DEAR PARISHIONERS,

These days of ORDINARY TIME we recall the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. During his public ministry Jesus encountered people in their daily lives. The extraordinary events of HOLY WEEK, through his death and Resurrection ultimately accomplished the mission of redemption and salvation for which he was sent. And, the people were prepared for the fullness of the Paschal Mystery through the days of Christ's public ministry.

This is a reminder to us to bring the Gospel into our daily lives, everyday and into every place we find ourselves.

Last week at Mass I encouraged you to join a SMALL GROUP. These groups are a help to us as we live the Gospel each day.

GOD BLESS YOU,
FR. SHAWN CONOBOY

PARISH BASED SMALL FAITH-SHARING GROUPS

In forming Small Groups within our parish, members of the parish community are invited to share their faith with one another as they grow in their discipleship. As members of the family of God, by coming together in the small group setting of 6-12 people, you have an opportunity to create long-lasting, genuine relationships with people who share your faith and want to be a part of your life. Together, you can share and live out the joy of the gospel through fellowship, prayer and worship, while growing in your Catholic faith.

JOIN A SMALL GROUP

Small groups help you to know, love, and serve the Lord through prayer, generosity and evangelization. They help you to build your faith and strengthen your friendship with Christ and the Catholic Church.

There is a form in the back of the church that you can complete to join/lead a small group as well as ideas of different types of focus for the group. Please return your completed form either to the office or place in the collection baskets after Mass.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help pastoral staff commits to providing your group: a space to meet-in person or virtual, leadership training, access to resources, and ongoing support.

OUR PARISH AT PRAYER

And he said, "Amen, I say to you,
no prophet is accepted in his own native place."

FOURTH SUNDAY - ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: JER 1:4-5, 17-19

The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you. Be not crushed on their account, as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass, against the whole land: against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people. They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 71

R: I will sing of your salvation.

SECOND READING: 1 COR 12:31-13:13

Brothers and sisters: Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

GOSPEL: LUKE 1:1-4, 14-21

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

FFP INFORMATION

FALL FFP FAMILY PROJECTS

FFP classroom sessions are in full swing. If you are a family who has not yet completed the fall projects, know that these are required for completion of the grade level of your child(ren).

If you have not completed all three fall projects, Mrs. Harper has contacted you via email and they are here for you to pick up during office hours or after weekend Mass.

If any families would like to make additional cards for nursing home residents, we have extra packets located on the same table.

PARENT FIRST EUCHARIST SESSION

Any parent whose child will be celebrating First Eucharist anytime within the next year should plan on attending the two First Eucharist parent meetings on:

Wednesday, January 26, 7:00pm

AND

Wednesday, February 2, 7:00pm

These sessions will take place in the Parish Hall. First Eucharist Student at Home Folders will be distributed. Families should begin to complete the lessons at home. Completed folders will be due at the Retreat on April 9.

If you have had an older child celebrate First Communion within the last three years and you previously attended BOTH parent sessions you only need to plan on attending the January 26 session.

EAGLE OF THE CROSS

The "Eagle of the Cross" is an award given annually in the Diocese of Youngstown to outstanding juniors and seniors in high school, who show particular zeal in the improvement of their own parish ministry programs, high school ministry teams or youth work in general within the Diocese.

Nominees must be Catholic and exemplify the qualities of moral integrity, prayer, good works and Christian leadership. This award was created by the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry, and is the highest honor our diocese presents youth.

In the Diocese of Youngstown, a maximum of 3 awards per county for parish involvement and 2 awards per diocesan Catholic high school are awarded.

The Eagle of the Cross Award nominations are due in hard copy to the office of Youth and Young Ministry By February 11. Use the QR code for more details.

CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS FOR 2021

Statements for 2021 are available upon request only. To receive a Paper or Electronic copy of your statement, please either call the office or send an email to: mcorrigan@olphaurora.org. Paper statements will be in the Narthex the next weekend. (Please be sure to specify paper or email form.)

For On-Line Giving: You may print off a copy of your statement there. Either visit our website and click on "On-Line Giving" or go to OSVHUB.COM. Sign into your account, choose "My Account" from the menu. There you may pick the year and download your statement.

Your sustained financial support of Our Lady allows us to continue to be a witness to the Gospel in our community. Thank you!

THANK YOU!

Our Lady is truly a family centered parish. Thanks to all families, who helped clear the sidewalks of snow this past Sunday. With shovels, a broom, and a few pails of salt, our sidewalks were safe for our parishioners to attend Mass and Father Shawn's dissertation presentations. Your hard work was greatly appreciated.

Father Shawn's dissertation presentations were very interesting and informative. Father Shawn fed our minds. While other parishioners fed our bodies with delicious appetizers and desserts. Thanks to Father Shawn, the chefs, the bakers, and Our Lady's parishioners.

PARISH NEWS

HOLY LAND GIFTS

PIECEMAKERS TO MEET - Please join us Wednesday, February 2, 10:00am in Rm 105 to work on quilts or knit/crochet blankets, hats and more for the homeless, youth and babies. Feel free to join us!

SMALL GROUPS

BISHOP DAVID BONNAR has stated: "It is my dream that parishes will form small groups for people to share their faith and support one another as they become disciples. These small group can be tailored to accommodate people's schedules and be made up of men, women, married couples and single individuals..."

Small groups build our sense of community and help us to belong to the family of God at the parish. They are an opportunity to create deep and lasting relationships with people who will share times of joy in your life, as well as encourage and help you in times of difficulty.

If you would like to participate in a small group or would like to lead one, please complete the forms available at Mass. If you have questions, please contact Fr. Shawn.

HOSTED BY OUR

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

With 88 members strong and counting, the KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS at Our Lady continues to attract new members--and we are proud of our accomplishments in attracting new members!

This is not about having the largest number of people. We always say the more membership we have, the more diverse our council becomes because each member brings their own unique life and work experiences to the table. This can only add to our success. As a matter of fact, we were tied for third place with other councils in new members last year in the Youngstown diocese!

This wouldn't be possible with every member's help to make our council a success in helping so many people. We encourage you to find what the buzz is about by attending our monthly social meetings, which are scheduled for 7:30pm the second Monday of each month at the church. You may talk to our members, or contact our leadership directly. All men of the parish 18 or older welcome to join.

For more information about our council, text or call Grand Knight Dan Rondini at (330) 562-2541 or e-mail him at dan.rondini@gmail.com

SEMINARIAN FEEDBACK: One of the elements of my formation for priesthood is feedback, especially from YOU!

Using the link or QR Code below, you can submit feedback about my preaching, teaching, or general comments about my ministry. Once a month, I will be sharing a preaching reflection. I welcome positive or challenging feedback based on how you have observed me.

Please also feel free to email me if you have questions:
