God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely
into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen

Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the Scriptures

It may seem strange during Eastertide to have a gospel from John's version of the Last Supper. But in this farewell discourse Jesus says some things to his apostles that I think we need to hear again. Jesus tells them that he will not leave them orphaned, that the Father will send the Holy Spirit to them, that they need not be anxious or afraid. "Peace I leave you with; my peace I give to you.... Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."

Clearly, Jesus could read the room. He knew what they were thinking and feeling. They all knew that he and they were marked men. They must have been thinking, "How will we manage when he is gone? What does the future hold for us? Will we be OK?" And he does not promise them an easy future. .. Recall that most of them will be martyred.... only that they will not be left alone and that should bring them peace.

We, too, faithful followers of Jesus, are not promised an easy life. But we are promised that whatever challenges life holds we do not face them alone. We are in the hands of God who loves us beyond measure.

Individually, medical diagnoses and illnesses will come our way. The grief that follows the loss of loved ones will break our heart. We may be deeply troubled by the violence and suffering that nations, sometimes our own, inflict on the innocent.

The suffering that life brings does not disappear because of our faith. But it is changed by knowing that we too have not been left orphans. That in our grieving and in our struggles against the forces of evil we are supported by the Spirit of God.

The events of that Last Supper and those immediately following were undeniably tragic, and rightfully to be mourned. But we are not Good Friday people. We are Easter people. Hope is our calling. And "Alleluia" is our song.

Pat Schnee

Caring & Participating

For Inquiring Minds—All Things Catholic!

If you are or someone you know is not Catholic but are been curious about the faith and would like to learn more, you are cordially invited to "Inquiry", a series of five gatherings over the summer on Wed eve, 7:00-8:30 pm beginning June 25, where we discuss various topics that are either misunderstood, controversial, or just plain befuddling to people about the Church. It is a "no strings attached" time to ask any Qs before people make a firm commitment to enter the OCIA process that begins in the fall. The advantage of entering OCIA process after Inquiry is having some established relationships with others who have been walking the same journey during the summer. If someone decides not to go forward, that is fine, too. We use a fun resource called, "How to Survive Being Married to a Catholic" (which is good for anyone, not just those married). Please contact Randy Malick if you plan to attend at rmalick@sthilarychurch.org.

St. Hilary Creation Care

Pope Francis urged us to approach care for the environment as a community: local, national, interfaith, and international. Pope Leo XIV has also called for unity from the very start of his pontificate. "We are called to offer God's love to everyone," he said, to be "a sign of unity and communion, which becomes a leaven for a reconciled world."

This weekend, as part of the Jubilee Year of Hope, it is the Jubilee of Children on May 24 and 25, dedicated to the importance of childhood, to listen to the voices of the smallest, often forgotten and unheard. How are our environmental stewardship actions as individuals, as a community, as a nation, and as a global community of God benefiting others in the global community, especially children? What one more thing can we do this coming week to keep promote care for creation, especially keeping in God's creation we are stewarding for our children?

- Can we plant a garden or join a CSA?
- Could a call be made to elected officials to ensure that the EPA remains funded and rules stay in place?
- Can we consider using the PUCO Apples to Apples website to investigate switching our electricity supplier to one that uses some amount of renewable electricity?
- Could we start walking, biking, or take public transportation for one more trip a week?
- Can we consider whether the purchases we make support sustainable production, fairly traded goods, ethical consumption, investment in renewable energy, and promote activities that will enhance our global community and God's creation?

St. Hilary Parish Employment Opportunities

St. Hilary is looking to fill the opening of Staff Accountant, and is accepting resumes immediately. The Staff Accountant plays a pivotal role in managing the day-to-day financial operations of the parish and school. This includes overseeing general ledger activities, payroll and employee benefit processing, accounts payable, donation records, and bank reconciliations. The Staff Accountant collaborates closely with the Business Manager, providing essential financial information and recommendations to support informed decision-making. Additionally, this role involves preparing financial reports for both the parish and the diocese, ensuring compliance with relevant policies and procedures. Engagement with parishioners, staff, and diocesan employees is integral, requiring professionalism and effective communication.

We are also looking to fill the opening of Stewardship Minister. The Stewardship Minister meets with all new parishioners to register them and familiarize them with the parish ministries and facilities, plans two new parishioner lunches each year, is the staff liaison to Parish Council, plans the annual Gifts Discernment retreat in May, plans the annual Stewardship Renewal Campaign, and helps coordinate parish social justice ministries.

Interested parties should forward their letter of interest, resume, and references to Fr. Steve Brunovsky at sbrunovsky@sthilarychurch.org.

Let us celebrate and bring back the Blessed Virgin Mary visiting your home!

St. Hilary Parish is blessed to have the Our Lady of Fatima Statue Ministry. The Our Lady of Fatima Statue can reside in your home for one week, to pray with you and be a presence to always remind you of her love and grace. There's a 3-ring binder on the Welcome desk in the gathering area for you to pick a week and provide your name, phone number and an email. We will contact you when it is your time for Mary's visit and make arrangements for drop off and pick up. We ask that you sign up for no more than 2 weeks in the year. For questions, please contact Marcia Anway at 330-808-4533 or Melanie Baker at 330-351-5404. We look forward to serving you, our family!

St. Vincent DePaul Food Collection May 31 & June 1

We will be accepting donations at the masses on May 31 and June 1. Look for the bins at the church entrances. We are happy to take any donation, but this month the items we are most in need of are macaroni & cheese, syrup, pasta and pasta sauce, cookies and paper goods. Please check the expiration dates since we cannot use anything that is expired. Our neighbors in need really appreciate your generous gifts.

Thank you from St. Mary School, Akron!

They provided academic assistance, encouragement and positive mentoring to our students who are from the inner city and families below the poverty level. We give thanks to God for each volunteer because they are making a difference in the lives of our students. The students, families and staff are grateful for St. Hilary Parish parishioners:
