Parish Business Office Update

Please note a change in our parish business office. Trey Baker has resigned from his position as Business Manager, so please communicate with our Accounting Assistant Lisa Luby at 330-867-1055 x201 or at lluby@sthilarychurch.org for the foreseeable future.

Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the Scriptures

They say the pessimist is one who sees the glass half empty, and the optimist is one who sees the glass half full. I suggest that the Christian is one who sees the glass as constantly being refilled. And that constant infusion of the Divine in our lives is the cause of our joy on this Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent.

Jesus came two thousand years ago, will come again and remains with us. "The Lord is near," says Paul in the second reading. And so, in spite of the potentially anxiety-causing state of affairs in the world, we can still "Rejoice!"

The presence of God can be seen all around us in big and little ways if we have eyes to see.

My Facebook page and neighborhood website reveals again and again people caring for one another. Giving Tree tags are hung, then swooped up and replaced by bright gifts at the bottom of the tree.

On a larger scale we see immigration lawyers shepherding immigrants through our costly and time-consuming labyrinth of an immigration system. We see dedicated individuals working to exonerate prisoners unjustly incarcerated. Men and women in uniforms of all kinds spend their lives in harm's way to keep us safe. Civic leaders stay committed to dialogue over thorny issues for the greater good.

In today's gospel the crowds ask John the Baptist, "What should we do?" The answers he gives are not earthshaking, but simple, doable actions that embody kindness, justice and generosity. And reveal the presence of God. Acting as the hands of Jesus now in time and space, we help keep the glass refilling. And that inevitably leads to joy!

Pope Francis says, "We are all born to help each other. No matter how difficult it is... Life is good when you are happy; but much better when others are happy because of you. "

"What should I do?" Make that your prayer this week. Then follow through and rejoice in the presence of "God with us", Emmanuel!

The Challenge & Spirituality of Catholic Social Teaching Book Study

Did you know that we, as Catholics, are called to put the poor and vulnerable first, to protect the dignity of workers, and to care for our planet? Many of us are familiar with Catholic teaching on human life, but that is not where our responsibilities end. Catholic social teaching provides a framework for building a just society and living a life of holiness in the modern world. Catholic social teaching is centered around seven principles:

- Life and dignity of the human person;
- Call to family, community, and participation
- Rights and responsibilities
- Option for the poor and vulnerable
- The dignity of work and the rights of workers
- Solidarity
- Care for God's creation

Please join us for a book study of The Challenge and Spirituality of Catholic Social Teaching by Marvin L. Krier Mich on Wednesdays from 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM starting January 22, 2025.

If you have questions or to register, please contact Maureen Capellas at 330-867-1055, extension 217, or mcapellas@sthilarychurch.org.

Lenten Prayer Flight

"Come away by yourself" (Mark 6:31) to experience 4 different prayer experiences:

- Lectio Divina. Praying Scripture using our senses and imagination.
- Praying with Thomas Merton's Zen Photography.
- Praying with St. Ignatius of Loyola.

These one-hour sessions will be facilitated by parishioner and Spiritual Director, Suzanne Hoinski, who was an Ignatian educator for 26 years. Sessions will be held in the Sacred Heart Library on Thursdays, March 6, 13, 20 and 27; from 6:30 to 7:30 pm. Please bring your Bible (or Catholic New American Bible App on your phone), journal and pencil. Suggested offering for the 4 sessions is $20. Registration and payments can be made in the Parish Office through Joan Heegan, Parish Secretary. For more information, please call 330-867-1055, ext. 200.

St. Hilary Giving Tree Gifts due THIS Sunday!

The 43rd Annual St. Hilary Christmas Giving Tree wraps up this Sunday, December 15!

Please wrap your gifts and tape the tag SECURELY on your gift...this is the only way we know where the gift will go. This is extremely important! If you have more than one gift for one tag, please place the gifts in a bag (like a kitchen trash bag). Do not tie together as they often get separated. You can also write the number of the tag on each of your boxes. Please also wrap all GIFT CARDS in a box. You can tape the gift card on top of a box of candy or cookies, and wrap it with your tag on top of the box. Please write the amount of your gift card on the card so your senior knows how much they can spend.

Please have all gifts back under the trees by NOON ON DECEMBER 15. The schools begin picking up at 5 p.m. If you have questions, or you do lose your tag, please call Betty at 330-475-9587. We truly thank you for all your help with making this year's Giving Tree a success! We are here to help so many children, families, and seniors that are living in poverty.

Why Exodus is a Compelling Story for Jews, Jesus and Our Current Day!

In some ways, Exodus is a template for every age for how to surrender to our God of power and love who desires intimacy with his people and wants to see their full thriving. Even the New Testament reveals the patterns of this amazing story in the life of Jesus who brings about a "new Exodus" and ushers in at last the kingdom of God. Learn from the mistakes of our ancestors and the success of Jesus in overcoming enemies who want to oppress and keep us from God, to make our way through troubled waters, scorching spiritual deserts, and finally finding a home of permanent peace and tranquil rest. Thurs Jan 2-Mar 27, 9:00-11:00 am OR Mon Jan 6-Apr 7, 6:30-8:30 pm. Join us for this "no cost" course by emailing rmalick@sthilarychurch.org by December 20!

St. Hilary School Closes for Break

Divorce Recovery Support Group

The Diocese of Cleveland will be offering a 9-week Divorce Recovery Support Group to be held at St. Hilary Parish. The group will meet Thursdays, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm, from January 16 through March 13, 2025. These sessions will be facilitated by Marlene Maruna, retired Social Worker. The group will be limited to 10-12 participants with the focus on dealing with the complex feelings that accompany a divorce to help group members feel less isolated, and to find coping strategies throughout and after the divorce process. For initial inquiries, please contact Joan Heegan, Parish Secretary at 330-867-1055 Ext. 200.
