Gospel Reflection

Today's gospel story takes place in Cana at a wedding feast. It is the occasion of the first of the seven "signs" (miracles) in John's gospel. Looking at this gospel now as the mother of adult children, I am intrigued by the conversation between Mary and Jesus.

There comes a time when you can no longer tell your children what to do! Jesus has arrived at that time. And so Mary simply says "They have no wine." She hasn't asked him to do anything, but he clearly feels she has made a request because his response is "How does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." In today's vernacular that would be something like, "And that concerns me... How?"

But Mary does not engage in any debate about whether this is the time for Jesus to act or not. She simply turns to the servers and says "Do whatever he tells you." I see that as her way of saying to Jesus, "No, Son, I think your hour has come."

I wonder what Mary saw, as she gently nudged him out of the nest and into a more public life from which there is no turning back. What did she feel?

She has heard him preach; he has already gathered some disciples. She certainly knows that his message will put him in danger with both Temple and State. And yet... she gives him to the task and to the future...and to us his followers.

It takes courage to bring a child into this broken world. And it takes courage to send your child out into the world, knowing its challenges, its pitfalls, its pain, as well as its joys. Even more so, for this child of hers.

But into this world she sends him by her words to the servers. They are the last words that scripture gives us from Mary, "Do whatever he tells you."

These simple words echo through time to us, modern day servers of her son. It is what she asks of us in his memory, to build the world he envisioned, to make it as real on earth as it is in heaven. It is her request of us and it is our mandate.

Do whatever he tells you.

Pat Schnee

St. Hilary Giving Tree—THANK YOU!

Dr. Nugent, the principal of St. Mary's school was the first to send thanks for the gifts for the families of St. Mary. She wrote on December 17, "Please accept my sincerest thanks for continuing to include families from St. Mary School. Our families express their heartfelt thanks. These thoughtful gifts will bring immeasurable delight to our students and their families, creating cherished memories that will last a lifetime. Your kindness serves as a reminder that, even in challenging times, the human spirit has the power to bring warmth and happiness to those that need it most. Your continued generosity has created a sense of togetherness within our school. On behalf of everyone who benefited from your hard work and charitable spirit, I extend our deepest gratitude. May God Bless you for your thoughtfulness and charity. Sincerely, Dr. Nugent

This is a thank you from the Catholic Workers of Akron who help many homeless families: Dear Christmas Angels, The gifts received from you were wrapped not only with paper, gift bags, ribbons but most importantly with Love. The families could not believe how each of their children not only received to us but also clothing! The parents were grateful and thankful for the personal hygiene items and gift cards. Most of the families receiving gifts have one or two parents working but struggle with rent, utilities and food. The beautiful gifts that the children received wouldn't have happened without you. Thank you for your generosity in sharing and bringing joy and kindness to those who have little and so grateful for all received. As Dorothy Day stated: "An act of love, voluntary taking on oneself of the pain of the world, increases the Courage, and Love and Hope of All! Love and Prayers, Sister Juliana Beck, Catholic Workers of Akron.

Designate your contribution for Tax Year 2024 or 2025!

The Angel Scholarship is the key to filling gaps after EdChoice awards and keeping tuition affordable for every student. Tell your family and friends! Help us reach this year's goal to raise $250,000 in Angel Scholarship funds and make a difference for our school and parish community without paying an extra penny from your own pocket! Still not familiar with how the Angel Scholarship works? In the most straightforward terms, you just redirect Ohio income tax dollars you already owe for the benefit of our students and receive a tax credit for doing so! You can even set up your tax dollars to be redirected in a lump sum or in monthly installments! It's that simple! Scan the QR code to learn how you can turn your taxes into tuition! Just make sure you designate your contribution to benefit the students of St. Hilary School! Angel Scholarship funds help to keep tuition affordable for families while reducing the amount of tuition assistance coming from St. Hilary coffers, so those monies can be directed to other needs. Thank you for your support!
