CHARLOTTE DIOCESE CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

CHARLOTTE

The anniversary year begins January 12, 2022. The theme for the year is "Faith More Precious Than Gold" (1 Peter 1:7). Bishop Jugis will offer the opening Mass at 7:00 PM at St. Patrick Cathedral, preceding by Holy Hour from 5:30 PM - 6:30 PM.

In solidarity with the diocese, we will have a holy hour at IHM on Wednesday, January 12, at 5:30 PM followed by a special Mass at 6:30 PM.

Please note - anniversary prayer cards are on the table at the side entrance.

REFLECT

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah was called to bring words of comfort and good news to the beleaguered Israelites held captive in Babylon. How do you minister to those in your life struggling to find God's presence?

Second Reading:

Paul taught Titus that baptized believers are called "to live temperately, justly, and devoutly." How well do you think you live by this moral and ethical standard?

Gospel:

We hear today the account of the baptism of Jesus and God's words from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." What do you imagine Jesus did (prior to the start of his public ministry) that was so pleasing to God?

CHURCH MAKEOVER

THIS MONDAY, JANUARY 10
9:45 AM - 11:30 AM

Help whisk away Christmas decor, bringing fresh shades of green for winter ordinary time. We need strong helpers for carrying boxes and ladders, nimble folks for climbing them, and others for light tasks like disassembling the crèche and moving banners and wreaths. Aides are welcome to take home a poinsettia.

Bring a mask; all other materials will be provided. Please email any questions to artenvironment@ihmchurch.org.

Thanks to all who have generously helped re-create our worship space for the Advent and Christmas seasons, too. Your gift of time brings beauty and rich prayer for our parish!

ALTAR FLOWERS

Would you like to honor a loved one with altar flowers? Please contact Judi Maerlender at 425-208-5508 to coordinate dates and to have your gift acknowledged in the bulletin.

Then call Llanes Flower Shop, 336-889-4211, who will provide an appropriate arrangement for the altar. You can speak with them about colors, etc., when you make your payment.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

As part of the diocesan combined collections program, the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, Church in Africa, Catholic Home Missions, and the United States Mission Collection have been combined into one second collection. That collection will be taken up at all Masses next weekend. Your contribution to the good work of these organizations will give you an opportunity to participate in the missionary activity of the Church on both a local and world level. This week, you should receive a letter from our Vicar General and Chancellor, Father Winslow, with an informative brochure. Please take the time to read through the brochure and become more familiar with the good work done by each of these organizations. The envelope for this collection is part of your parish envelope packet.

GIVING TREE

Thanks to you, the Giving Tree was again a huge success. We served 12 local agencies, including Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Mental Health, Teen Moms, Foster Care, World Relief refugee children, DePaul Academy, and many more youth groups. You also made Christmas enjoyable for our own IHM families. Without you, all this would not have been possible.

A huge THANK YOU to all the volunteers who helped in countless ways. As always, your kindness and generosity truly reflected the Christmas spirit at IHM!

Until next year,
Julie and Jennifer

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Please pray for the men and women in the military who are away from their loved ones as they serve our nation. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform on our behalf.

I HOPE I AM LIKE HIM

"Who is this Christ? Is he like you?"

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

"He is nothing like me," the saint is said to have answered. "But I hope I am like him."

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. "One worthier than I is coming," he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God's will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

AT MY GRANDSON'S BAPTISM, THE PRIEST PUT A BIB ON THE BABY. I DO NOT REMEMBER SEEING THIS BEFORE. WHY IS THIS DONE? IS IT SOMETHING NEW?

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: "See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven." In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers, and this is symbolized by the white garment.

Dangerously Low Blood Supply

This is serious. The Red Cross is experiencing the worst blood shortage in over a decade. The dangerously low blood supply levels have forced some hospitals to defer patients from major surgery, including organ transplants. Your donation is desperately needed this holiday season. Please schedule an appointment to give now.

LOOKING FOR A FEW VOLUNTEERS

IHM live-streams Masses for those who can't physically be present with us at Church but continue to view from home. We are looking for additional volunteers to help operate the camera.

Do you attend weekday Masses? Would you be willing to operate the camera (via the iPad) during Mass? Occasionally? On a holiday? Or even on a regular basis? Some minimal training is required. It is not difficult!

If you would be interested in learning more about this ministry, please contact Kathleen at: stewardship@ihmchurch.org.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus stood in line with everyone else and was baptized. There is something incredibly humbling about how this must have played out. Then, God did something truly awesome and inspiring. Through a very gentle and simple action he let the world know about the special relationship He shares with Jesus. That's exactly what is so incredible about our baptisms as well! Through those holy waters God announces to the world the special place we also occupy in His heart. We no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. We do not need to fumble around, tripping over ourselves and wondering why we are even here. The answer has been given. All we have to do is live out the vocation we have received, to live the Gospel in fidelity to our Creator. There is nothing to fear and worry has no place. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor and God is very pleased.

BLESS THE LORD,
O my soul.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

*"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."
- Lk 3:16bc*
