DEAR PARISHIONERS,

CHRIST IS BORN! GLORIFY HIM! MERRY CHRISTMAS! HAPPY NEW YEAR!

This weekend, as we continue the Twelve Days of Christmas, we celebrate the EPIPHANY. We celebrate the visitors to the Holy Family, who represent the spreading of the faith to the whole world.

As we begin the new calendar year, we celebrate Mary, the Mother of God. It is one of the oldest titles that we have for Mary. And, it is appropriate to remember her under that name during the season when we celebrate Christ's birth. And, so, we place ourselves once again under her protection. We entrust to her all of our hopes and fears for the New Year. Here is a prayer to Mary by Pope Francis:

Mary, Virgin and Mother, you who, moved by the Holy Spirit, welcomed the word of life in the depths of your humble faith:

as you gave yourself completely to the Eternal One, help us to say our own "yes" to the urgent call, as pressing as ever, to proclaim the good news of Jesus.

Filled with Christ's presence, you brought joy to John the Baptist, making him exult in the womb of his mother. Brimming over with joy, you sang of the great things done by God. Standing at the foot of the cross with unyielding faith, you received the joyful comfort of the resurrection, and joined the disciples in awaiting the Spirit so that the evangelizing Church might be born.

Obtain for us now a new ardour born of the resurrection, that we may bring to all the Gospel of life which triumphs over death.

Give us a holy courage to seek new paths, that the gift of unfading beauty may reach every man and woman.

Virgin of listening and contemplation, Mother of love, Bride of the eternal wedding feast, pray for the Church, whose pure icon you are, that she may never be closed in on herself or lose her passion for establishing God's kingdom.

Star of the new evangelization, help us to bear radiant witness to communion, service, ardent and generous faith, justice and love of the poor, that the joy of the Gospel may reach to the ends of the earth, illuminating even the fringes of our world.

Mother of the living Gospel, wellspring of happiness for God's little ones, pray for us.

Amen. Alleluia!

GOD BLESS YOU,
FR. SHAWN CONOBOY

EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

FIRST READING: MI 5:1-4A

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 72

R: Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

SECOND READING: EPH 3:2-3A, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

GOSPEL: MT 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS:DROPPED HOST

Question: What happens to a consecrated host if it accidentally falls to the ground?

Answer: This is a very practical question because, as we all know, accidents happen, especially with masks, even during the most careful celebration of the liturgy. The short answer to this question is that nothing happens to the consecrated host. The Real Presence of Jesus remains in the consecrated host or any consecrated wine that might accidentally be spilled.

Another question we might ask is:

How should the ministers respond if the Eucharist is dropped or spilled?

If this happens, the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion should immediately pick up the dropped host and consume it. If it is a case of the Precious Blood being spilled, the minister would use the purificator (and additional purificators if needed) to clean the spill and then the area should be reverently washed as soon as the Mass is over and the water poured into the sacrarium (a special sink that is located in church sacristies for reverently disposing of holy water, the water used to clean sacred vessels, etc.).

CONVERSATIONS WITH FR. CONOBOY

-JUSTICE EDITION

Father Shawn will be hosting conversations about Catholic Social Justice as a follow up to our monthly Justice Series that has appeared in the bulletin over the last 9 months.

Justice is more than doing good works. Topics of conversation to choose from include the value of work, poverty, is charity enough, and how our faith can help us listen to those whose views are so different than our own.

Our first topic will be on the theme SOLIDARITY. The discussion will ask: Do we believe that all people have the same value? How can our faith help us listen to those whose views are so different than our own? Please join us on January 27, at 6:30pm.

Use the QR code to see all the articles from the Justice series.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

It's hard to believe another year is over. While many consider traditional New Year's resolutions such as losing weight, cutting back on screen time or quitting smoking--all good goals--the KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS at Our Lady kindly suggest you also consider resolving doing something to serve your church or community.

Whether it is serving on a church committee, volunteering at a food bank or shelter or joining a local service organization or our own Knights of Columbus council, there is something you can do to help others, while at the same time helping yourself grow in faith. There are many opportunities and we encourage you to find the fit that is best for you.

Whatever your choice is for a resolution, we hope your choice will reassure your faith, confidence in yourself and continue your service to your church and community.

For more information about our council, contact Grand Knight Dan Rondini at (330) 562-2541 or dan.rondini@gmail.com

NOTE FROM SR. LU
