DEAR PARISHIONERS,

CHRIST IS BORN! GLORIFY HIM!

The feast of the Baptism of the Lord is the last day of the Christmas season, the last day of the Epiphany, the manifestation of Christ's presence begun at the Nativity. Of course, we are invited to think about our own baptism as well. Through Christ, we are all adopted sons and daughters of God the Father. And, as a child of God, we have a special mission in the world, a special mission to reveal God to the world. Now, there is another moment of Christ's life that is associated with these days of Epiphany: the Wedding Feast of Cana. We recognize Cana as the place where Jesus turned water into wine, a manifestation of his divine nature. St. John wrote this passage, linking it closely to the Creation in Genesis and the Crucifixion (our redemption). And, at the center of all of this is a wedding. As the fundamental experience of human love--of its joys, its sacrifice--marriage is how God, who is Love, becomes present to the world. That is to say, the Sacrament of Marriage, along with the Sacrament of Baptism, are two privileged ways that Christ is manifested to the world, today.

There is so much packed into the Christmas season. There is much to unwrap.

Our Faith Formation Program weekly sessions begin today. We pray for our youth, their catechists, and their parents and families. May the Holy Spirit guide you all.

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is dedicated as The Word of God Sunday, marked by an invitation to come to a deeper appreciation of the Scriptures. To that end, this year, I would like to give a couple of presentations. These presentations also serve as a snapshot of my Ph.D. dissertation. I will give two presentations: After the 4:30pm Mass on January 22, I will comment on Genesis 1-3: The Communion of Persons. And, after the 11am Mass on January 23, I will comment on Ephesians 5: The Sacrament of Marriage.

ALL ARE INVITED.

GOD BLESS YOU,

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:

Here is my servant whom I uphold,
 my chosen one with whom I am pleased,
 upon whom I have put my spirit;
 he shall bring forth justice to the nations,
 not crying out, not shouting,
 not making his voice heard in the street.
 a bruised reed he shall not break,
 and a smoldering wick he shall not quench,
 until he establishes justice on the earth;
 the coastlands will wait for his teaching.
 I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
 I have grasped you by the hand;
 I formed you, and set you
 as a covenant of the people,
 a light for the nations,
 to open the eyes of the blind,
 to bring out prisoners from confinement,
 and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 104

R: O bless the Lord, my soul.

SECOND READING: ACTS 10: 34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying: "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

GOSPEL: LUKE 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS: Baptismal Bib

Question:

At my grandson's Baptism, the priest put a bib on the baby. I do not remember seeing this before. Why is this done? Is it something new?

Answer:

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: "See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven." In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers and this is symbolized by the white garment. ©LPi

PARISH NEWS

CONVERSATIONS WITH FR. CONOBOY

-JUSTICE EDITION

Father Shawn will be hosting conversations about Catholic Social Justice as a follow up to our monthly Justice Series that has appeared in the bulletin over the last 9 months.

Justice is more than doing good works. Topics of conversation to choose from include the value of work, poverty, is charity enough, and how our faith can help us listen to those whose views are so different than our own.

Our first topic will be on the theme SOLIDARITY. The discussion will ask: Do we believe that all people have the same value? How can our faith help us listen to those whose views are so different than our own? Please join us on January 27, at 6:30pm.

Use the QR code to see all the articles from the Justice series.

SMALL GROUP OPPORTUNITY – Are you looking for an opportunity to meet with others to share faith and support? It's a new year and on Thursday mornings beginning January 13, at 9:45am, there is an opportunity to join others to share scripture and coffee.

Bishop Bonnar points out that by coming together in a small venue that individuals can encounter Jesus through the Gospel and in other ways enabling us to go forth and proclaim the Gospel. It is a powerful way to accompany one another as pilgrims on the journey.

All are invited. For more information contact Mac Clapp in the parish office.

AN INVITATION... Bishop Bonnar invites couples who are married civilly but not in the Church to inquire about beginning the validation process ("having your marriage recognized by the Church.")

Please contact the parish office at your earliest convenience to inquire about beginning the necessary steps leading to the validation of your marriage.

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION SESSION

Our next session for expectant or new parents anticipating a Baptism at Our Lady is Sunday, January 16, 12:00pm, Rm 201

Call the parish office to register. Attendance at a session is necessary before a date can be scheduled.

WELCOME TO OUR LADY !

Perhaps you are just visiting or have been attending Mass for some time. If you are not registered and would like to do so, please complete a RED Welcome Envelope, found on the table as you enter the church, (put it in the collection basket) or call the Parish office at 330-562-8519 to set up an appointment or send a message through our website at www.olphaurora.org.

We look forward to meeting you!
