MISSION STATEMENT

The members of the Marion Catholic Community, given life through the Holy Spirit in Baptism, are called together as a community of faith to praise and worship God our Creator and to proclaim in word and deed the Gospel message of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ we strive to serve all to provide an atmosphere of hospitality which enables all to respond fully to the life-long challenge “to do right and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God.”
Micah 6:8

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we return to "Ordinary Sundays" and resume the sequential readings from Luke's Gospel. The passage we just heard invites us to grapple with the central reality of the New Testament: the paradox of Jesus. In the first section, he rebukes his disciples for wanting to destroy the unwelcoming Samaritans. Then he makes demands so severe they can only be called outrageous. To a would-be follower who wishes to complete his duty, Jesus says, "Let the dead bury their dead." Another he does not permit to even say good-bye to his family.

The Gospel writer could not have invented such words. Much more likely, they so shocked the original hearers that the words were unforgettable. We cannot avoid the question, "Who does he think he is?" I do not ask it flip-pantly, but with a desire to know.

If the Archbishop or even the pope told me to ignore my family, I would suspect they had gone off the deep end. But Jesus demanded that, and more, of people over whom he had no human authority. He held no office. The only authority he claimed was his person. Who is he? The options are stark: lunatic or Lord. Some wish to say he is just one more ethical teacher, like Socrates or the Buddha. But Jesus has taken away that option. He never meant us to have such a way out.

Focusing on his rebuke to the vengeful disciples, some portray Jesus as a model of tolerance and diversity. I have nothing against viewing him as a guru showing us the way to inner peace and brotherhood. However, at some point, an honest person must ask not just what Jesus offers, but who he is. You are a good Buddhist if you embrace Gautama's teaching. To be a Christian you must embrace a person, or to be exact, allow him to seize you.

In the second reading, St. Paul says we participate in a high stakes game. Our lives are a struggle between freedom and slavery, the Spirit and the flesh. "Flesh" includes not just sensual inclinations like lust or gluttony but also spiritual vices: anger, greed, bitterness, etc. Flesh is the downward pull of our human nature.

A needle, when placed carefully on water, will float. Even though it is metal, the molecules on the surface join together to hold it up. But some disturbance can easily upset that unity and the needle will sink to the bottom. If on a lake, it will go into the mud and remain there slowly rusting. Only an outside force can bring it to the surface again. The New Testament calls that force "grace." It means letting go of cynicism, admitting it wasn't the ideal that was wrong, but ourselves. That is, to permit Jesus to overtake us by his Spirit.

NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY PARISHIONERS

Our family parish picnic will be on July 23rd and will start at 3pm with history of the parish and tour of the church. Supper will be served at 5pm in the tent behind the CFL hall and the meal will be provided. Please bring your beverages and lawn chairs. Celebrate Mass at 7:30pm and following the Mass there will be music starting at 8:45pm. You can attend all or any of the events.

NATIVITY ANNIVERSARY TRIVIA—The Gruenenwald Convent was an active farm where the nuns would pray the rosary as they milked cows, tended the garden, etc. To track the number of Hail Marys each nun took turns and started of 1-Hail Mary; 2-Hail Mary; 3-Hail Mary

CATECHISTS NEEDED AT ST. JOHN

It's once again that time where we cast out our nets to see who has interest in being a catechist. We want to invite parishioners into the role of being a catechist or mentor. When we think back to when Jesus was in ministry, he himself didn't take on everything but invited others to participate in his ministry. He didn't create the ministry of sharing the Good News or teaching others about him for one person alone. He invites all those who are baptized into this ministry. We all need to think about the call to fruitfulness, the call to share, & the call for us to participate in Christ's work. Are you open to sharing the gift of your faith? Are you open to sharing the Gospel? Please prayerfully consider being involved with our religious education program this coming year. Help build the kingdom of God. Contact Chris Wibbenmeyer at 567-279-1430 or cwibbenmeyer@marioncatholiccommunity.org.

NEW NEST SPONSORS

NEEDED—The NEST (Novion Education Sponsorship Team) program is looking for up to 10 new sponsors to help fund underprivileged children's education in Novion and Bayeaux, Haiti. For the past eleven years, the Marion Catholic Community has helped support these schools in one of the poorest areas of Haiti. Each year we sponsor the education of up to 160 children. Your donation of $250 covers the cost of a child's education, books, school supplies and uniforms. Please consider helping this worthy cause. If you are able to help, please send your name, address, phone number, email address, and check for $250 made payable to St. John Church to Lynn Hemmelgarn 933 State Route 716 Maria Stein, Ohio 45860. If you have any questions, call Lynn at 419-305-9884. Thank you!

