Gospel Reflection

Today we are celebrating the Solemn Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. There are two choices or “options” for the Second Reading. I am focusing on the second option, as it speaks an important message for me.

That message, from Paul’s Letter to the Hebrews, is: “...let us approach with a sincere heart and in absolute trust, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water.” Our hearts have been sprinkled clean, cleansed of the evil that we have done by choosing to turn away from God. All we need to do is to acknowledge God’s forgiveness and be grateful for it. Remember, it is not a case of having to make ourselves worthy to be with God. God’s love for us and God’s offer of everlasting life for us - these are gifts. We do not earn them. However, we demonstrate our love for God and our acceptance of these gifts by acting in accordance with God’s desire for us truly love — God, with our neighbors and with ourselves. The key is love!

As I have written a number of times in this space over the years, I often find myself working with people in spiritual direction on one very important concept: Learning to forgive themselves. Frequently, they come with a heavy heart, troubled by the effects of poor choices they have made. Sometimes, those choices involved an impulsive action, like snapping at a spouse who interrupts their train of thought; or cursing at someone who cuts them off in traffic. Sometimes, those choices have involved a larger transgression, like intentionally committing an act of violence, slander or fraud. No matter what the “bad act” is, if we ask with a sincere heart, we can be sure that God forgives it. In fact, God is simply waiting to shower us with forgiveness and love. Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a wonderful way to experience the full effect of God’s love and mercy. It is a gift from God, via the Church, to us.

And of course, the pure water referenced in the reading is the water of our baptism. A sacrament that we celebrate again symbolically, every time we dip our fingers in the baptismal font and anoint ourselves with that fresh clean water, while making the Sign of the Cross. It’s another gift of our Catholic faith! I once had a Baptist Minister say to me: “I am so envious of you Catholics, that you get to celebrate your baptism every time you go into a Catholic Church by using the water from the font to bless yourselves. I wish we had that as part of our rituals.”

God’s messages of mercy and forgiveness are all part of God’s instruction to us regarding the importance of love. How well have I been “loving” lately?

Caring & Participating

For Inquiring Minds—All Things Catholic!

If you are or someone you know is not Catholic but are been curious about the faith and would like to learn more, you are cordially invited to "Inquiry", a series of five gatherings over the summer on Wed eve, 7:00-8:30 pm beginning June 25, where we discuss various topics that are either misunderstood, controversial, or just plain befuddling to people about the Church. It is a "no strings attached" time to ask any Qs before people make a firm commitment to enter the OCIA process that begins in the fall. The advantage of entering OCIA process after Inquiry is having some established relationships with others who have been walking the same journey during the summer. If someone decides not to go forward, that is fine, too. We use a fun resource called, "How to Survive Being Married to a Catholic" (which is good for anyone, not just those married).

Please contact Randy Malick if you plan to attend at rmalick@sthilarychurch.org.

Creative Hands day Saturday, June 14

After such great success with our first event, St. Hilary Women of Service are looking forward to hosting another one day come and craft day. Bring a craft of your choice: painting, sewing, knitting, crocheting, scrap booking, doting, quilting, jewelry making, cross stitch, stamping, rosary making, embroidery, to show others and share your talent. We will provide light snacks, coffee, tea and water. Lunch will be a potluck, so please bring an appetizer, lunch item or dessert to share. We will meet at St. Hilary Church on Saturday June 14 from 10:00 a.m. till 4:00 p.m. and end with mass. We will begin cleaning up around 3:30 so that anyone who wishes to attend mass may do so. We wish to provide fellowship and time for women to come and share their talents with others and to have some time to craft uninterrupted, with prayer.

St. Hilary Parish Employment Opportunities

St. Hilary is looking to fill the opening of Staff Accountant, and is accepting resumes immediately. The Staff Accountant plays a pivotal role in managing the day-to-day financial operations of the parish and school. This includes overseeing general ledger activities, payroll and employee benefit processing, accounts payable, donation records, and bank reconciliations. The Staff Accountant collaborates closely with the Business Manager, providing essential financial information and recommendations to support informed decision-making. Additionally, this role involves preparing financial reports for both the parish and the diocese, ensuring compliance with relevant policies and procedures. Engagement with parishioners, staff, and diocesan employees is integral, requiring professionalism and effective communication.

We are also looking to fill the opening of Stewardship Minister. The Stewardship Minister meets with all new parishioners to register them and familiarize them with the parish ministries and facilities, plans two new parishioner lunches each year, is the staff liaison to Parish Council, plans the annual Gifts Discernment retreat in May, plans the annual Stewardship Renewal Campaign, and helps coordinate parish social justice ministries.

Interested parties should forward their letter of interest, resume, and references to Fr. Steve Brunovsky at sbrunovsky@sthilarychurch.org.

Let us celebrate and bring back the Blessed Virgin Mary visiting your home!

St. Hilary Parish is blessed to have the Our Lady of Fatima Statue Ministry. The Our Lady of Fatima Statue can reside in your home for one week, to pray with you and be a presence to always remind you of her love and grace. There's a 3-ring binder on the Welcome desk in the gathering area for you to pick a week and provide your name, phone number and an email. We will contact you when it is your time for Mary's visit and make arrangements for drop off and pick up. We ask that you sign up for no more than 2 weeks in the year. For questions, please contact Marcia Anway at 330-808-4533 or Melanie Baker at 330-351-5404. We look forward to serving you, our family!

Please check the expiration dates since we cannot use anything that is expired. Our neighbors in need really appreciate your generous gifts.

Appeal for Catholic Charities

On May 31-June 1 at , we are holding a follow-up In-Pew Appeal for Catholic Charities. If you missed the opportunity to give earlier this year, we invite you to consider making a gift today. (PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: In today's Gospel, Jesus prays for me. And for you. And for all the people who woke up this morning and headed to Mass because, while it's true that God is everywhere, the Body and Blood of Jesus is only found in one place.

That the World May Believe

I love today's Gospel because, in it, Jesus prays for me.

And you.

And the guy sitting next to you at Mass. And the priest, and the altar server, and all the people in all the churches in all the towns in all the world who woke up this morning and headed to Mass because, while it's true that God is everywhere, the Body and Blood of Jesus is only found in one place.

And he prays for the barista who will sell you your coffee later today and see your crucifix and hear you say, "God bless," and think, "That's a weird necklace, and I don't believe in God," but who will one day, at her lowest point, wonder if anyone ever truly loved her, and remember the sight of that broken and bloodied Corpus.

Today, Jesus prays for the person you passed on the way into the parking lot this morning, the one who doesn't go to Mass anymore but who always walks his dog on this street, on this morning, for reasons he can't explain.

He prays for your great-great grandparents and your great-great grandchildren.

"Those who will believe in me through their word." That's me. That's you. That's us. We're the ones who believe through the word of the Apostles, who bore witness to the life and death and Resurrection of the God-Man, Jesus Christ, and whose testimony to that life is an eternal flame illuminating the understanding of every human being who will ever say, "I believe."

But if we listen to what Jesus says today, we must understand: it's not just the Apostles' job, and it's not done. It's not a book that is closed. It's a mission that is alive and ongoing, and it's as much ours as it was theirs: that the world may believe that you sent me.

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Answer:

Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others?
