St. Therese of the Child Jesus

"I prefer the monotony of obscure sacrifice to all ecstasies. To pick up a pin for love can convert a soul." These are the words of Therese of the Child Jesus, a Carmelite nun who lived a cloistered life of obscurity in the convent of Lisieux, France. And her preference for hidden sacrifice did indeed convert souls. Few saints of God are more popular than this young nun. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, is read and loved throughout the world. Therese Martin entered the convent at the age of 15 and died in 1897 at he age of 24.

Life in a Carmelite convent is indeed uneventful and consists mainly of prayer and hard domestic work. But Therese possessed that holy insight that redeems the time, however dull that time may be. She saw in quite suffering redemptive suffering, suffering that was indeed her apostolate. Therese said she came to the Carmel Convent "to save souls and pray for priests." And shortly before she died, she wrote: "I want to spend my heaven doing good on earth."

All her life long St. Therese suffered from illness. As a young girl she underwent a three-month malady characterized by violent crises, extended delirium, and prolonged fainting spells. Afterwards she was ever frail and yet she worked hard in the laundry and refectory of the convent. Psychologically, she endured prolonged periods of darkness when the light of faith seemed all but extinguished. The last year of her life she slowly wasted away from tuberculosis. And yet shortly before her death on September 30th she murmured, "I would not suffer less."

Truly she was a valiant woman, who did not whimper about her illnesses and anxieties. Here was a person who saw the power of love, that divine alchemy which can change everything, including weakness and illness, into service and redemptive power for others. Is it any wonder that she is patroness of the missions? Who else but those who embrace suffering with their love really convert the world?

Prayer to St. Therese

Dear St. Therese, guide me in your Little Way so that I may ascend to the heights and happiness of Heaven.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVES

In today's reading, Jesus tells us "whoever gives a cup of water will be rewarded." We may consider bringing a glass of water to a child at night or pouring cups of Kool-Aid for parched, sweaty five-year-olds a simple, and even monotonous, action. Yet these and many other simple, daily acts of parents are also sacred actions.

Intercession: For parents, that they might recognize that the simple tasks of parenting are all seen, blessed and appreciated by a loving Father...

Before you baptize your child, parish and diocesan policy require you to complete a Baptism Preparation Class. The next class will be Sunday, October 3rd, 11:00 am at Our Lady of Lourdes. If you plan to attend, call them at (216) 641-2829.

The 2022 Mass Calendar is Open

Parishioners may schedule Mass Intentions for 2022. There is a limit of 2 Masses, each 6 months, for the Vigil and Sundays only. The Stipend is $10.00 per Mass.

No phone calls or walk ins will be accepted.

In order to accommodate everyone, on a first come first serve basis, we are asking that you:

A. Put your request(s) in writing and place it in the collection basket or mail it to the rectory.

B. Include your name, address and phone number on your request(s) so we can contact you if any adjustments are necessary.

We appreciate your cooperation!

There are no Masses available in 2021.

40 Days for Life Fall 2021 Campaign

From September 22nd - October 31st, you are invited to join with other Christians for 40 Days for Life - 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You are also invited to stand and peacefully pray anytime between 7 am to 7 pm daily during the 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside:

Preterm - 12000 Shaker Blvd., Cleveland
Planned Parenthood - 25350 Rockside Rd. Bedford Hts.

For more information contact John Noall at clevelandprayforlife@gmail.com for family, parishioners & friends who are ill or hospitalized, and all those suffering from the corona virus.

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel speaks about sacrifice. It is not the question of what you would be willing to give up from Christ, but rather what stands in the way of your giving your whole self to the Lord.

The images are a bit brutal: losing eyes and limbs, and so forth. Jesus spoke in a way that was eminently memorable. If you heard Him speak like He does in today's Gospel, I'm sure you would be able to tell the folks at home what He said. Obviously, the examples are rhetorical tools to impress on our minds just how essential it is that we follow Jesus. Some people today deny the existence of hell and with that seem to negate the possibility of condemnation. If there is no hell, what are we worried about? Jesus never had that doubt. He spoke frequently about the possibility of condemnation to a place where "the worm never dies and the fire is never quenched (Mark 9:48)."

Obviously, there have been some preachers who have used the idea of hell just to frighten people. The cliché of "fire and brimstone" is well known to even those who are not frequent churchgoers. However, it is wrong not to think of the decisive character of our spiritual life. I used to laugh when people told me about a pastor who would say at nearly every funeral, "We don't know if this person is in heaven or hell, we can only hope." Not the best message for a funeral mass, but a good one for perspective. Our faithfulness to God is what will make the difference of our destiny. He wants to save us, but as St. Augustine says, "God who made us without our consent will not save us without our participation."

Jesus also talks about the other alternative in today's Gospel. Specifically, He says that if someone gives a thirsty person even a cup of water for His sake, "will surely not lose his reward." The great doctor of the Church, St. John Chrysostom said of this text that it appeared that Our Lord was looking for excuses to reward us. God will repay every act of true generosity.

I hope all of you saw that the pope recently called abortion "homicide" and those who support it "outside the community." This was in an interview on his way back from Slovakia. That should make some "Catholic" politicians think about their stands. Catholics and other Christians have been insisting on the value of each human life. This is not a matter of opinion or an issue for partisan politics. It is about a culture with humanity and hope.

Last week I wrote about the golf outing. Thanks be to God it looks like our parish cleared $25,000 on it. We're waiting to hear about the outing sponsored by the Sacha family in memory of Rich Sacha (RIP) last week. May God reward their generosity.

St. Joseph, pray for us. May Our Lady of Perpetual Help intercede for us and may God bless us all.

Msgr. Richard Antall
