Mission Statement:

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY, a Catholic Faith Community, is called to be the presence of JESUS CHRIST in our world today. Guided by the vision of Vatican II and empowered by the HOLY SPIRIT, we respond to this call through:

Worship, centered in the celebration of the Eucharist; Formation in Scripture and Tradition;
Evangelization; Compassionate service; Fellowship.

Through the exercise of stewardship of time, talent, and treasure, we fulfill our mission to love GOD and our neighbor with our whole heart, soul, mind, and strength.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOE ZUSCHMIDT:

At the directives of my superiors and due to my age (I'll be 85 shortly) and health, I have moved to the Oblate retirement home in Childs, MD.

I have enjoyed my lengthy stay at Immaculate Heart of Mary. It has been life-giving. I have made many friends and I am grateful for all the love shown to me over the years.

If you wish, mail can be sent to my attention at De Sales Center Oblate Residence, PO Box 43, Childs, MD 21916-0043. My email address is joezosfs@aol.com.

Sincerely,

Fr. Joe

Mensaje del Padre Joe Zuschmidt:

Por directivas de mis superiores y debido a mi edad (cumpliré 85 años en breve) y salud, me he mudado a la casa de retiro de los Oblatos en Childs, MD.

Disfruté de mi larga estadía en Immaculate Heart of Mary. Ha sido vivificante. He hecho muchos amigos y estoy agradecido por todo el amor que me han mostrado a lo largo de los años.

Si lo desea, puede enviarme un correo a mi atención a De Sales Center Oblate Residence, PO Box 43, Childs, MD 21916-0043. Mi dirección de correo electrónico es joezosfs@aol.com.

Sinceramente,

Padre Joe - Padre José

REFLECT

First Reading:

In his call to be a prophet, the Lord informs Jeremiah of both the human resistance and the divine providence that lies ahead for him. When have you felt God's presence in the midst of turmoil in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul eloquently defines the spiritual virtue of "love" for the Christians in Corinth. How well do you live by the standards of love as defined by Paul

Gospel:

The people of Nazareth were "filled with fury" at Jesus' words to them. How do you imagine Jesus reacted to being rejected by those in his hometown of Nazareth

THANK YOU!

THE IHM PARISH COMMUNITY WOULD LIKE TO THANK FR. JOE

for his many years of service to IHM. While he was here, he wore many hats...Pastor (1989-1992, 1995-2002), Parochial Vicar (2007-2012), and Senior Priest (2012-2022). We are glad he chose to join us time and again.

We appreciate and treasure his leadership and guidance in helping IHM become the church it is today. He has guided us spiritually in countless ways, including his Scripture Sharing and Salesian Spirituality classes/videos, the Adult Faith Formation and HUGS sessions, and he has led many through the RCIA process to join the Catholic Church.

As someone who enjoys being with people, he helped start many parish social functions and even gave St. Nick 'a hand' each year at the Annual Breakfast with St. Nick. These events have provided many opportunities for the parishioners to get together for fellowship and fun.

He has been a wonderful mentor, teacher, and friend. We thank him for the love he has given to IHM.

With much love, we wish him many blessings and joy as he begins a new journey in life.

LA COMUNIDAD PARROQUIAL DE IHM DESEA AGRADECER AL PADRE JOE

por sus muchos años de servicio a IHM. Mientras estuvo aquí, tuvo diferentes cargos... Pastor (1989-1992, 1995-2002), Vicario Parroquial (2007-2012) y Sacerdote Residente (2012-2022). Estamos felices que nos haya elegido una y otra vez.

Apreciamos y atesoramos su liderazgo y guía para ayudar a IHM a convertirse en la iglesia que es hoy. El nos ha guiado espiritualmente de innumerables maneras, incluyendo sus clases/videos de Scripture Sharing y Salesian Spirituality ; Formación de Fe para Adultos y las sesiones de HUGS; y ha guiado a muchos a través del proceso de RICA para unirse a la Iglesia Católica.

