Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the Scriptures

Again today our parish will hear two sets of readings. If you attend the Mass where our Elect who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil celebrate the Second Scrutiny, you will hear the gospel from John about the man born blind. Other mass-goers will hear from Luke's gospel, the very familiar story of the prodigal son.

Each gospel gives us a fascinating cast of characters. Today, let us look at the older son in Luke and the Pharisees in John. Though different in many ways, they share a common characteristic: in these two gospels these characters get their noses out of joint!

In Luke's gospel the older son tells his father, "What the heck! I've been the good son, helping you all along while kid brother goes off on a bender. Then he's the one who gets the party!"

In the gospel of John, the Pharisees are very upset with Jesus... not because he cured the man but because he broke the rule. "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath."

Please note, these are good people. The older son has been a wonderful, dutiful son. And the Pharisees, by and large, were good observant Jews. They are not bad people. They are just shortsighted. They do not see what the father sees when he looks at his prodigal boy and they don't see what Jesus sees when he sees a man suffering. They do not see what God sees because God sees with love and mercy and compassion. We are all good people. But we say, "Those people should come into our country the right way"...though the "right way" is broken, unbelievably long and burdensomely expensive.

We are all good people. Yet we say about our achievements, "If I can do it, anybody can"... without crediting the advantages we may have because of the color of our skin, the family we were born into, or the education we were given.

Yes, we are all good people...just shortsighted. Our limited vision causes a couple of problems. First, we re-create God in our image. Instead of seeing each other with the kind of love and mercy and compassion with which God sees us, we shrink God down to the size of our own rules and expectations. Secondly, we can delude ourselves into thinking that our own rule-keeping, good people that we are, is what causes God to love us, that we need to earn that love by good behavior...when, in fact, our good behavior is our grateful response to the knowledge that we have already been loved.

We are all good people. May we use this Lent to try to see each other as God sees us... and become better people.

Pat Schnee

Holy Spirit Prayer Group Tuesday, April 15

On Tuesday, April 15 at 7:00 PM in the church, please join Dr. Ed Parisi as he presents his talk on The Crucifixion of Our Lord Jesus Christ as Seen Through the Eyes of a Physician. This presentation is an excellent lead-in to Holy Week as we contemplate the death and resurrection of our Lord. Dr. Ed's talk is supported by Holy Spirit Prayer Group.

My Dear Parishioners!

It is with great joy that I am announcing to you that Bishop Edward Malesic has officially called the eight Transitional Deacons of our Diocese to the Order of Priest! This means that our very own parishioner Deacon James Parisi, and also Deacon Jon Hawkins who has served among us this past year, and also Deacon Chris Cotone who served here as a Seminarian Intern two years ago, will be Ordained to the Priesthood at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 17 at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in Cleveland!

As a part of the parish responsibility outlined in Canon Law, the pastor must publish Banns announcing these ordinations and request the input of the congregation one last time prior to ordination. This is especially true for Deacon James Parisi as he is a son of our parish, and also Deacon Jon Hawkins as he has served here this past year. If therefore you would like to comment on the suitability for Orders of either James or Jon, please feel free to indicate so either to Bishop Malesic directly or to me. I continue to ask for your prayers for James, Jon, and Chris and their classmates and they enter their proximate preparation for Holy Orders!

By way of announcement, the new Father James Parisi will be celebrating his Mass of Thanksgiving here at St Hilary on Sunday, May 18 at 2:00 p.m. (5:30 p.m. Mass is cancelled) with a reception following. The new Father Chris Cotone will celebrate Mass here on Saturday, May 31 at 4:00 p.m.; and the new Father Jon Hawkins will celebrate Mass here on Sunday, June 1 at 9:00 a.m.!!!

Blessings!

Fr. Steve Brunovsky

Women of Service From Lent to Easter Project

The Women of Service are excited to announce their Spring Service Project: Catholic Workers Happy Easter and Project Pillowcase! We are working with Catholic Workers of Akron to help provide Easter Baskets and pillowcases for families in Akron. We are looking to provide Easter Baskets to those children and families that will be sheltered with Catholic workers during this blessed season of Easter! The Women of Service are collecting items to fill about 60 Easter Baskets with small gift items. The items being collected are: Stickers, notepads, drawing pads, crayons, markers, pens and pencils, journal books, books, dolls, balls, bubbles, small cars, puzzles, flash cards, games, stuffed animals, etc. back packs, small bags, purses for girls, Other items that make nice additions to the basket and are needed are toothpaste, toothbrush, hair ties, brushes combs, shampoo, soap, body spray, deodorant, socks, baby bibs, blankets / throws etc. Items can be placed in the basket marked and located outside the kitchen near the elevator. All items need to be collected by Palm Sunday. Thank you for your generosity!

