Philosophical Anthropology and Biblical Interpretation in John Paul II's Theology of the Body

January 22, 5:30pm – Topic: Genesis 1-3: The Communion of Persons
January 23, 12:00 noon – Topic: Ephesians 5: The Sacrament of Marriage

Light refreshments will be served.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

This Sunday is WORD OF GOD SUNDAY. In the document establishing this Sunday, Aperuit Illis, Pope Francis writes:

"A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers."

The image that the Pope is using is the Road to Emmaus: He writes: "Before encountering his disciples, gathered behind closed doors, and opening their minds to the understanding of the Scriptures (Lk 24:44-45), the risen Lord appeared to two of them on the road to Emmaus from Jerusalem (Lk 24:13-35). Saint Luke's account notes that this happened on the very day of his resurrection, a Sunday. The two disciples were discussing the recent events concerning Jesus' passion and death.... The risen Lord himself gently draws near and walks with them, yet they do not recognize him (v. 16). Along the way, he questions them, and, seeing that they have not grasped the meaning of his passion and death, he exclaims: 'O foolish men, and slow of heart' (v. 25). Then, 'beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the Scriptures' (v.27). Christ is the first exegete! Not only did the Old Testament foretell what he would accomplish, but he himself wished to be faithful to its words, in order to make manifest the one history of salvation whose fulfillment is found in Christ."

The Pope continues: "The journey that the Risen Lord makes with the disciples of Emmaus ended with a meal. The mysterious wayfarer accepts their insistent request: 'Stay with us, for it is almost evening and the day is now far spent' (Lk 24:29). They sit down at table, and Jesus takes the bread, blesses it, breaks it and offers it to them. At that moment, their eyes are opened, and they recognize him (v. 31). This scene clearly demonstrates the unbreakable bond between sacred Scripture and the Eucharist." That is, "Sacred Scripture and the sacraments are thus inseparable."

In other words, the Pope is encouraging us to deepen our knowledge and devotion of Scripture and to maintain our regular celebration of the sacramental life of the Church.

With the Pope, I pray that we "May we never tire of devoting time and prayer to Scripture, so that it may be received 'not as a human word but as what it really is, the word of God' (1 Thess 2:13)."

And, recognizing the connection Catholics have with all Christians, the Pope says, "This Sunday of the Word of God will thus be a fitting part of that time of the year when we are encouraged...to pray for Christian unity."

GOD BLESS YOU,
FR. SHAWN CONOBOY

OUR PARISH AT PRAYER

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,
whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

THIRD SUNDAY - ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: NEH 8:2-4A, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it — for he was standing higher up than any of the people —; and, as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, “Amen, amen!” Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground. Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: “Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep” for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 19

R: Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

SECOND READING: 1 COR 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, “Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body, “ it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, “Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body, “ it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I do not need you, “ nor again the head to the feet, “I do not need you.” Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with greater honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this. But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.

Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers?

Do all work mighty deeds? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

FFP INFORMATION

PARENT FIRST EUCHARIST SESSION

Any parent whose child will be celebrating First Eucharist anytime within the next year should plan on attending the two First Eucharist parent meetings on:

Wednesday, January 26, 7:00pm

AND

Wednesday, February 2, 7:00pm

These sessions will take place in the Parish Hall. First Eucharist Student at Home Folders will be distributed. Families should begin to complete the lessons at home. Completed folders will be due at the Retreat on April 9.

If you have had an older child celebrate First Communion within the last three years and you previously attended BOTH parent sessions you only need to plan on attending the January 26 session.

FALL FFP FAMILY PROJECTS

FFP classroom sessions are in full swing. If you are a family who has not yet completed the fall projects, know that these are required for completion of the grade level of your child(ren).

If you have not completed all three fall projects, Mrs. Harper has contacted you via email and they are here for you to pick up during office hours or after weekend Mass.

If any families would like to make additional cards for nursing home residents, we have extra packets located on the same table.

