Easter Prayer of Thanksgiving

Good and gracious heavenly Father, we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ.

Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love. Bless also those who have yet to profess belief in you. You are God for all. We ask all this in Christ's name.

Amen.

My Dear Parishioners,

A most Blessed and Happy Easter to all of you and your families on behalf of the entire staff here at St. Hilary Parish! May the new life of the Risen Lord be with all of you, not only on Easter Day but throughout the coming fifty days of the Easter Season. The past forty days of Lent have been an opportunity for all of us to reflect more deeply upon our Baptismal call to follow Jesus as His disciples. Hopefully you were faithful to your Lenten resolutions and that you now are more deeply aware of God's call in your own life, especially after renewing your own Baptismal promises at Easter Mass today. May I suggest that you continue to be close to the Lord in prayer throughout the fifty days of the Easter season in preparation for Pentecost, the great feast of the Holy Spirit and the official birthday of the Church!

Once again we rejoice during the Easter Season in a particular way with those members of our community who have celebrated Sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. Their new-found faith as Roman Catholics offers us an opportunity to be inspired to renew our own commitment to the Catholic Church and to invite others to join us at the table of the Lord. This year we welcome to the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist: Emmersyn Bonsky, Henleigh King, Bryan Pepper, and Nicholas Contos. We welcome into full communion through a Profession of Faith, Confirmation, and Eucharist: Bob Edmonds, Brent Beiling, Candace Hulin, Dan Robinson, Doug Mory, John Guyer, Maria Maximovich, Mark Shick, and Tabitha Robinson. All of these newly initiated members are great signs to us of the Spirit continuing to work among us and bringing us home to the Lord.

If you know of someone who has been away from the faith or who is a non-Catholic interested in our Church, please invite them to come to Church with you! We are already meeting with potential inquirers for next Easter. A word of thanks to Randy Malick, Jeannie Hohlefeldt, and the entire OCIA team who have guided our newly initiated throughout the year.

Thanks also to all of our musicians, singers, decorators, and liturgical ministers who helped us celebrate so well the sacred mysteries of Lent and Holy Week. It is such a BLESSING to celebrate these sacred mysteries with our St. Hilary Parish Family with such beauty and reverence! Let us all continue to be renewed in Spirit during this Easter season as we celebrate the new life of the Risen Lord!

Easter Peace,
Fr. Steve Brunovsky

Gospel Reflection

"Christ is Risen!"

"Truly! He is risen!"

With these words Orthodox Christians throughout the world greet and respond to one another during this Easter season. Their joy is palpable. There don't seem to be enough words to capture this incredible event. Not even our liturgies can do it.

The Easter Vigil is a good example. It has eight Old Testament readings, beginning with the book of Genesis and the creation story, and continuing through the call of Abraham, Moses (Exodus), the prophets Isaiah, Baruch and Ezekiel. Not all readings are required but we hear at least three (Genesis, Exodus, Isaiah). Those who celebrated the Vigil last night heard Luke's account of the resurrection. This Easter Day we hear the gospel of John. In both gospels it is Mary Magdalene who comes to the tomb first and finds it empty. It is she who spreads the news to the apostles. Even the disciples seem lost for words at what has transpired.

On this great feast of Easter, let us:

- Sing our hearts out with Alleluias!
- Rejoice with those newly baptized and received into the church at the vigil.
- Welcome with joy the many folks who celebrate with us today.
- Resolve to bring the hope of Christ's resurrection to the needy of our community.
- Refrain from harsh and critical words over political differences.
- Strive to be Christ's presence where it is most needed right now.
- Pray for a miracle of peace in Ukraine, Gaza, Sudan and wherever there is conflict.
- Ask God's guidance for our country and its leaders during this time of upheaval and uncertainty.
- Share Christ's love with family and friends on this joyful day.

Happy Easter! Amen! Alleluia!

Mary Lou Grossmann

My Dear Parishioners!

It is with great joy that I am announcing to you that Bishop Edward Malesic has officially called the eight Transitional Deacons of our Diocese to the Order of Priest! This means that our very own parishioner Deacon James Parisi, and also Deacon Jon Hawkins who has served among us this past year, and also Deacon Chris Cotone who served here as a Seminarian Intern two years ago, will be Ordained to the Priesthood at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 17 at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in Cleveland!

