WEEK OF CHRISTIAN UNITY - 2022

January 18-25, 2022

"We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship Him."

Matthew 2:2

The theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2022 was selected by the Middle East Council of Churches and originates from the churches in Lebanon. Present times in Lebanon are extremely difficult and economically disastrous. All this combined with the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic have made the situation quite stressful. The power of prayer in solidarity with those who suffer is a demonstration of Christian unity and a sign of communion.

The theme, taken from the second chapter of the Gospel according to Matthew, is the Epiphany. Each year in January, the Church recalls the visit of the Magi to Bethlehem, highlighting God's invitation to all of humanity to a new covenant in the Incarnation of Christ. In the Eastern Churches, Epiphany is joined to the mystery of the Baptism of Christ, a baptism all Christians hold in common as testimony to their faith in the Son of God.

A PRAYER FOR THE WEEK OF CHRISTIAN UNITY

God of every nation, creator of every human life, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Word of God, has been made manifest in human history by becoming one of us and one with us. Born in a stable, born in homelessness, he is our King and Lord. The Magi bore witness to the Light of hope coming into the world as they faithfully followed the star, coming from foreign lands in the East, until arriving in Bethlehem of Judea.

The solidarity of God with created humanity in this gift of Epiphany calls us to a life of solidarity with the homeless, the refugee, the weakest and the rejected. We are all human beings worthy of redemption and prepared by that redeeming love to the glory of your Kingdom. Help us, O gracious Lord, to do this in unity and peace.

As we who bear the name of Christian, from the days of the church at Antioch, hold a special place in our hearts for the ancient Christian communities in the land we call holy, remind us to continually respond to our baptismal promises to you, who said through your Spirit at the Jordan, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Help your Church, merciful One, to be a light for unity within itself and a beacon of hope for all humanity. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit reign as One God for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR PARISH AT PRAYER

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee
and so revealed his glory,
and his disciples began to believe in him.
-John 2:11

SECOND SUNDAY - ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD.

You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused."

For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 96

R: Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

SECOND READING: 1 COR 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters:

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

GOSPEL: JOHN 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS: Faithful DEPARTEDQuestion:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are! ©LPi

CONVERSATIONS WITH FR. CONOBOY

JUSTICE EDITION

Father Shawn will be hosting conversations about Catholic Social Justice as a follow up to our monthly Justice Series that has appeared in the bulletin over the last 9 months.

Justice is more than doing good works. Topics of conversation to choose from include the value of work, poverty, is charity enough, and how our faith can help us listen to those whose views are so different than our own.

Our first topic will be on the theme SOLIDARITY. The discussion will ask: Do we believe that all people have the same value? How can our faith help us listen to those whose views are so different than our own? Please join us on January 27, at 6:30pm.

Use the QR code to see all the articles from the Justice series.

DO YOU LOVE TO SING?

We are looking for new or returning members to sing with our Traditional Choir.

Practice is on Thursday evenings 7:00pm in the church. We sing at the 9:00am Sunday Mass.

If you would like to join us, please just come to a practice.

SMALL GROUP OPPORTUNITY – Are you looking for an opportunity to meet with others to share faith and support? It's a new year and on Thursday mornings at 9:45am, there is an opportunity to join others to share scripture and coffee.

Bishop Bonnar points out that by coming together in a small venue that individuals can encounter Jesus through the Gospel and in other ways enabling us to go forth and proclaim the Gospel. It is a powerful way to accompany one another as pilgrims on the journey.

All are invited. For more information contact Mac Clapp in the parish office.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Many adults want their kids to exercise good judgement and decision-making in life. One way to foster that in your child's mind is to get them involved in serving the church or volunteering at church activities as soon as they are old enough.

The KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS at Our Lady are not strangers to serving their church and community. For many of our members, the seeds of lifelong service may have started when they were young. Maybe they were altar servers or sang in a church choir. Maybe they were lectors, attended church youth programs or volunteered at special events.

We encourage you to get your children involved in helping the church, as they are the future of it! Starting them early will give them good judgement and a solid moral compass as they navigate life.

The church always needs more children involved, whether it be an altar server, eucharistic minister, lector and volunteer aids for FFP classes, just to name a few. Perhaps they would enjoy being part of our parish youth group or getting involved in a service project. Do not hesitate to contact the church office to see what age-appropriate activity would best suit your children!

For more information about Our Lady's Knights, text or call Grand Knight Dan Rondini at (330) 562-2541 or e-mail him at dan.rondini@gmail.com.
