Mission Statement:

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY, a Catholic Faith Community, is called to be the presence of JESUS CHRIST in our world today. Guided by the vision of Vatican II and empowered by the HOLY SPIRIT, we respond to this call through:

Worship, centered in the celebration of the Eucharist; Formation in Scripture and Tradition;
Evangelization; Compassionate service; Fellowship.

Through the exercise of stewardship of time, talent, and treasure, we fulfill our mission to love GOD and our neighbor with our whole heart, soul, mind, and strength.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

*There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."
- Jn 2:1-3*

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

As part of the diocesan combined collections program, the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, Church in Africa, Catholic Home Missions, and the United States Mission Collection have been combined into one second collection. That collection will be taken up at all Masses next weekend. Your contribution to the good work of these organizations will give you an opportunity to participate in the missionary activity of the Church on both a local and world level. This week, you should receive a letter from our Vicar General and Chancellor, Father Winslow, with an informative brochure. Please take the time to read through the brochure and become more familiar with the good work done by each of these organizations. The envelope for this collection is part of your parish envelope packet. Please be generous to these programs.

REFLECT

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah used marriage imagery (bridge and groom) to describe the Lord's love for his people, Israel. What do you see as some implications of this marriage imagery?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Corinthians that the individual gifts of the Holy Spirit are meant to benefit and unify the community of faith. How do you use your spiritual gifts within your faith community?

Gospel:

Jesus turning water into wine at the wedding feast in Cana was one of the first public "signs" he performed revealing his divinity. It also showed Jesus' compassion, sparing the family shame at running short of wine. How do you imagine the family reacted to Jesus' intervention and rescue?

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

January 27

7:00 PM

IHM Church

What is the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity?

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is Spiritual Ecumenism that has been taking place since 1908 when Fr. Paul of Graymoor first celebrated this week as the Unity Octave with 8 days of prayer. Pope St. John XXIII used the occasion of celebrating the final Mass for the week at St. Paul's outside the walls on the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul in 1958 to announce his intent to call the Second Vatican Council. This is a small step toward the reunification of Christendom, it is never the less a step in the right direction, to fulfill Christ's desire "that all may be one" from John 17.

It should remind us that we ALL share in the mission of Christ's Church in the world, we are ALL baptized to be missionaries to the world. Divisions in Christianity hamper this mission, to build His Kingdom and infuse our culture and society with the values of the Gospel.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CREATION CARE MINISTRY

As You Put Away Your Christmas Lights...

IHM Creation Care Ministry is collecting Christmas string lights for recycling through the month of January. Please place lights (working or not) in the marked bin near the kitchen in the Gathering Space. Thank you for caring for our earth!

Recycling Collection Changes

IHM Creation Care Ministry and IHM School Environmental Club are no longer accepting cell phones, electronic devices, and printer ink/toner cartridges. Thank you very much to all who have donated in the past. We appreciate your desire to recycle and support the school's Environmental Club. Printer ink cartridges may be recycled through retailer or manufacturer recycling programs by returning them to the place of purchase. In High Point, take electronics to the Material Recovery Facility – 5875 Riverdale Drive or to an unmanned drop-off trailer at the Ingleside Compost Facility – 3001 Ingleside Drive, 336-883-3111. Items with electrical cords/batteries are hazardous and cannot be put in the trash or recycling bins for curbside pickup.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Please pray for the men and women in the military who are away from their loved ones as they serve our nation. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform on our behalf.

IT TAKES ALL KINDS

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR THE DEAD THROUGHOUT THE YEAR?

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

Please remember the recently departed and their families in your prayers.