As a part of the parish responsibility outlined in Canon Law, the pastor must publish Banns announcing these ordinations and request the input of the congregation one last time prior to ordination. This is especially true for Deacon James Parisi as he is a son of our parish, and also Deacon Jon Hawkins as he has served here this past year. If therefore you would like to comment on the suitability for Orders of either James or Jon, please feel free to indicate so either to Bishop Malesic directly or to me. I continue to ask for your prayers for James, Jon, and Chris and their classmates and they enter their proximate preparation for Holy Orders!

By way of announcement, the new Father James Parisi will be celebrating his Mass of Thanksgiving here at St Hilary on Sunday, May 18 at 2:00 p.m. (5:30 p.m. Mass is cancelled) with a reception following. The new Father Chris Cotone will celebrate Mass here on Saturday, May 31 at 4:00 p.m.; and the new Father Jon Hawkins will celebrate Mass here on Sunday, June 1 at 9:00 a.m.!!!

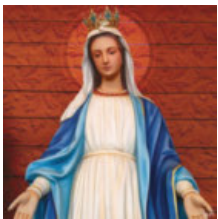

Blessings!

St. Hilary Creation Care

All of today's readings underscore Jesus' indescribable metamorphosis from dying to rising. While we, too, are beneficiaries of this new life, we are also perpetrators of death, as suggested by Pope Francis in Laudato Si'. We are strangling the earth of its life with our garbage; choking the atmosphere with our pollution; poisoning water with our plastic. "All creation is groaning in labor pains even until now." (Rom 8:22)

Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start...No system can completely suppress our openness to what is good, true and beautiful, or our God-given ability to respond to his grace at work deep in our hearts. (Laudato si' 205)

The outcome of this situation is in our own hands. We can decide to change our ways of consuming, of wasting, of polluting. We can commit ourselves to the birth of new life for earth, rather than disfigurement and death. The Easter message is a promise of life, not merely for human beings, but for all of creation. God has entrusted us with the fulfillment of part of that promise. How open are we to being midwives of new life?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: Everybody's trying to find God. They may not admit it. They may not even know it. But the search defines them, and it defines us.

The Search

Everybody's trying to find God. They may not admit it. They may not even know it. They may talk around it, shy away from saying the name, both to others and to themselves: God. But I know for a fact that every person who was ever born into this world spent their lives searching for Him - somewhere, somehow, even if the only place they thought to look was in money or drugs.

It's a comforting fact, really — a reminder of how alike we all are. Catholic, Jewish, Muslim, atheist, rich, poor, Black, white. When it comes right down to it, the history of humanity is a never-ending Easter morning scene that plays in perpetuity. The sorrow, the shock, the confusion. Again and again, as each newborn baby opens his eyes, the search begins anew. Where did he go? What has happened? Where can I find him?

Catechesis isn't enough. Even those who learn about Jesus Christ, who accept his word, hang hesitantly outside the tomb, afraid to go in. Jesus' best friend — the disciple whom he loved — ran faster than Peter, so desperate he was to find his Lord. But when he got to the tomb and saw it empty, he got spooked. He froze.

Sometimes, we expect God to be right where we left Him — in a certain parish, with a certain priest, in a certain relationship, at a certain job. We show up, and we're heartbroken to see that our expectations have been turned upside down. He's left us, we think dejectedly, but we're wrong.

There is no one who has been abandoned by God. There are only those who stop looking for Him.

Don't let the empty tombs define you. It's the search that defines you

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Catholic Life Explained Question:

How do I discern if a call to do something big is really from God?

Answer:

Each day we face plenty of decisions about following God: whether or not to pray, how to treat people, and how to prioritize our time. Sometimes there can be something much more significant we discern: a vocational call, a promotion at work that requires a move, or a new ministry position at church. In addition to a pro-con list or a cost-benefit analysis, here are a few things to prayerfully consider and to talk over with trusted individuals.

Does it conform to God's will revealed in the Church? God doesn't call us to do something that contradicts the moral law. Will it encourage spiritual growth? Sometimes we need to choose between multiple good options. Consider the personal impact on you and others you are responsible for, like family. Other times we might be invited to do good for others, but when we assess our other life commitments, we see that saying yes to this would actually impede our prior responsibilities in the long run. Does the call seem consistent? This isn't to say that God won't do something new. Even so, consider if the call is consistent with your gifts and abilities. Can you see a "through-line" so to speak, with how your experiences have led you to this point? Do others confirm it? Share your reflections with trusted, insightful confidantes. Have they seen the same things you have, or are they bringing up new points to consider? Humbly add their relevant points to your considerations. Don't forget your gut. After you've carefully considered everything in your mind, don't neglect your instincts. Does your heart say yes or no?
