They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of

Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the scriptures

My grandson is engaged to be married next month. As I am the mother of the mother of the groom, I doubt that I will be asked my opinion of anything!

Things are different today than they were fifty-nine years ago when Bill and I walked down the aisle at Saint Vincent's after exchanging our wedding vows. These young people are older than we were and established in their careers... one in cyber security and the other in biomedical research. And they are better situated financially than we were. Looking back with today's eyes, I see us as very young and inexperienced in the ways of the world.

But those fifty-nine years have taught us something... many things. And if my grandson and his fiancé were to ask for advice, I hope I would remember the wisdom given in today's scriptures.

The gospel begins with a discussion initiated by the Pharisees about the law governing marriage. It continues with the disciples also questioning Jesus about the law. But it concludes with Jesus holding up a child as an example, as if to say, Look, it's not primarily about the law. It's about the kingdom of God.

"Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it. "

And what is central to the kingdom of God is the belief that if you want to save your life you must lose it,... that, paradoxically, fuller life is the result of dying to self. Certainly, all Christian living requires sacrifice. But I would be hard-pressed to find another example self-sacrificing love as obvious as the love required in marriage... the kind that causes "two to become one," as in today's first reading.

Of course there are many joys in married life. And not every marriage is able to endure until death. None of us has the right to judge those who have lived with the pain of a failed marriage. But, I understand, that in the early church a bride and groom were given a martyr's crown... a martyr's crown! ... at their wedding to signify the challenges required by married life. That is a bit of wisdom I think I will keep to myself. The challenges of becoming one is something Brandon and Valerie will discover for themselves. In the meantime, those of us "in the trenches," so to speak, can give witness by our lives. It's not easy... no Christian living is.. But with God's grace, it is possible.

Men's Group Meeting Saturday, October 12

The strongest and most vibrant relationships are those sustained by good, healthy habits. We know too, that the most meaningful relationships develop over time, even if they had begun all at once through unexpected encounters and random circumstances. For some reason, we seem to forget this when it comes to our spiritual lives. We heap upon ourselves all sorts of spiritual practices and rigorous disciplines and perhaps you have felt even crushed by all these self-imposed burdens to please God. But, what is most important in our relationship with God? Join us in a discussion about "Getting to Know God" at our next Men's Group Meeting on Saturday, October 12 starting with Mass at 7 a.m.

Join the conversation! The Lyceum presents God's Grandeur

Join Dr. Logan Gage, Fr. Martin Hilbert, Dr. John West, Dr. Brian Miller, and Mr. Randy Malick as C.S. St. Vincent DePaul Food Collection October 5 & 6

First, thank you for the increase in food donations that help us serve those in need. The need for help is almost overwhelming these days and we visited 22 families one weekend and 23 on another weekend in September. We take a bag of frozen meat which is obtained from the Akron Canton Foodbank and another bag of staples on each visit. Needless to say, we have been going through lots of groceries. We are asking our generous parishioner to consider stepping up their food and monetary donations to assist us helping the needy in Summit County. Our greatest needs for the coming month are cereal, peanut butter, canned vegetables and fruit, dry mashed potatoes, rice and cookies for treats for the children. Please check the expiration dates on all items since we dispose of anything that is expired. If you have any questions about the St. Vincent DePaul Society or would like to experience one our weekly meeting please call me. Thank you as always. Tom Peltier, President 330 690-7621

Introduction to the letter: In the Catholic Tradition of responsible citizenship, we are morally obligated to participate in political life and to make choices based on a properly formed conscience, voting for the candidates who best support the moral teachings of our Catholic faith. As you prepare to cast your ballot for the upcoming November election, I ask that you pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit and educate yourself on the candidates' positions on the critical issues that will affect us all, both now and in the future.
