Gospel Reflection

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 Luke 5:1-11

Lately I have been thinking about what it must have been like to get to know Jesus in person “in the flesh”, like his first disciples did. That brings to mind a story from my past, decades ago.

His name was Stephen, but he introduced himself as Steve. I met him in 1973, in Montgomery, Alabama, at Maxwell Air Force Base, where I was a Sergeant, working as a Chaplains’ Assistant. Steve, also a Sergeant, came to Maxwell on what was called a Temporary Duty Assignment. That meant he would only be with us for a few months, but he made a lasting impression on me.

There was something “special” about Steve. He had a great personality—very welcoming and comfortable to be around - with a wonderful sense of humor and a demeanor that instantly put others at ease (no pun intended). He was very intelligent, but was probably known more for his kindness than for any of his other positive attributes. And there was one other very important quality about Steve. He was a Christian. He lived his faith every day, with a joy that could only have come from the Lord. You could see this, not only in the way he behaved and the choices he made; but in the way his face lit up when he met you on the sidewalk or saw you in the mess hall.

Soon my friends and I were inviting Steve to join us in various off duty activities like meals, sports activities, and watching movies. Several of us who had known each other for many months marveled at how much we enjoyed his company. We all looked up to him, and could see that he was a person of integrity - a natural leader. And we would have followed him anywhere. After those few short months, when we had to say goodbye to him, it was as if we were parting company with a life-long friend.

Years later, as I reflected on our time with Steve, I realized that he was one of the most genuinely Christ-like people I had (and have) ever met. Subconsciously, I think I have tried to emulate his behavior over the years. He has been a significant Christ-bearer in my life.

I’ll bet you have crossed paths with someone like Steve; who seems so Christ-like in a warm, loving, compassionate way, that you thoroughly enjoy being with them. Hold on to that friendship if you can. Let them help you grow in your own ability to emulate Christ. Remember, life is about relationships - relationships are where we most often find our ever-loving God.

Catholic Faith Languages: Growing Missionary Disciples Tuesday, February 11

Most Catholics know exactly where their seat is in church. They are typically less aware of where they’re sitting within the Catholic Church’s potpourri of spiritualities. As with the popular The Five Love Languages (Dr. Gary Chapman) appreciating Fr. Estok’s Catholic Faith Languages can be very helpful in deepening one’s relationship of faith with Jesus Christ in the Catholic Church and a powerful tool for sharing one’s Catholic faith in the world. With the help of the CFL Discerner, Fr. Estok’s engaging presentation will offer participants an expanded vision of Church community and a fascinating path to sharing one’s Catholic Faith in the world today.

When: Tuesday, February 11, 7-8 p.m.

Where: St. Vincent de Paul Family Center, 164 West Market Street, Akron

All are welcome and invited! Registration is required. Please RSVP ASAP at ellen@stvincentchurch.com or 330-535-3135 x 100. Check the website at www.stvincentchurch.com.

On Thursday, February 13, from 7-8:30pm in the Gathering Area, the St. Hilary Knights of Columbus is sponsoring the presentation: "A Teaching Developed: Catholicism and the Death Penalty." The speaker will be parishioner Bernard A. Smith, a retired career federal prosecutor and a former member of the Board of Directors of Ohioans to Stop Executions. The subject is timely because a bill to abolish Ohio's death penalty is being introduced in the 136th Ohio General Assembly. The presentation will cover the Catholic experience of capital punishment from the Roman persecutions through the most recent amendment to the Roman Catholic Catechism and encyclical language on the subject by Pope Francis. Q & A session will follow.

Donor backing is vital to continue to make the Foundation a viable entity and enable it to fund Parish and School needs well into the future. There are funds earmarked for many specific areas you may be passionate about, and no donation is too small! St. Hilary Parish Pastoral Council
January 27, 2025

Angela Hayek led the opening prayer and reflection. Angela based her reflection on the video, Presence: the Mystery of the Eucharist, on Formed.org. Angela began with the Prayer, The Imitation of Christ and then shared her thoughts and asking what does the Eucharist mean to us? God wants to be with us through His Body and Blood. This is God's way of feeding us! God desires us – we need to desire God! Angela concluded with some readings from The Real Presence by Timothy O'Malley.

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 PM by Scott Smith

Present at the meeting were: Fr. Steve Brunovsky, Fr. Cameron Popik, Chair Scott Smith, Co-Chair Cory Treharn, Secretary Barb Petruccio, Don Allen, Joyce Davis, Angela Hayek, Paul Heil, Debby Kirkpatrick, Derek Mankin, Russell Mounts, Nicole Quester, and Michael Zorena.

Financial Report:

Offertory is ahead of last year by a little over $37,000 as of January 31st. We are grateful for our parishioners' generosity, especially during the Christmas Season! Finance Council in December approved new tuition rates for the 2005 – 2006 school year. Rate increases take into account the bundling of fees as well as a desire to take advantage of the entire Ed Choice amount per student being given by the State of Ohio. Details are available on the School Website.

Angel Scholarship donations can still be made until April 15th for the 2024 Tax Year. Donations to St Hilary School will be credited to your Ohio tax burden, up to $750 for individual and $1,500 for married couples filing jointly. This is a win win for all as the donation reduces your taxes, while then being available as a scholarship for St Hilary Students!
