FROM THE CORNER OFFICE...

Did you notice that change of the calendar page this week? Yes, dare I say that we are now into OCTOBER already? The Twenty-Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time is here and the time is coming for the planning of the Advent schedules. I was even asked if the Christmas decorations and Nativity set(s) will be coming out this year. But I know that the holiday season often stirs anxiety and depression with many people who feel alone. This is a sad thought, but one I often want to make clear with people, that we are a true family of faith, here as a parish.

The First Reading from Genesis tells us of the creation where God does not want us to be alone. Creating the animals and even man and woman as suitable partners – building a community! The relationship of the angels with us is even mentioned in St. Paul's Letter to the Hebrews. Despite the Pharisees looking to trip-up Jesus in the gospel passage from the Gospel of Mark, Jesus invites us to look at the Big Picture, and what God brings together! So that what God brings together – let us not separate. And yes! God brings us all together in one family of faith here at St. Thomas More, and beyond!

Fr. Mike

75th Anniversary thoughts:

Do I need to ask if there was anyone who did not enjoy themselves last weekend? The movie night on Friday evening was great with the movie, food, and beautiful weather. Sunday's outdoor Mass was a blast to share with everyone, and I would guess that you'll agree. One person asked that we bring a Polka Mass to STM next!

The weather was nice to set the tone for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and the feast continued with the cook-out afterwards. We are all thankful for the newly donated grill, which was baptized (by fire...) this time making the recovery time of the line-up quicker. The cookout was a bit rushed with many having to run off to sports games, which were successes no doubt! But, if anything, a simple few hours together as a family of faith is well worth the time.

Thank you to the 75th Anniversary Committee and volunteers, who even brought the Stadium Mustard! A great time was enjoyed by all – THANK YOU!

75TH ANNIVERSARY UPDATES

As of September 30th we have welcomed 31 new families (62 parishioners)! Our 75th Anniversary total is... $78,685.50. God bless you and thank you!!!

TRAVELING MADONNA

This week the statue is at the home of:
Paul & Mary Lou LoBue.

Please continue to pray for our host families as they share their home with our Traveling Madonna. Remember to send in any pictures that you take to the rectory. Please call the rectory to sign-up to host the Traveling Madonna in 2021. There are still a few weeks available this year to host the Madonna.

SAINT QUOTE

“I beg you to show the greatest possible reverence and honor for the most holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things, whether on earth or in heaven, have been brought to peace and reconciled with Almighty God.”

*St. Francis of Assisi (1181-1226),
Patron Saint of Ecology,
Feast Day: October 4th*

PASTORAL MINISTRY

What do you do? That's a question I have heard often, and it's an okay one. When I interviewed with Fr. Mike, I remember the words, "I would like you to be a resource person for the parish (Have 54 years of ministry under my belt) and a Catholic identity in our school." Father also added to "coordinate the Home-bound and health care Outreach Ministry.

This plays out by being a presence in the school, especially during lunch time when I can meet out students outside of class, being a resource to the teachers for prayers services and religion topics, and once-in-awhile, appearing in the classroom. Having been responsible for academics for 29 years, it's really wonderful to be what Father called "a presence."

In the parish, I try to be, if I can steal the line from the Pope, "A servant to the servants of Christ." To our elderly I try to keep in contact through letters, phone calls, and maybe even a visit. On Wednesdays, we have a commitment to Brooklyn Pointe. Eventually, you will see different programs showing up for the parish. I am still trying to jiggle what could be with part-time ministry. I like being the extra hands.

The best part of what I do is to get to know as many of our wonderful parishioners as possible and to come to know your stories. As a capitalist country, we always think in terms of "doing" but I speak for all those who have entered that "older adult" stage of life, there is much value in "being." Being the presence of Christ, being the love that God wants us to be, and being the Spirit that bonds a parish community together. I have discovered that I am not the only one doing this. I am impressed with the faith that I have found here and the warm welcome. Guess I won't be shaking any dust from my feet if you remember from the Gospel what Jesus told the apostles to do if they visited a town that was unfriendly.

God bless,
Sr. Jane, SND
Pastoral Associate

Sunday, October 3rd is Respect Life Sunday
October is Respect Life Month:

Let us pray:

We come to you, our God, the author and sustainer of every human life.

Grant us the courage and wisdom to protect your gift of human life from conception to natural death. Help us to defend our brothers and sisters both born and yet to be born with great love. Make us good stewards of every life.

May we live by the example of your Son, Jesus, who was always close to the weakest of the weak. Guided by your Holy Spirit, strengthen us to defend the most vulnerable among us, especially the unborn. Give us the grace to courageously live the Gospel of life with gentleness and joy. May our faithful witness soften the hearts and minds of those who reject the gift of life in any way. We entrust our prayer to you through Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.