GOSPEL: LUKE 1:1-4, 14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

CHURCH OVERSEAS COMBINED COLLECTION

Catholics around the country have always responded to the needs of people everywhere. The Diocese of Youngstown will hold the Church Overseas Combined Collection in order to assist the Church in its ministries throughout the world. This combined collection supports four major overseas services: Catholic Relief Services (CRS), Holy Father/Peter's Pence, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and the Church in Latin America. Please remember, as we move toward the season of Lent, to support these important programs of charity in the Church.

PARISH NEWS

CONVERSATIONS WITH FR. CONOBOY

The Charity and Justice committee is hosting a Conversation with Father Conoboy on Thursday, January 27, at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall as a follow up to our series of articles on social justice. The topic is Solidarity, and the conversation will surround our belief in the value of every person, and how our faith can help us listen to those whose views are so different from our own.

Use the QR code to see all the articles from the Justice series.

HOLY LAND GIFTS

Holy Land Gifts will be here the weekend of February 5/6. Items available will be rosaries, crucifix, nativity scenes and many hand carved items. Many great gifts for those making their First Communion!

Thank you for supporting this project to keep Christians present in the Holy Land of Jesus' birth.

DO YOU LOVE TO SING?

We are looking for new or returning members to sing with our Traditional Choir.

Practice is on Thursday evenings 7:00pm in the church. We sing at the 9:00am Sunday Mass.

If you would like to join us, please just come to a practice.

SMALL GROUPS

BISHOP DAVID BONNAR has stated: "It is my dream that parishes will form small groups for people to share their faith and support one another as they become disciples. These small group can be tailored to accommodate people's schedules and be made up of men, women, married couples and single individuals..."

With that in mind, please read this weeks bulletin insert on this topic and consider what type of small group might work for you or consider being a leader of a group.

Small groups build our sense of community and help us to belong to the family of God at the parish. They are an opportunity to create deep and lasting relationships with people who will share times of joy in your life, as well as encourage and help you in times of difficulty.

If you would like to participate in a small group or would like to lead one, please contact Fr. Shawn.

SMALL GROUP OPPORTUNITY – Are you looking for an opportunity to meet with others to share faith and support? It's a new year and on Thursday mornings at 9:45am, there is an opportunity to join others to share scripture and coffee.

Bishop Bonnar points out that by coming together in a small venue that individuals can encounter Jesus through the Gospel and in other ways enabling us to go forth and proclaim the Gospel. It is a powerful way to accompany one another as pilgrims on the journey.

All are invited. For more information contact Mac Clapp in the parish office.

WARM HEARTS FOR WARM HOMES

Many people come to Catholic Charities for assistance to keep their homes warm during the long, cold winter months here in Ohio. Catholic Charities' Warm Hearts for Warm Homes campaign (formerly Keep the Kids Warm) provides tangible assistance and peace of mind to individuals and families in need of utility assistance.

Please visit www.ccdoy.org to learn more or to make a gift online; give today in our parish; or mail checks to: Catholic Charities, 144 West Wood St., Youngstown, Ohio 44503. Thank you for your generosity.

SEMINARIAN FEEDBACK: One of the elements of my formation for priesthood is feedback, especially from YOU!

Using the link or QR Code below, you can submit feedback about my preaching, teaching, or general comments about my ministry. Once a month, I will be sharing a preaching reflection. I welcome positive or challenging feedback based on how you have observed me.

Please also feel free to email me if you have questions:

COMMUNITY

ST. JOSEPH'S MENS RENEWAL RETREAT (MANTUA)

Join us on February 19-20. Take some time for yourself. Enjoy fellowship, laughs and good food.

The weekend is a two-day gathering of men coming together in faith to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. We begin at 8:00am on Saturday, and end with Mass on Sunday afternoon. You will be fed in mind body and spirit.

This renewal is FREE for all men 18 and older.

Register online at: <http://bit.ly/MOSJMR2022>.

Info: Tim 216-338-8086 or Don 330-903-0928

We are located at 11045 St. Joseph Blvd., Mantua