Como alguien que disfruta estar con la gente, ayudó a iniciar muchas funciones sociales parroquiales e incluso personificó a St. Nick cada año en el Desayuno Anual con St. Nick. Estos eventos han brindado muchas oportunidades para que los feligreses se reúnan para compartir y divertirse.

El ha sido un maravilloso mentor, maestro y amigo. Le agradecemos el amor que siempre le ha dado a IHM.

De igual manera, con mucho amor, le deseamos muchas bendiciones y alegría al comenzar un nuevo viaje en la vida.

La Comunidad Parroquial de IHM desea agradecer al Padre Joe por sus muchos años de servicio a IHM.

FIRST CORINTHIANS AND THE STEWARDSHIP OF SOCIAL MEDIA

"Love is patient, love is kind ..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

I'VE HEARD PEOPLE CALL JESUS' CONCEPTION BY THE HOLY SPIRIT BEING "IMMACULATELY CONCEIVED." IS THAT WHAT THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION IS?

While these two events are often confused, they are not the same thing. We celebrated the conception of Jesus on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. While that was surely miraculous, it isn't what we refer to as the "immaculate conception."

The Immaculate Conception is Mary's conception, and we typically celebrate it on December 8th. If the 8th happens to be a Sunday, the Church moves the feast to December 9th. It is a holy day of obligation. Why does the Church consider it so important to celebrate?

Mary's conception is immaculate because she was conceived without original sin. The angel Gabriel acknowledges this when he hails Mary as "full of grace" (Luke 1:28). Scripture scholars identify several theological ideas that confirm this. In the Old Testament, the sacred, pristine Ark of the Covenant held the presence of God. The presence of God is now held within a new "arc" — the womb of Mary. Genesis 3 also prophesies of a woman who would oppose the devil and whose child would crush the devil's head. Christ is the "New Adam." This passage sets up Mary, then, as the "New Eve." Jesus and Mary are the beginnings of a new creation, one we all can participate in through the grace of our baptism. After all, God's love is more "original" than our sin!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF IHM SCHOOL & CATHOLIC EDUCATION!

Catholic Schools Week is an annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. Throughout the country, this week begins with a Mass that brings together members of the parish and school communities to celebrate the Eucharist.

On behalf of Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School, we would like to thank, the IHM Parish Community, for your continued involvement, prayers and support of your Parish School.

Catholic schools offer academic excellence and faith-filled education for students nationwide. National test scores, high school graduation rates, college attendance and other data show that Catholic schools frequently outperform schools in both the public and private sectors.

Through your commitment and dedication, our students are learning in a culture of faith, academics and service that is preparing them for meaningful lives in their families, communities and the Catholic Church.

THIS WEEKEND

The Fifth Sunday Collection this weekend is for Ward Street Community Resources, West End Ministries, and Open Door Ministries. All three organizations operate food pantries in our local community.

Let us continue to help our fellow community members in the High Point area during this time of unprecedented need.

Your generosity would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

EMERGENCY NATIONAL BLOOD SHORTAGE

Crisis: Lowest Blood Supply in 10 Years!

This is serious! The Red Cross is experiencing the worst blood shortage in over a decade.

Did you know - a single car accident victim can require as many as 100 units of blood, quickly depleting already low blood inventories? The dangerously low blood supply levels have forced some hospitals to defer patients from major surgery, including organ transplants.

Your donation is desperately needed!

Ser cristiano es ser un profeta comprometido en el amor y en la esperanza. La Liturgia de hoy, por medio del profeta Jeremías, nos pone en alerta sobre este asunto del llamado de Dios al discipulado ya desde el vientre materno. Por qué nadie es profeta en su tierra? Le pasó a Jesús y nos pasa muchas veces a nosotros, hacemos el bien por ahí y cuando se dan cuenta los vecinos y la familia, viene el cuestionamiento y los comentarios sin saber realmente lo que la persona es, vive, o siente.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

"But if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God who gives to all generously and ungrudgingly, and he will be given it."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a "Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador's civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica)." As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God's message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one's earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God's love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

- Lk 4:28-30
