Dear Parishioners,

As I continue to have opportunities to get to know each of you and your families, I was inspired to share with you a little more about me and my journey to the seminary.

I am a graduate of Lakeview High School in Cortland and received a bachelor's degree in Sport Management from Mount Union. After college graduation, I relocated to Winston Salem, North Carolina where I resided for 11 years prior to entering seminary. I was a project manager for a special events company which specialized in construction, signage, branding, and graphics, primarily for the PGA Tour. I spent a great deal of time on golf courses around the country and even abroad.

My career quickly (but sadly) became the center of my life. The faith that was instilled in me from my earlier years by my family and home parish was wavering. I was often working seven days a week and was missing Mass. My distance from the Lord's table was reflected in many of my actions and quite frankly, I was a lost sheep. Yet, the Lord and Good Shepherd never gave up on me. In fact, He was always calling me back to His loving embrace; I simply needed to open the ears of my heart and listen.

What one may call a conversion took root about three years prior to entering seminary, when I felt drawn back to the confessional to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Encountering God's mercy in the sacrament for the first time in many years was life changing. Soon after, I was regularly going to daily Mass and consequently became very active in the life of my parish in North Carolina. The focus of my prayer was no longer centered on me and what I wanted from life – I began to ask the bold question: “God, what do You want for my life?” After many months of prayerful discernment, I consistently felt the Lord's call in my heart, and I entered the seminary to continue discerning a vocation to the priesthood.

“God, what do You want for my life?” The world tends to draw us away from asking this question because the world has a way of convincing us that our freedom is defined by doing whatever we want. However, true freedom is always directed toward what is true and good; it is directed toward our ultimate happiness and joy with God. I continue to discover this freedom, this happiness and joy the more regularly I ask the question, “God, what do You want me to do?” Opening my heart to God in humility through prayer, I continue to grow in true freedom, a freedom that is for something, a freedom that is directed toward unity with our Heavenly Father.

This freedom is discovered when we are living our lives to the fullest according to God's will. In fully living out our particular vocation - the priesthood, religious life, married life, or devout single life - we each are called to take courage and respond daily to the Lord's call to holiness.

Let us pray together as the people of God that we may continue to live out this call from our Lord in the particular ways in which He calls us. It's a great blessing for me to be here at Our Lady for my pastoral year in seminary formation. I ask that you please keep me in your prayers and know that you will remain in mine.

GOD BLESS YOU,
Kevin Bertleff - seminarian

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: EX 16:2-4, 12-15

The whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "Would that we had died at the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!" Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not. 'I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God.'" In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, "What is this?" for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, "This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 78:

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

SECOND READING: EPH 4:17, 20 - 24

Brothers and sisters: I declare and testify in the Lord that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; that is not how you learned Christ, assuming that you have heard of him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

GOSPEL: JOHN 6:24-35

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?" Jesus answered them and said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal." So they said to him, "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent." So they said to him, "What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat." So Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

To give life to someone is the greatest of all gifts. To save a life is the next. Who gave life to Jesus? It was Mary. Who saved his life? It was ST. JOSEPH...for this honor is his alone; he alone is the savior of his Savior.

(Blessed William Joseph Chaminade, quoted from Consecration to St. Joseph, by Donald H. Calloway, MIC)

COMMUNITY CUPBOARD

When poor and working poor families face a set-back, such as an unexpected medical expense, missing work due to a sick child or vehicle repairs, the consequences can lead to a serious financial crisis. Sometimes there is not enough money left to cover all of the monthly expenses, especially hygiene items, cleaning and laundry supplies.

Catholic Charities' annual Community Cupboard campaign aims to provide families these much needed items. Please support our Community Cupboard campaign by visiting our website to learn more (www.ccdoy.org), praying for those impacted by poverty, and by making a donation to an agency site nearest you.

Thank you for your generosity.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

All men of the parish are invited to a Movie Night with Father Shawn, Thursday, August 5! The August 2 RSVP date is quickly approaching. Father is quite the movie buff, having seen a few thousand movies during his life and he loves to share about his hobby! This is a wonderful opportunity to meet him in a different venue and get to know more about him.

The free event, co-sponsored with Our Lady's KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, will be held in the parish hall, with food at 7:00pm and the movie starting at 7:30. Please RSVP by August 2 to Grand Knight Dan Rondini at (330) 562-2541 (call or text) or e-mail him at dan.rondini@gmail.com.

Father picked the movie, but is keeping his choice under wraps until the event. We plan to have this as a regular gathering, and are excited to see what Fr. Shawn chooses. See you there!

For more information about Our Lady's Knights of Columbus, contact Grand Knight Dan Rondini at (330) 562-2541 or dan.rondini@gmail.com.

Did you pick up your BE THE CHURCH sign or window cling? They are available after all Masses and in the parish office.

They are meant to help identify members of our parish. As after almost a year of not being able to see each other and be together, we want to help reconnect our parishioners. We miss you and so do your friends and pew mates. Look for the signs!

Ideas of what to do when you see a sign are included. Thank you for helping to #ReconnectOurLady.
