Loving God, Creator of all times and places, we thank you for the gift of summertime, the days of light, warmth and leisure.

Thank you for the beauty that surrounds us everywhere we look: the multi-colored flowers, the deep blue of the sky, the tranquil surface of lakes, the laughter of children at play, people strolling in parks, families gathered around picnic tables and the more time to spend with family and friends.

As we open our eyes and ears to the landscape of nature and people, open our hearts to receive all as gift. Give us that insight to see you as the Divine Artist. Help us to realize and appreciate that you are laboring to keep all in existence. Warm our souls with the awareness of your presence.

Let all the gifts we enjoy this summer deepen our awareness of your love so that we may share this with others and enjoy a summertime of re-creation.

AMEN

Gospel Reflection

Remember those bracelets we wore years ago with the letters WWJD?

Those letters stood for "What Would Jesus Do" and they were meant to cause us to match our behavior to what Jesus would do in the same situation. Today's gospel got me thinking about "WWJS", or "What Would Jesus Say."

In the gospel we hear that Jesus "appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit." This was his "advance team", men and women whose job it was to share his message and prepare the people for his arrival. They carried his message.

The gospels are not written just to tell us what happened in the past; they are written to help shape our present and future. They reach across the years and say to each of us "Go, thou, and do likewise!" We are part of Jesus's advanced team today. And we are to speak for him to our time. What would Jesus say?

Fortunately, we don't have to guess. We don't have to scratch our heads and wonder what Jesus would say to our world... because he left us a very clear teaching in Matthew 25. "I was hungry and you gave me no food", "I was a stranger and you did not welcome me", "I was ill and you gave me no comfort ...." We know what he would say.

So tonight or tomorrow when you're watching the news on television or reading the newspaper... listen carefully. When you see bombs dropped on hospitals and apartment buildings, when you see hard-working husbands and fathers torn from their families and disappeared, when you hear about proposed legislation that cuts food and health care from our most vulnerable brothers and sisters... when you hear about all these things... listen carefully to hear what Jesus would say. And then..go...

Say what Jesus would say.

Pat Schnee

A Note from Fr. Cam Popik

Dear St Hilary Parish family,

Thank you so much for all of your support, love and encouragement in the last few months! From my first days at St Hilary's, you welcomed me into the community. I am so grateful for the four years I was assigned to this great parish, for all of the Masses, conversations, lots of laughs, and God's strength in the tough times. During my last few months at the parish, you really filled me up and helped me realize how God works through the priesthood. I will continue to remember you as I work in my priestly assignment in Lakewood at St. Luke Parish, St. James Parish and St. Clement Parish. Thank you for your friendship, incredible generosity and kindness. I will certainly look forward to seeing you again soon!

With you in the Eucharist,
Fr. Cameron Popik

Men's Group Meeting Saturday, July 12

Learning to Accept When God Says "No" in Prayer

Have you asked for an outcome you desired from God because you prayed to him about it? Plus, your prayer group prayed for you, you fasted, gave alms to the poor. You lit candles. What about "ask and you shall receive?" Join us in a discussion about praying for our wants and needs at our next Men's Group Meeting on Saturday, July 12, 7AM.

For Inquiring Minds— All Things Catholic!

If you or someone you know is not Catholic but have been curious about the faith and would like to learn more, you are cordially invited to "Inquiry", a series of five gatherings over the summer on Wed eve, 7:00-8:30 pm beginning June 25, where we discuss various topics that are either misunderstood, controversial, or just plain befuddling to people about the Church. It is a "no strings attached" time to ask any Qs before people make a firm commitment to enter the OCIA process that begins in the fall. The advantage of entering OCIA process after Inquiry is having some established relationships with others who have been walking the same journey during the summer. Please contact Randy Malick if you plan to attend at rmalick@sthilarychurch.org.

SVDP Food Collection—July 5 & 6

We will be accepting donations at the masses on July 5 and 6. Look for the bins at the church entrances. We are happy to take any donation, but this month the items we are most in need of are tuna, pasta and pasta sauce and paper goods. Please check the expiration dates since we cannot use anything that is expired. Thank you for your past generous donations. Our neighbors in need really appreciate your gifts.

Please join the Akron Serra Club!

Please join the Akron Serra Club for their monthly Mass for religious vocations. For July 2025, the Mass will be celebrated at St Hilary's Church in Akron on July, 6 at 9:00 a.m.

The mission of the Akron Serra Club is

- to promote new vocations to the ministerial priesthood and consecrated religious life,
- to affirm existing vocations, and
- to grow in holiness

Your prayers for Religious Vocations during the Mass are appreciated.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: Too often, life falls short of my expectations — an opportunity didn't work out, a day didn't go the way I planned — so I ball up my fists and stomp my feet. And God takes the Book of the Gospels and opens it to Luke, Chapter 10.

On Pilgrimage

Before I embarked on my trip to the National Eucharistic Congress last summer with a group from my archdiocese, we had an orientation meeting. At that meeting, the coordinator of the trip shared with us "The Five Rules of Pilgrimage."

If you're not familiar with them (I wasn't), here they are:

1. Don't complain.
2. Don't complain. (It's so important, it's listed twice.)
3. When you see a bathroom, use it.
4. When someone offers you something, receive it.
5. When someone asks you for something, give it.

It's great advice for a pilgrimage, but more than that, I think it's great advice in general. So when I read today's Gospel and I hear Jesus say essentially the same thing to his disciples as they set out to evangelize (well, minus the bathroom tip, but those weren't as much of a thing in biblical Judea), I come to an important realization.

The whole Christian life is a pilgrimage.

Too often, life falls short of my expectations. An opportunity didn't work out. A day didn't go the way I planned (like, at all). A person didn't accept me. And I ball up my fists and stomp my feet like a full-grown Veruca Salt, and I yell: I cannot work in these conditions!

And then, I imagine God, on his celestial throne, sighs and opens the Book of the Gospels (surely he keeps it handy, don't you think?) to Luke, Chapter 10. And he whispers in my heart what he said to his disciples 2,000 years ago.

Don't complain. Be open and give of yourself, and in turn, receive what comes your way, whatever it is. If it's good, rejoice. If it's not good, move on. And in the end, remember where you're headed — the place you're trying to go.

Oh, and again: don't complain.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

As Catholics, we talk a lot about "redemptive suffering" and "carrying your cross." What does that mean practically in daily life?

Answer:

When Jesus spoke these words, they would have sounded quite intense to his hearers. "Pick up your cross daily and follow me." At the time, Jesus hadn't yet been crucified. A cross was a Roman torture instrument. "Pick up the thing that tortures you the most," Jesus seemed to say. Unfortunately, most of us have no real shortage of these in our life. To take up the cross isn't to seek out new sufferings in our life. It's to accept the life we have.

Of course, unjust or unhealthy circumstances should be rectified when possible. But there are always circumstances that remain out of our immediate control. It could be pain management, the defiance of our teenage child, or an unhealthy work environment ... but you need the paycheck to pay the bills. In difficult circumstances, it can be easier to blame, complain, or daydream our way out of it. None of these are real solutions, since none of them accept the reality of the situation at hand. Those options only add to our suffering, since they damage relationships, fixate on the problem, or set up unrealistic expectations.

Instead, Jesus invites us to take up our cross — to look at the uncomfortable situation square in the eyes, take a deep breath, and do our best to be present to God's grace in the moment. To love those in our path. To take things one step at a time.