SON MINISTRIES GARAGE

SALE JULY 20-22—Please save items for donation to the summer SON Garage Sale, being held July 20-22 at the Maria Stein American Legion. Items can be dropped off Monday, July 18th from 9am to 7pm and Tuesday, July 19th from 9am to 7pm. Your support helps to serve the needs of the poor near and far. Thank you for your generosity.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

—at St. John is coming back later this summer and we're in need of volunteer prayer leaders. Children's Liturgy of the Word is run by parents and adults from our community who love sharing the faith with young children. We use a variety of resources provided by our religious education office. To learn more, please contact Chris Wibbenmeyer by email at cwibbenmeyer@marioncatholiccommunity.org or phone 567-279-1430.

Amen™

See How the Amen App Is Changing Lives!

"I love being able to listen to the daily readings from anywhere. The ability to pray along with the Rosary and Chaplet has enforced my daily prayers. The meditations are so helpful in this turbulent time."

"I was in great pain that seemed to never get better. I was suffering greatly and needed to be reminded to trust God with it all. I cried and let out some of my stress as I followed along with the meditation. It really helps to have a guided meditation. Very well done."

"The Amen app is fantastic! I have tried so many other Catholic apps, and they just don't seem to fit what I need. Your choices are better in the way that they connect with my spirituality and that of the depth of my family's spirituality—the disciplines of spirituality on every level, the prayers of the Rosary and Divine Mercy, lectio divina, and the readings of the day. The options for music, meditation, sleep, and recording on a journal and sending it to yourself are awesome. I can do this on the run. Thank you for an app I can relate to."

"What a beautiful find! I've been listening to the evening meditation to prepare me for sleep, and I drift right off at peace. The depth of prayers and meditation contained in this one app is amazing. It's truly worth exploring."

"Thank you so much for this awesome app! I've only had it a few days and really want to use it more. I've used it to pray the Rosary, for bedtime meditation, and am starting to use it for morning prayer. I'm planning to begin using the diary soon. A fantastic app. Y'all... this is actually good."

"I never give reviews, but this app is really awesome. When you pause meditation, music keeps playing, which allows you to still be in the moment. For specific meditations, you can choose the time you want to spend, like two minutes or up to fifteen minutes. The app contains the Mysteries and the Divine Mercy Chaplet, which is also motivating for daily prayer. I am still learning about the faith, so this is incredibly useful."

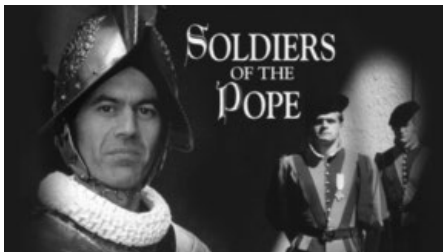

"The first time I used this app I cried. This app hits you in the heart, and I really felt like Jesus was right next to me. I recommend this app to everyone in the world, because after each meditation and prayer, you will feel lighter and your spirit will rise."

"This is a great app! It has a lot of good ways to help you on your spiritual journey no matter what path God is leading you on. Single life, religious life, and married life—when you just need to get away from the everyday life and be alone with God, just like Jesus wanted to be alone with the Father."

"I am extremely pleased with this app's quality content—so much variety! There is the option to choose that which is most interesting and meaningful to me. I am looking forward to finding mental, physical, and spiritual peace and health with the aid of this app since they all go hand in hand. This app sure did become available at a perfect time in a mixed-up and noisy world."

WATCH ON FORMED.ORG

For the first time an exclusive visit behind Vatican walls records the history, traditions and daily life of the smallest army in the world, the Swiss Guard, whose duty is to defend the Holy Father at any cost, giving their own lives if necessary. The film captures the highlights of a typical year for the Swiss Guard, including their ceremonial duties as well as some more intimate moments. Here is their story through the lives of the members of the Swiss Guard, offering a window on the Vatican not seen before.

FORMED® PICK OF THE WEEK

June 26, 2022

WATCH THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

LISTEN SET ALL AFIRE

It is no stretch to say that Peter and Paul set the world afire with the Gospel message. In honor of these apostles, enjoy this one-of-a-kind presentation that includes seven segments covering some of the most important topics in the Church today. Taken from many of our most powerful talks, these segments are sure to inspire you to set all afire for Christ and His Church.