Holy Thursday Collection

With your donation on Holy Thursday, you can make a huge impact on North Hill's children and teens. Many students are not able to enjoy three meals a day with the increase of grocery prices over the years. Many are hungry each and every day. Kris Stoehr whom I work with during the Christmas season and throughout the year shares story of the assistance that St. Hilary has given to their students: "The gift of kindness is something we all have the opportunity to share. Thanks to the generosity of St. Hilary, the students at North Hill High School have experienced firsthand your kindness and mercy. Two such teen students were blessed by your parish after they lost their mother to cancer just before Christmas. They had been living by themselves when their mother was in the hospital. They were so appreciative of the gifts and food that kept them going through the holiday season and until new a new family situation could be provided. These are just two of the over 350 students that received assistance for food or clothing in December. Every bit can have influence in the life of one of our students. Thank you for your kindness and support."

Any donation you make on Holy Thursday will help Blessed Trinity give $500 to the North Hill School Pantry to purchase food from the Food Bank. Please share your blessings with those who are hungry this Holy Thursday!

St. Hilary Creation Care

When planning to introduce native plants into a landscape, look to see if there are native plants or plants similar to a native variety in the area and lean towards those species. Smooth Hydrangea was chosen in the St. Kateri Habitat since the non-native hydrangeas previously grew well in that location. Also, pay attention to the normal plant characteristics: sun and soil tolerance, plant height, recommended spacing, and bloom color and schedule. Seersucker Sedge and Wild Ginger were chosen for the St. Kateri Habitat because they are shade-tolerant ground covers.

Before committing to a purchase, it is helpful to do an online search for "[plant's scientific name] native range" to find maps down to the county level to see whether a species is native to your county. The Summit Metroparks, local nurseries with native plant offerings, and online searches are terrific resources for helping to plan a transition to a more native plant landscape.

One Minute Meditations

St. Catherine of Siena

Born in 1347, St. Catherine began having divine visions as a young girl, and after much resistance from her family, she became a member of the Third Order of St. Dominic. She lived a life of solitude, prayer, poverty, mortification, and acts of charity. Her reputation for holiness spread and people began seeking her advice, especially to resolve political feuds peacefully. She is a Doctor of the Church for her works of doctrine and spiritual inspiration.

"Silent Saturday"

On Holy Saturday, also called "Silent Saturday," we recall Mary's silent waiting for Jesus' Resurrection. Waiting is part of God's plan, and He uses that time to heal and prepare our hearts for the next stage. Thank God for the seasons of waiting, as you prepare your heart and home to celebrate the joy of Easter Sunday.

Celebrate Mercy

Divine Mercy Sunday, established by Pope St. John Paul II in 2000, fulfills Jesus' request to St. Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, calling the world to trust in His infinite mercy. It is celebrated on April 27 this year.

"If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also" (John 14:3).

Anointed for a Mission

Living as Priest, Prophet, and King

In ancient Israel, priests and kings were anointed with oil as a sign that they were set apart for a sacred mission. In baptism, we too were anointed, marking us as belonging to Christ and sharing in His threefold office as priest, prophet, and king. As we approach our new life at Easter, we can take our proper place in His kingdom:

Priest

A priest serves as a bridge between God and humanity, offering sacrifices and interceding for others. We embrace our baptismal priesthood when we pray for others, make sacrifices on their behalf, and fully participate in the Mass with devotion and joy.

Prophet

A prophet is God's messenger, speaking the truth and calling people to conversion. A prophet's words have power because they flow from a holy life. We share in Christ's prophetic mission by living out our faith, teaching others about God's love, and spreading the Gospel.

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light" (1 Peter 2:9).

King

A true king protects, leads, and serves as a model of virtue. We fulfill our royal calling when we guide and educate others in the faith, resist sin, and strive to lead others to Christ. We are servant leaders when we build up the Church, defend what is right, and help others on their path to salvation.

By fully living our faith, actively participating in the Church, and embracing the Sacraments, we do more than follow Christ—we become His hands and voice in the world. This is our calling and our mission.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics venerate the Cross on Good Friday?

