Few things are more important to Jesus than marriage. As we saw last year in St. Mark's Gospel, Jesus begins his public ministry announcing that he is the "bridegroom." In his presence, the wedding guests (the apostles and other disciples) do not fast. In St. John's Gospel, as we see today, Jesus inaugurates his ministry on a nuptial note. His first miracle rescues of a bride and groom.

Jesus loves marriage. He particularly loves young married couples. His mother, Mary, intercedes for them and Jesus himself goes "above and beyond" in order to help them.

Why does Jesus love marriage so much? We have the answer in our first reading. "As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you." Consider the joy of a groom. After months, maybe years, of courting his bride, of doing all he can to win her, finally the moment arrives when she is his. Is there any moment of greater joy? Such will be union of God with his people, of Jesus with his bride, the Church.

St. Paul says the reason God made us male and female is to foreshadow that union. He calls marriage a "mysterion," a mystery, that is, a sacrament. It signifies Jesus joining himself with his Church. God's love for us is not distant and "spiritual." It involves his whole being and ours in response.

Our whole being: There are people who think they can do whatever they want with their bodies as long as their "heart" is right. No, you and I come to Jesus with all we are - mind, heart, soul...and body. The image of Jesus as bridegroom makes that clear. Like a bridegroom his love is all-consuming, exclusive, jealous. Not that he enslaves. On the contrary, he respects our freedom and he frees us from a miserable kind of slavery. You know, we can become slaves to sin. The devil knows how use our disordered desires to enslave us.

There is an irony in all this. Some young people today hold back from marriage thinking it will limit their freedom. In a similar way people hold back from Jesus. But the truth is this: Only in Jesus will we find real freedom. He is the perfect bridegroom.

Today we see how much Jesus loves marriage - and why. He comes as the Bridegroom who rejoices in his bride.

CEMETERY DUES FOR ALL PARISHIONERS IN THE MARION CATHOLIC COMMUNITY—Cemetery dues will be collected in the months of January and February. Dues are $10.00 per single person who is 21 or older or $20.00 for married couples and families. You are NOT reserving a cemetery plot, but simply maintaining the cemetery. The cost for a cemetery plot for anyone who has not paid his/her dues is $1,000.00 per lot for single persons or $2,000.00 for married couples and families. If you are a member of a parish, you are to pay cemetery dues. There is an envelope in your mailed packet or you can use a plain envelope marked cemetery dues with your name and parish on it and drop it in the collection at Mass. Also, if you have paid dues, there is still a fee for purchasing a cemetery lot. Please contact the parish office or the head of the cemetery of your parish, if you have any questions. St. John—Sharon Kremer—419-925-4775, Precious Blood—Lester Homan—419-925-4314, St. Sebastian—Nick McClurg—419-925-4191, St. Rose—Nancy Zizelman—419-852-4411, Nativity—Matt Guggenbiller—419-925-4025.

SYNODALITY—Sounds strange, doesn't it? Yet this is what the Holy Father has called. In its simplest form, synodality represents a collaborative approach by all the people of God to address a particular issue for which the Holy Father seeks input. For this synod, he wants to hear from everyone on how the whole Church (not only the bishops and priests) can journey together in bringing the gospel message to the world. To address this "synodal" approach, he has called for all dioceses in the world to hold local consultative meetings to discuss this topic. The first meeting is scheduled for January 18th at the St. Charles Center (Gasper Room) from 7pm to 9pm for the St. Marys Deanery. Please prayerfully consider participating in your local deanery meeting.

BACH BY CANDLELIGHT AT IC CHURCH—The musical legacy of Bach cannot be overstated. Join the Lima Symphony Orchestra as they honor the works of the master himself, Johann Sebastian Bach, and those of his sons, Johann Christian and Carl Philipp Emanuel in an evening of Bach by Candlelight. Revel in the complexity and beauty of music of the Baroque as it was meant to be heard, in our region's beautiful historic churches. Hosted by IC Church, Celina on Sunday, January 23rd at 4pm is "Strength in Harmony – Bach by Candlelight." Please feel free to contact Terri Stewart, IC Parish Secretary at the parish office 419-586-6648 or tstewart@celina-ic.org for tickets and more information. Adult tickets are $20 and student tickets are $10.

2ND ANNUAL THE WORLD IS NOISY RETREAT—This will be January 21st and 22nd at the Spiritual Center. (Space is limited to 100 retreatants which includes up to 50 overnight guests.)
