A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MATT

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

What an amazing day!

The day described in our First Reading was such an amazing day. The people of Israel have just returned to Jerusalem. They had been in exile for as long as any of them could remember. But God changed the heart of Cyrus, King of Persia, and not only did he allow Israel to return to their home, he rebuilt the temple and the walls of the city! It was astonishing. Ezra the priest, stood on a platform so that all the people could see him and the scroll with God's Word on it. Ezra proclaimed God's Word and explained God's Word to the people. This touched the people deeply. They were so moved at what God had done for them. Then Nehemiah and Ezra told the people, do not be sad this day! God was with them in the Word. Rejoice that God has come to you this way. Celebrate!
What an amazing day!

The Psalm says that God's Word is Spirit and life! This is what was read to the people. This is why Ezra and Nehemiah say that day was not one to be sad. Spirit and life have just been placed in their ears. The same Spirit that St. Paul will many years later say, as we hear in our Second Reading, makes us all members of one body!
What an amazing day!

In the Gospel, Jesus goes to Galilee in the power of that same Spirit. He goes to the synagogue and just as Ezra had done centuries earlier, He stands and unrolls the scroll, so that the people can see. He reads of the Spirit that has anointed Him to bring liberty and healing and recovery. He then explains it to the people. He explains very simply that the prophecy is about Him and it will be done in them. The translation we read today says that Jesus says this scripture is fulfilled "in your hearing." The literal translation of the Greek says the passage is fulfilled "in the ears of you." I like that even better. He is telling those people that this is it! This is the day of rejoicing. He is here in the Spirit and the Word is fulfilled by Him in them.
What an amazing day!

Wait a minute. Think about it. Wasn't God's Word just proclaimed to you, by a priest standing up on a step so that you could see him and the Word? Hasn't the Spirit been given to each of us who have been baptized? Isn't Jesus Himself here with us in the Word, the Eucharist, and in us, who have been made one, members of the Body of Christ? Yes! Yes to all of that! So then who should be the ones rejoicing today? We have so much more to rejoice about than those people did centuries ago in Ezra's time. So much more than those in that synagogue in those early days of Jesus' ministry. So much more. And so do you know what today is?
It is an amazing day!

No matter what is going on in your life, and I know you all have a lot of worries, sorrows, frustrations, doubts and fears. No matter what you have and I have, we have reason to rejoice. We have reason to hope. We have reason to keep going. Because Jesus Christ, Crucified, Risen and Ascended in to Heaven, is in our midst. He is with us in the Word, in the Eucharist, and in our Oneness as a community. So no matter what is going on, remember who you really are and the ways that God is with us. Think about that at Mass this Sunday.
What an amazing day!

Peace and Love,
Fr. Matt

Pope Francis has invited every Catholic to advise him on how to discern the Church's path forward. This process, called a "synod", means "journeying together." From now until spring 2022, Catholics from across this diocese – and across the world – can share what the Holy Spirit has laid on their hearts. This journey of listening will conclude in October 2023 in Rome. There, Pope Francis will listen to bishops who have been listening to their people worldwide about the best ways for the People of God to help him discern the Church's path forward. Text "Synod2021" to 84576 to receive regular updates on the Synod.
