How willing are we to forgive these events? Join us in a discussion about "To Forgive Offenses Willingly" at our next Men's Group Meeting on Saturday, September 14th, 7AM.

Your IRA can help you, our parish & school!

If you are 70½ or older, you may be able to make a gift of a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA that will reduce your taxable income and help the St. Hilary Parish Foundation support our parish and school. Talk to your financial / legal advisors and IRA administrator for more information. Questions? Contact Diane Sarkis, St. Hilary Parish Foundation Executive Director, at 330-608-4787.

In this video, Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief study of Luke 1:26-38, highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's Yes in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.

Why Exodus is a Compelling Story for Jews, Jesus, and our Current Day!

Discover its Timeless Message and Relevance!

In some ways, Exodus is a template for every age for how to surrender to our God of power and love who desires intimacy with his people and wants to see their full thriving. Even a close reading of the New Testament reveals the patterns of this amazing story in the life of Jesus who brings about a "new Exodus" and ushers in at last the kingdom of God. We can learn from the mistakes of our ancestors and the success of Jesus in overcoming enemies who want to oppress us and keep us from God, to making our way through troubled waters, scorching spiritual deserts, hungering for food that really lasts, and finally finding a home of permanent peace and tranquil rest. If you share some of these goals, join us for this worthwhile study!

After 30 years away from the Church, it was Blessed Mother Mary who brought blind radio host, Trapper Jack, back.

A series of miraculous encounters re-ignited his faith and now fuel his inspirational talks.

Since departing secular radio, Trapper has used his microphone to share his faith through uplifting presentations, the Touched by Heaven podcast, and Men's Morning Light on YouTube.
