Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the scriptures

If there is one lesson aging has taught me, it is that every yes contains a no. If I say yes to a volunteer opportunity that excites me, I will have to say no to some other things because I will not have enough time or stamina. If I say yes to a single big purchase, I will have to look for places in the budget I can cut back a little.

We are finite beings. None of us has unlimited time, energy, financial resources. Anyone who has been faithful to a diet or exercise regimen realizes that some no's are required to attain a more highly prioritized yes.

The most difficult choices we have occur when we are faced with two options, both of which are good. That is the dilemma facing the young man who approaches Jesus in today's gospel. Apparently, he is a fine young man committed to his spiritual growth. He says that he has conscientiously obeyed the commandments "from his youth." Now he is looking for something more than living a good life. His focus is eternal life.

His seeking must have been truly genuine, given the response Jesus makes. "Jesus, looking at him, loved him." The choice Jesus offers the young man is, "Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

There is nothing intrinsically wrong with possessions, the young man's or ours. But faced with the choice of letting them go in order to follow Jesus or holding onto them, the young man chose possessions. The gospel says, "He went away sad for he had many possessions." He could not give a yes to Jesus if it would include a no to his material goods.

I feel pretty sure that everyone reading this reflection wants to give a yes to following Jesus. What, if anything, would that require saying no to? Does a life of discipleship require more time given to justice and charitable works? Maybe following Jesus more clearly would mean becoming more attentive to the needs of those around us than to our own needs. Maybe more time spent in quiet prayer or meditation instead of with television or social media would make us better disciples. Some of us may be fortunate enough to find ourselves in the position of the rich young man, "burdened" with "many possessions". (And, remember, scripture says that two coats is one too many!)

It might be profitable for each of us to sit with this gospel this week and ask Jesus if there is anything to which we are called to say no in order to give him a fuller yes.

Bishop Malesic has distributed a letter to remind parishioners of your obligation to participate in our democracy while allowing our Catholic faith to be their guide. To read in the letter, visit our website: sthilarychurch.org/election.

Introduction to the letter: In the Catholic Tradition of responsible citizenship, we are morally obligated to participate in political life and to make choices based on a properly formed conscience, voting for the candidates who best support the moral teachings of our Catholic faith. As you prepare to cast your ballot for the upcoming November election, I ask that you pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit and educate yourself on the candidates' positions on the critical issues that will affect us all, both now and in the future.

St. Hilary Parish Pastoral Council
September 24, 2024

Scott Smith led the opening reflection. Scott asked what does it mean for us to follow the will of the Lord? Rejoicing in the good things that happen and looking at things from a fresh perspective. Trying to enjoy the day as it is rather than wondering what could be better. Being content with what we have instead of looking for the next best thing. Scott is reading the book, Emotionally Healthy Spirituality by Peter Scazzero and one of the questions included: What is your wall? And once it is identified, can you break through the wall? Something for all of us to reflect upon.

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 PM by Scott Smith.

Present at the meeting were: Fr. Steve Brunovsky, Fr. Cameron Popik, Scott Smith: Chair; Cory Treham; Vice Chair, Barb Petruccio; Secretary, Don Allen, Trey Baker, Maureen Capellas, Joyce Davis, Angela Hayek, Paul Heil, Derek Mankin and Michael Zorena.

Financial Report:

As of the end of August, offertory is behind our 2023 numbers by 14k. In general, we are seeing less in donations but there were a few parishioners who donated more during a six-month period leading up to August 2023 that make up part of the difference. For the month of September, we are currently ahead by about $7,500 for the month compared to last year.

The current deficit for the year is at $291,000. There are a few contributing factors:

- We have collected $50k less in tuition compared to the end of August last year. This is due to families waiting on EdChoice approvals. This was anticipated, and we should get back to profitable margins once the EdChoice dollars are brought in to St. Hilary.
- Angel Scholarship – The amount of funds available for distribution this year means that families are also paying less per month than last year. We should receive these funds from the CCF in October or November.
- Three pay periods in August. This has also contributed to the higher costs at the beginning of the fiscal year.

Staff Report: Maureen Capellas reported on the following:

- New Member Meal – October 20, 2024. Great opportunity to be welcomed by the parish. If you are a new parishioner, please call Maureen to be included.
- Welcome Desk – October 12/13, 2024
- Stewardship Renewal – October 12/13, 2024; focus on small faith sharing groups
- Donut Sunday -October 13, 2024
- Faith and Food Truck/Ministry –Very successful; Possibility of trying something new for next year

Pastor's Report: Father Steve reported on the following:

Upcoming events:

- Five Year Plan – focus for the year;
 - Marriage Vocation: Evening with Nicole Melchi will be Saturday, February 1, 2025: Putting God Into Your Marriage

- Parents Rock: October 4, 2024, 6:30 PM, Fr. Eric Garris; December 2024 – Family Life

- Classic Sabers –membership growing; one year celebration October 12, 2024
- Continue to use the Parish Vision Plan to determine areas of growth