Veneration of the Cross is a devotion, traditionally observed during the Good Friday liturgy. The Church invites the faithful to bow, kneel, or in some other way venerate the image of the crucified Christ.

While physically kissing a statue may seem unusual, the act is not about the object itself but about honoring the One it represents. Much like observing a moment of silence before a war memorial, we pause to remember and revere the greatest act of love. In this gesture, we express sorrow for sin, love for Christ, and gratitude for His saving victory.

Keep watch with Jesus

A Holy Thursday invitation

On Holy Thursday night, Jesus went to the Mount of Olives to pray. In His anguish, He turned to His disciples and asked, "And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "So, could you not watch with me one hour?" (Matthew 26:40). Yet, they slept.

That same night, Jesus instituted the Eucharist, ensuring His presence would remain with us always. This Holy Thursday, set aside an hour to stay with Him.

Enter the Garden: Meditate on Matthew 26:36-46 or Luke 22:39-46. Listen to Jesus' prayer of surrender: "Thy will be done" (Matthew 26:42). Make it your own, trusting that God will bring all things to fulfillment in His perfect way.

Make a spiritual Communion: St. Thomas Aquinas described this as a prayer of longing for the Eucharist when receiving it physically isn't possible. Though it cannot replace the Mass, it is deeply pleasing to God and nourishes the soul.

Simply be present: Prayer is not about many words or devotions but about being with Him. This Holy Thursday, offer Jesus your silent presence—attentive, open, and watchful—for He is always present to you.

from Scripture

John 20:19-31, "Doubting" Thomas believes

The two Resurrection appearances of Jesus to His disciples in this passage highlight God's merciful love. The first appearance was on Easter Sunday. He could have abandoned them, just as they had abandoned Him in the Garden of Gethsemane, but He didn't. Instead, Jesus appeared to them and gave them His peace, His Spirit, and the power to forgive sins in His name.

The second visit was for St. "Doubting" Thomas, who wasn't there the first time. He refused to believe that Jesus was really risen, despite the evidence of several eyewitnesses.

He demanded physical proof. Jesus appeared in the Upper Room and invited him to touch Him. St. Thomas, moved to faith, cried out, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28).

This passage reminds us we can always bring our doubts, fears, and need for forgiveness to God, especially on this Sunday — Divine Mercy Sunday. To the disciples who abandoned Him, Jesus extended His peace and forgiveness. For St. Thomas who had been struggling with doubt, Jesus came in person to strengthen his faith. "Jesus, I trust in You!"

Q & A

How can I be sure that I am discerning God's will in prayer?

God calls all of us to greater holiness, deeper intimacy with Him and greater charity for others. If you feel God is calling you, consider the "roots and fruits" more carefully before responding.

While the Holy Spirit often works through our "holy imagination," not everything that pops into our heads is from Him. God will never tell us to sin or contradict Church teachings, and His voice is always gentle (if firm) and brings a deep peace that remains, even when our emotions and situations change.

Assuming the "roots" are good, you can take the first steps in answering the call. Examples of "good fruits" would be an increase in virtue, greater attraction to the Sacraments, a concrete change in how we treat others, and even a change of heart in others.

It's always good to find a good spiritual director when discerning "big" decisions, e.g., a vocation. Be at peace: if you are seeking God's will in good faith, He will direct you where you need to be.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 13 – Palm Sunday. On Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, we recall Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, when He was greeted by crowds waving palms and cheering, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" (Matthew 21:9). This Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week.

April 16 – St. Joseph Benedict Labré (1783). Nicknamed "the poor man of the Forty Hours (Eucharistic devotion)," St. Benedict lived most of his life as a poor pilgrim. When he wasn't in church, he lived on the streets, in poverty and absorbed in prayer.

April 25 – St. Mark the Evangelist

(First Century). St. Mark wrote the second Gospel based on St. Peter's perspective and accompanied Saints Paul and Barnabas on their missionary journey in Cyprus. He is credited with founding the Church of Alexandria.

April 27 – Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus promised St. Faustina that those who receive the Sacrament of Confession and the Eucharist on this day will receive complete forgiveness of sins and punishment—a grace akin to baptism. This extraordinary gift highlights God's desire to wipe away our past and renew us in His love.

April 28 – St. Louis de Montfort (1716). A French priest with a passion for preaching the Gospel, St. Louis had a special devotion to the Blessed Mother, and his True Devotion to Mary is widely popular today.
